WHITEHALL, September 7, 1852.

THE following ADDRESSES were presented to The QUEEN in Person on Her Majesty's route to Scotland, and were very graciously received by Her Majesty :—

To The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the ancient city of Gloucester, avail ourselves with pride and gratification of the present opportunity to renew to your Majesty the expression of our most devoted loyalty and attachment to your Person and Throne, and to offer to your Majesty, and your Royal Consort and Children, our warmest welcome and cordial congratulations.

We beg to express our earnest hope that under the divine blessing your Majesty's sojourn at your Highland residence may be the means of preserving you in that health which is so necessary to the happiness and welfare of your faithful subjects.

And we fervently pray that your Majesty, and your Majesty's Royal Consort and beloved and youthful Family, may long continue to enjoy the proud satisfaction of beholding the grandeur of your Empire, and the contentment, happiness, and unity of your People.

Given under the common seal of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the city of Gloucester, this 30th day of August 1852.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Bishop and Clergy of Gloucester and its neighbourhood, humbly approach you to testify our happiness at beholding your arrival, with your Royal Consort and Family, in this your ancient city. We are deeply sensible of the many blessings which this Nation enjoys through your Majesty's sway and your Majesty's example.

We rely upon a continuance of your gracious support to that Church of which you are the Earthly Head. We might have ventured to express more fully the reasons of our attachment to your Majesty and to your Throne, but at this moment our loyalty will be better shewn by a brief declaration of our sincere hope and devout prayer that Almighty God may guard and protect your Majesty, and your Consort and Family, both on your present journey and in the course through this life to His everlasting Kingdom.

J. H. GLOUCESTER and BRISTOL.

To The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Birmingham, in the County of Warwick, in Council assembled, approach your Majesty with the tender of a respectful and hearty welcome.

On the happy occasion of your Majesty's last visit to this borough, we offered to your Majesty the sincere homage of its inhabitants, then enjoying the fruits of the wise legislation which had received the exalted sanction of your Majesty's approval.

The loyalty and devotion of a prosperous and contented people best attest their continued sense of the benefits thus conferred, and of their grateful appreciation of your Majesty's just and beneficent rule.

It is our earnest prayer that your Majesty may long be spared to dispense the blessings of Constitutional Government, and to receive new and enduring proofs of attachment to your Majesty's Throne and Person from all classes in your Majesty's dominions.

In testimony whereof, the corporate common seal of the said borough is hereunto affixed, this 27th day of August 1852.

To The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Derby, in Council assembled, eagerly avail ourselves of your Majesty's visit to this borough to tender to your Majesty our humble duty, and to assure your Majesty of our continued loyal devotion to your Majesty's Person and Throne.

We pray heartily for the blessing of God on your Majesty, for the health and happiness of your Majesty's Royal Consort and Children, and for the long continuance in peace and prosperity of your Majesty's reign.

JNO. DUNNICLIFF, Mayor.

At the Court at Osborne-House, Isle of Wight,
the 18th day of August 1852,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas by an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, entitled "An Act to amend the law of copy-right," it is among other things enacted that it shall not be lawful for any person, not being the proprietor of the copyright, or some person authorised by him, to import into any port in the United Kingdom, or into any other part of the British dominions, for sale or hire, any printed book, first composed, or written, or printed and published in any part of the United Kingdom wherein there shall be copyright, and reprinted in any country or place whatsoever out of the British dominions :

And whereas by an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the eighth and ninth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, entitled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," books, wherein the copyright is subsisting, first composed, or written, or printed in the United Kingdom, and printed or reprinted in any other country, are absolutely prohibited to be imported into the British possessions abroad : And whereas by an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the tenth and eleventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty, entitled "An Act to amend the Law relating to the protection in the colonies of works entitled to copyright in the United Kingdom ;" it is enacted that in case the legislature, or proper legislative authorities, in any British possession, shall be disposed to make due provision for securing or protecting the rights of British authors in such possession, and shall pass an Act or make an Ordinance for that purpose, and shall transmit the same, in the proper manner, to the Secretary of State, in order that it may be submitted to Her Majesty, and in case Her Majesty shall be of opinion that such Act or Ordinance is sufficient for the purpose of securing to British authors reasonable protection within such possession, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, if she think fit so to do, to express Her royal approval of such Act or Ordinance, and thereupon to issue an Order in Council declaring that so long as the provisions of such Act or Ordinance continue in force within such colony, the prohibitions contained in the aforesaid Acts, and hereinbefore recited, and any prohibitions contained in the said Acts, or any other Acts, against the importing, selling, letting out to hire, exposing for sale or hire, or possessing foreign reprints of books, first composed, written, printed, or published in the United Kingdom, and entitled to copyright therein, shall be suspended, so far as regards such colony : And whereas an Act has been passed in Saint Vincent, No. 602, entitled "An Act to authorise the importation into the Government of the Island of St. Vincent and its dependencies, of books, being foreign reprints of books first composed, or written, or printed, or reprinted, or published in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and in which there may be any copyright," whereby due provision is made for securing and protecting the rights of British authors in the said Island : And whereas Her Ma-

And whereas Her Majesty, hath expressed Her royal approval of the

Now therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of Her Privy Council, and by the authority of the said recited Act of the session of Parliament held in the tenth and eleventh years of Her Majesty's reign, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that so long as the provisions of the said Act of the Legislature of the said Island shall remain and continue in force within the said Island, all prohibitions in the said hereinbefore recited Acts of the Imperial Parliament, or in any other Acts thereof contained, against the importing into the said Island, or against the selling, letting out to hire, or possessing therein, foreign reprints of books, first composed, written, printed, or published in the United Kingdom, and entitled to copyright therein, shall be suspended, so far as regards the said Island.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Sir John Pakington, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. GREVILLE.

TREASURY WARRANT.

Whereas by an Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," the Postmaster-General is authorized to charge on all letters conveyed by packet-boats between one part of Her Majesty's dominions and another part of the same dominions, and between Her Majesty's dominions and foreign parts, where post communications shall be established, such rates of postage as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, by Warrant under their hands, shall from to time direct :

Now we, the undersigned, being two of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, do, in exercise of the power and authority in us for such purpose vested in and by the said Act, and of all other powers and authorities enabling us in this behalf, direct that on every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight, transmitted by the post between any place in the United Kingdom and any port in Goree, Liberia, Lagos, Bonny, Old Calebar, Cameroons, and Fernando Po, on the coast of Africa, or between any ports in Goree; Liberia, Lagos, Bonny, Old Calebar, Cameroons, and Fernando Po, without passing through the United Kingdom, (the sea conveyance of such respective letters being by packet boat,) there shall be charged and paid, in lieu of any rates of postage now payable thereon, a rate of postage of one shilling.

And we further direct that on every letter transmitted as is mentioned in this Warrant, exceeding half an ounce in weight, there shall be charged and paid progressive and additional rates of postage as follows ; that is to say :—

On every letter exceeding half an ounce in weight, and not exceeding one ounce in weight, two rates of postage.

On every letter exceeding one ounce, and not exceeding two ounces in weight, four rates of postage.

On every letter exceeding two ounces, and not exceeding three ounces in weight, six rates of postage.

And on every letter exceeding three ounces, and not exceeding four ounces in weight, eight rates of postage.

And for every ounce in weight above the weight of four ounces there shall be charged and taken two additional rates of postage ; and every fraction of an ounce above the weight of four ounces shall be charged as one additional ounce, and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum of one shilling.

And we further direct that such printed newspapers as are hereinafter mentioned, may be sent by the post (the sea conveyance being by packet-boat,) according to the regulations and rates hereinafter set forth, (that is to say) :—

British or Colonial newspapers from or passing through the United Kingdom to Goree, Liberia, Lagos, Bonny, Old Calebar, Cameroons, or Fernando Po, two pence each. Foreign or Colonial newspapers from Goree, Liberia, Lagos, Bonny, Old Calebar, Cameroons, or Fernando Po, to the United Kingdom or to Her Majesty's Colonies, or any Foreign Country, through the United Kingdom, two pence each.

British, Colonial, or Foreign newspapers between Goree, Liberia, Lagos, Bonny, Old Calebar, Cameroons, and Fernando Po (without passing through the United Kingdom), two pence each.

And we direct that every printed supplement or additional sheet to any such newspaper, shall, for the purpose of charging the postage under this Warrant, be deemed a distinct newspaper, unless sent in the same cover, or together with the newspaper to which it is a supplement or addition.

And we direct that no such printed newspaper shall be sent by the post at the rate aforesaid, unless the following conditions shall be observed :

First.—It shall be sent without a cover, or in a band or cover open at the sides or ends.

Second.—There shall be no word or communication printed on the newspaper after its publication, or upon the cover thereof, nor any writing or marks upon it, or upon the cover of it, except the name and address of the person to whom sent.

Third.—There shall be no paper or thing enclosed in or with any such newspaper.

And in case any one of such conditions shall not be fulfilled, the whole paper or packet shall be charged with the letter-rates of postage.

And we direct that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to annul, prejudice, or affect any of the exemptions and privileges granted by the said recited Act of the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, or by an Act made and passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the management of the Post-office," or by any Treasury Warrant issued under or by virtue of the said first-mentioned Act.

And we direct that the several terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning, in all respects, as they would have had if inserted in the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

And we further direct that this Warrant shall come into operation on the tenth day of September one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two.

Provided lastly, and we do hereby declare and direct, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, for the time being, of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any two of them, by Warrant under their hands, at any time hereafter to alter or repeal any of the rates hereby fixed or altered, or the regulations hereby made; and to make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time to appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.

Whitehall, Treasury-Chambers, the 8th day of September 1852.

CHANDOS,
B. DISRAELI.

By the Lord Lieutenant and Council of Ireland.

A PROCLAMATION.

EGLINTON AND WINTON.

Whereas by an Act passed in the eleventh year of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the better Prevention of Crime and Outrage in certain parts of Ireland, until the first day of December, one thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, and to the end of the then next Session of Parliament," it was amongst other things enacted, "That whenever, in the judgment of the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by and with the advice of the Privy Council of Ireland, it shall be necessary for the prevention of crime and outrage that the said Act should apply to any county, county of a city, or county of a town, or any barony or baronies, half barony or half baronies in any county at large, or any district of less extent than any barony or half barony in Ireland, it shall be lawful to and for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland, by and with the advice of the Privy Council of Ireland, to declare by Proclamation, to be published in the Dublin Gazette, that from and after a day to be named in such Proclamation, the said Act shall apply to any county, county of a city, or county of a town, or any barony or baronies, half barony or half baronies in any county at large, or any district of less extent than any barony or half barony in Ireland :"

And whereas by a further Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the thirteenth and fourteenth years of the reign of Her said Majesty, intituled "An Act to continue, for a time to be limited, an Act of the eleventh year of Her present Majesty, for the better Prevention of Crime and Outrage in certain parts of Ireland," it was enacted "That the said recited Act of the eleventh year of Her present Majesty shall be and continue in full force and effect until the Thirty-first day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, and from thence until the end of the then next Session of Parliament."

And whereas by one other Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of the reign of Her said Majesty, intituled, "An Act to continue an Act of the eleventh year of Her present Majesty, for the better Prevention of Crime and Outrage in certain parts of Ireland," it is enacted "That the said first recited Act of the eleventh year of Her present Majesty shall be and continue in full force and effect until the Thirty-first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three."

Now We, the Lord Lieutenant, do, by this our Proclamation, in pursuance and execution of the said Acts, and by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Privy Council in Ireland, declare that from and after Friday, the Tenth day of this present month of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, the said Acts shall apply to, and be in force in and for the Barony of Tireragh, in the county of Sligo :

And of this our Proclamation, all Justices of the Peace of the said county, Constables, Peace Officers, and all others whom it may concern, are to take Notice.

Given at the Council-Chamber in Dublin, this 10th day of September 1852.

BEAUTIFUL SMALL ESTATE IN FIFE, FOR SALE.

To be Sold by Public Roup, on Thursday 28th October 1852, at Two o'clock p. m., within CAY & BLACK'S Sale-rooms, No. 45, George Street, Edinburgh, unless previously Sold by Private Bargain,

THE LANDS AND ESTATE OF BLINKBONNY, being the eastern half of the Barony of Kinnaird, situated within seven miles of Cupar, three of Newburgh, and thirteen of Perth. The Lands nearly adjoin the Turnpike Road between Cupar and Perth, and the Barony Road between Newburgh and Newport; and Glenburnie Station of the Edinburgh, Perth, and Dundee Railway, is only a mile and a half distant.

The Lands, which are of the best quality, and in excellent condition, are let to an enterprising tenant, on a lease which expires at Martinmas 1859.

The Steading was erected in 1841, and is most commodious and substantial.

There are many beautiful situations for building. On the northern boundary the view is most extensive, comprising the River Tay, the Carse of Gowrie, Strathearn, Newburgh, Perth, and Dundee; and either as a residence or an investment, few properties possess greater advantages.

For farther particulars application may be made to Messrs Dundas & Wilson, C.S., 16, St Andrew Square, Edinburgh; or Messrs Drummond and Mitchell, Writers, Cupar-Fife.

Edinburgh, 23d July 1852.

INSOLVENT DEBTOR.

To be heard at the County Court of Durham, holden at Durham on the 15th day of October 1852, at Ten o'clock in the Morning precisely,

BENJAMIN JACKSON, formerly of Claypath, in the Borough of Durham, carrying on Business in Partnership with Robert Jackson, as Drapers, Hosiers, Haberdashers, and Hatters, and late of Woodbine Cottage, near Red Briars, otherwise called Pittynnee, in the County of Durham, out of business or employment. (Sued with the said Robert Jackson.)

WILLIAM MARSHALL,
Solicitor, Claypath, Durham.

GEORGE WINK, Accountant in Glasgow, Trustee on the sequestrated estates of WILLIAM GRANT, Minister, Cattle and Grain Dealer at Kilmoran, Argyleshire, hereby intimates, that an account of his intrusions with the funds of the estate, brought down to the 27th ultimo, and states of the funds recovered and of those outstanding as at same date, have been made up and examined by the Commissioners, in terms of the Statute. Farther, the Commissioners have postponed the payment of a dividend till the next statutory period, and dispensed with sending circular letters to the Creditors.—Of which Notice is hereby given, in terms of the Statute.

Geo. Wink, Trustee.

Glasgow, September 6, 1852.

THOMAS DISHINGTON, Merchant in Leith, Trustee on the sequestrated estate of WILLIAM BELL, Miller and Grain Merchant, Canonmills, Edinburgh, hereby intimates, that an account of his intrusions with the funds of the estate, brought down to the 30th ultimo, and states of the funds recovered and of those outstanding as at the same date, have been made up and examined by the Commissioners on said estate, in terms of the Statute: That the Commissioners on the estate have postponed payment of any dividend until the recurrence of another statutory period for declaring a dividend, and farther, have dispensed with sending circulars to the Creditors containing a copy or abstract of the state of the funds of the estate.—Of all which Intimation is hereby given, in terms of the Statute.
