PALACE OF HOLYROOD,

31st August 1852.

THIS Afternoon, at Five Minutes past Five o'Clock, Her Most Gracious Majesty THE QUEEN, accompanied by His Royal Highness THE PRINCE ALBERT, and Their Royal Highnesses THE PRINCE OF WALES, THE PRINCESS ROYAL, PRINCESS ALICE, and PRINCE ALFRED, and Suite, arrived at Her Majesty's Royal Palace of Holyrood.

On Her Majesty's entering the Palace a Royal Salute was fired from the Guns of the Castle.

At the Court at Osborne-House, Isle of Wight,
the 18th day of August 1852,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, entitled "An Act to amend the Law of Copyright," it is among other things enacted, that it shall not be lawful for any person, not being the proprietor of the copyright, or some person authorised by him, to import into any port in the United Kingdom, or into any other part of the British Dominions, for sale or hire, any printed book first composed or written, or printed and published in any part of the United Kingdom, wherein there shall be copyright, and reprinted in any country or place whatsoever out of the British Dominions :

And whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, entitled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," books, wherein the copyright is subsisting, first composed, or written, or printed in the United Kingdom, and printed or reprinted in any other country, are absolutely prohibited to be imported into the British possessions abroad : And whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the tenth and eleventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty, entitled "An Act to amend the law relating to the protection in the colonies of works entitled to copyright in the United Kingdom;" it is enacted, that in case the legislature, or proper legislative authorities in any British possession, shall be disposed to make due provision for securing or protecting the rights of British authors in such possession, and shall pass an Act or make an Ordinance for that purpose, and shall transmit the same, in the proper manner, to the Secretary of State, in order that it may be submitted to Her Majesty, and in case Her Majesty shall be of opinion that such Act or Ordinance is sufficient for the purpose of securing to British authors reasonable protection within such possession, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, if she think fit so to do, to express Her royal approval of such Act or Ordinance, and thereupon to issue an Order in Council, declaring that so long as the provisions of such Act or Ordinance continue in force within such colony, the prohibitions contained in the aforesaid Acts, and hereinbefore recited, and any prohibitions contained in the said Acts, or any other Acts, against the importing, selling, letting out to hire, exposing for sale or hire, or possessing foreign reprints of books, first composed, written, printed, or published in the United Kingdom, and entitled to copyright therein, shall be suspended, as far as regards such colony : And whereas an Act has been passed in Saint Vincent, No. 602, entitled "An Act to authorise the importation into the Government of the Island of St Vincent and its dependencies, of books being foreign reprints of books first composed, or written, or printed, or reprinted, or published in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and in which there may be any copyright," whereby due provision is made for securing and protecting the rights of British authors in the said Island : And whereas Her Majesty hath expressed Her royal approval of the same :

Now therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of Her Privy Council, and by the authority of the said recited Act of the Session of Parliament held in the tenth and eleventh years of Her Majesty's reign, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that so long as the provisions of the said Act of the Legislature of the said Island shall remain and continue in force within the said Island, all prohibitions in the said hereinbefore recited Acts of the Imperial Parliament, or in any other Acts thereof contained, against the importing into the said Island, or against the selling, letting out to hire, or possessing therein foreign reprints of books, first composed, written, printed, or published in the United Kingdom, and entitled to copyright therein, shall be suspended, so far as regards the said Island.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Sir John Pakington, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. GREVILLE.

At the Court at Osborne-House, Isle of Wight,
the 18th day of August 1852,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas by the "Foreign Deserters Act, 1852," it is provided, that whenever it is made to appear to Her Majesty that due facilities are or will be given for recovering and apprehending seamen who desert from British Merchant Ships in the territories of any Foreign Power, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, stating that such facilities are or will be given, declare that seamen, not being slaves, who desert from Merchant Ships belonging to a subject of such Power, when within Her Majesty's Dominions, or the territories of the East India Company, shall be liable to be apprehended and carried on board their respective ships, and may limit the operation of such order, and may render the operation thereof subject to such conditions and qualifications, if any, as may be deemed expedient:

And whereas it hath been made to appear to Her Majesty, that due facilities have been or will be given for recovering and apprehending seamen who desert from British Merchant Ships in the territories of The Emperor of all the Russias, The King of Sweden and Norway, and the Republic of Peru:

Now therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by the said "Foreign Deserters Act, 1852," and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, that from and after the publication hereof in the London Gazette, seamen, not being slaves, who desert from Merchant Ships belonging to subjects of any of the three Powers aforesaid, when within Her Majesty's Dominions, or the territories of the East India Company, shall be liable to be apprehended and carried on board their respective ships.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Commissioners for the affairs of India, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. GREVILLE.

DOWNING-STREET, August 25, 1852.

The Queen has been pleased to appoint William à Beckett, Esq. to be Chief-Justice, and Redmond Barry, Esq. to be Puisne Judge, of the Supreme Court of the Colony of Victoria;—James Simpson, Esq. to be Sheriff of that Colony; and James Denham Pinnock, Esq. to be Registrar of the Supreme Court of that Colony.

Her Majesty has also been pleased to appoint George Mason, Esq. to be Civil Commissioner and Resident Magistrate for the district of Graaff Reinet, in the Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope.

WHITEHALL August 26, 1852.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Arthur Henry Dyke Acland, of Huntsham, in the county of Devon, Esquire, second son of Sir Thomas Dyke Acland, of Killerton, in the said county of Devon, Baronet, Her royal licence and authority, that in compliance with a condition contained in the last will and testament of Edward Berkeley Troyte, Rector of the parish of Huntsham aforesaid, and of Puckington, in the county of Somerset, Doctor of Laws, deceased, he and his issue may henceforth take and use the surname of Troyte only, instead of that of Acland, and bear the arms of Troyte quarterly with his own family arms of Acland; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise to be void and of none effect:

And also to command that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Office of the Inspector-General of Imports and Exports, Custom-House, London, 25th August 1852.

R. D. WOODFIELD,
Inspector-General of Imports and Exports.

INTIMATION is Hereby Given, that JOHN RAMSAY, Esq. of BARRA, Heir of Entail in possession of the Entailed Estates of BARRA and Others, in the Parish of Bourtrie, and Sheriffdom of Aberdeen; and of STRALOCH, CRAIGIES, and Others, in the Parish of St Machar, and Sheriffdom of Banff, and Parish of Belhelvie, and County of Aberdeen,—has, with consent of his Curators, presented a Petition to the Court of Session (First Division, Mr Walker, Clerk), under the Act 11th and 12th Victoria, cap. 36, entitled ‘An Act for the Amendment of the Law of Entail in Scotland,’ praying their Lordships to find and declare that certain Improvements executed by the Petitioner on the said Entailed Estates are of the nature contemplated by the Act 10 Geo. III, cap. 51; and that the expenditure of L.9264, 17s. 5d., (of which the sum of L.5879, 15s. 11d. was expended prior, and the sum of L.3385, 1s. 6d. was expended subsequently, to 14th August 1848, the date of passing of the said Act of 11th and 12th Victoria, cap. 36,) or such other sum as shall be ascertained in the course of the procedure to follow on the said Petition, was bona fide made by the Petitioner while Heir of Entail in possession of the said Estates, and does not exceed the amount authorised by the said Act of 10 Geo. III, cap. 51; and to grant warrant to the Petitioner to execute in favour of any party or parties he may think fit, a Bond or Bonds of Annualrent in ordinary form over said Entailed Estates, or any portion thereof, in the terms following, viz.—In respect of the Improvements executed prior to said 14th August 1848, a Bond or Bonds of Annualrent, binding the Petitioner and his Heirs of Tailzie to make payment of an Annualrent during the period of his own life, and twenty-five years thereafter,—such Annualrent during his own life not exceeding the legal interest of three-fourth parts of the sum ascertained to have been expended upon Improvements, as aforesaid, prior to said 14th August 1848; and during the twenty-five years after his decease, not exceeding the sum of L.7, 2s. for every L.100 sterling of such three-fourth parts, as aforesaid, and so in proportion for any greater or less sum; and in respect of the Improvements executed subsequently to said 14th August 1848, a Bond or Bonds of Annualrent over said Entailed Estates, or any portion thereof, binding the Petitioner and his Heirs of Tailzie to make payment of an Annualrent during the period of twenty-five years, from and after the Decree of their Lordships to follow on the said Petition, or during such part of the said period of twenty-five years as may remain unexpired at the date of such Bond or Bonds,—such Annualrent not exceeding the sum of L.7, 2s. for every L.100 of the whole sum ascertained to have been expended on Improvements, as aforesaid, subsequently to said 14th August 1848, and so in proportion for any greater or less sum,—the said Annualrents respectively being payable half-yearly by equal moieties, at the terms of Whitsunday and Martinmas, beginning the first term’s payment at the first term of Whitsunday or Martinmas after the date or dates of the Bond or Bonds, for the proportion of Annualrent then due, with legal interest and penalties in case of failure; or otherwise, in the option of the Petitioner, to grant warrant to, and authorise him to charge the fee and rents of said Entailed Estates, other than the Mansion-House, Offices, and Policies thereof, or the fee and rents of any portion of such Estates, other than as aforesaid, with two-third parts of the sum or respective sums on which the amount of said Bond or Bonds of Annualrent, if granted, would be calculated, in terms of said Act of 11th and 12th Victoria, cap. 36, by granting in favour of any Creditor or Creditors who may advance the amount of such two-third parts, a Bond and Disposition in Security, or Bonds and Dispositions in Security over such Estates, or any portion thereof, other than as aforesaid, for such amount, with the due and legal interest thereof from the date of such advance until repaid, and with corresponding penalties:—such Bonds and Dispositions in Security being in the form, having the effect and operation, and being subject to the conditions and provisions specified or referred to in said last-mentioned Act;—On which Petition the Lords of the First Division of the Court pronounced the following Interlocutor:—Edinburgh, 20th July 1852.—The ‘Lords appoint the Petition to be intimated on the Walls and in the Minute-Book for fourteen days, and also to be served on the persons on whom it prays for an order for service to be made, and them to answer the same if advised so to do, within the proper periods, in terms of the Statute and relative Acts of Sederunt; also appoint the same to be publicly advertised once in the Edinburgh Gazette, and once weekly for six successive weeks in the North British Advertiser, and Aberdeen Journal.

Glasgow, August 25, 1852.

BEAUTIFUL SMALL ESTATE IN FIFE, FOR SALE.

To be Sold by Public Roup, on Thursday 28th October 1852, at Two o'Clock P. M., within CAY & BLACK'S Sale-rooms, No. 45, George Street, Edinburgh, unless previously Sold by Private Bargain,

THE LANDS AND ESTATE OF BLINKBONNY, being the eastern half of the Barony of Kinnaird, situated within seven miles of Cupar, three of Newburgh, and thirteen of Perth. The Lands nearly adjoin the Turnpike Road between Cupar and Perth, and the Barony Road between Newburgh and Newport; and Glenburnie Station of the Edinburgh, Perth, and Dundee Railway, is only a mile and a half distant.

The Lands, which are of the best quality, and in excellent condition, are let to an enterprising tenant, on a lease which expires at Martinmas 1859.

The Steading was erected in 1841, and is most commodious and substantial.

There are many beautiful situations for building. On the northern boundary the view is most extensive, comprising the River Tay, the Course of Gowrie, Strathearn, Newburgh, Perth, and Dundee; and either as a residence or an investment, few properties possess greater advantages.

For farther particulars application may be made to Messrs Dundas & Wilson, C.S., 16, St Andrew Square, Edinburgh; or Messrs Drummond and Mitchell, Writers, Cupar-Fife.

Edinburgh, 23d July 1852.
