PALACE OF HOLYROOD,

31st August 1852.

THIS Afternoon, at Five Minutes past Five o'Clock, Her Most Gracious Majesty THE QUEEN, accompanied by His Royal Highness The PRINCE ALBERT, and Their Royal Highnesses The PRINCE OF WALES, The PRINCESS ROYAL, PRINCESS ALICE, and PRINCE ALFRED, and Suite, arrived at Her Majesty's Royal Palace of Holyrood.

On Her Majesty's entering the Palace a Royal Salute was fired from the Guns of the Castle.

At the Court at Osborne-House, Isle of Wight,
the 18th day of August 1852,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, entitled "An Act to amend the Law of Copyright," it is among other things enacted, that it shall not be lawful for any person, not being the proprietor of the copyright, or some person authorised by him, to import into any port in the United Kingdom, or into any other part of the British Dominions, for sale or hire, any printed book first composed or written, or printed and published in any part of the United Kingdom, wherein there shall be copyright, and reprinted in any country or place whatsoever out of the British Dominions :

And whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, entitled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," books, wherein the copyright is subsisting, first composed, or written, or printed in the United Kingdom, and printed or reprinted in any other country, are absolutely prohibited to be imported into the British possessions abroad : And whereas by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the tenth and eleventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty, entitled "An Act to amend the law relating to the protection in the colonies of works entitled to copyright in the United Kingdom;" it is enacted, that in case the legislature, or proper legislative authorities in any British possession, shall be disposed to make due provision for securing or protecting the rights of British authors in such possession, and shall pass an Act or make an Ordinance for that purpose, and shall transmit the same, in the proper manner, to the Secretary of State, in order that it may be submitted to Her Majesty, and in case Her Majesty shall be of opinion that such Act or Ordinance is sufficient for the purpose of securing to British authors reasonable protection within such possession, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, if she think fit so to do, to express Her royal approval of such Act or Ordinance, and thereupon to issue an Order in Council, declaring that so long as the provisions of such Act or Ordinance continue in force within such colony, the prohibitions contained in the aforesaid Acts, and hereinbefore recited, and any prohibitions contained in the said Acts, or any other Acts, against the importing, selling, letting out to hire, exposing for sale or hire, or possessing foreign reprints of books, first composed, written, printed, or published in the United Kingdom, and entitled to copyright therein, shall be suspended, as far as regards such colony : And whereas an Act has been passed in Saint Vincent, No. 602, entitled "An Act to authorise the importation into the Government of the Island of St Vincent and its dependencies, of books being foreign reprints of books first composed, or written, or printed, or reprinted, or published in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and in which there may be any copyright," whereby due provision is made for securing and protecting the rights of British authors in the said Island : And whereas Her Majesty hath expressed Her royal approval of the same :

Now therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of Her Privy Council, and by the authority of the said recited Act of the Session of Parliament held in the tenth and eleventh years of Her Majesty's reign, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that so long as the provisions of the said Act of the Legislature of the said Island shall remain and continue in force within the said Island, all prohibitions in the said hereinbefore recited Acts of the Imperial Parliament, or in any other Acts thereof contained, against the importing into the said Island, or against the selling, letting out to hire, or possessing therein foreign
