FRIDAY, OCTOBER 22, 1852.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 16th day of October 1852,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by Her Majesty in Council, that the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain do issue writs for further proroguing the Parliament from Thursday the twenty-first day of October instant, to Thursday the fourth day of November next.

BY THE QUEEN.
A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Thursday the twenty-first day of October instant, We, with the advice of Our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued, on the said twenty-first day of October instant, to Thursday the fourth day of November next, and We have given notice to Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a Writ Patent for proroguing the same accordingly; and We do further hereby, with the advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, that the said Parliament shall, on the said Thursday the fourth day of November next, be held and sit for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs; and the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said Thursday the fourth day of November next.

Given at Our Court, at Windsor, this sixteenth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, and in the sixteenth year of Our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

WINDSOR-CASTLE, October 16, 1852.

This day had audience of Her Majesty:—

Joseph R. Ingersoll, Esq. Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the United States of America, to deliver his credentials;

To which he was introduced by the Earl of Malmesbury, Her Majesty's Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

WHITEHALL October 16, 1852,

The following ADDRESSES were presented to Her Majesty on the occasion of Her Majesty's return from Scotland, and were received very graciously:—

To Her Majesty QUEEN VICTORIA.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of your Majesty's ancient and loyal borough of Preston, humbly desire to offer our heartfelt congratulations to your Majesty on your arrival in this town, and to express our high sense of your Majesty's gracious condescension in complying with the general desire that your Majesty should honour the inhabitants of Preston by making it a temporary resting-place during your journey.

Your Majesty has arrived during a period of unexampled commercial and general prosperity, and we, in common with the whole of this great manufacturing district, are now enjoying those manifold blessings which flow from your Majesty's wise, benign, and constitutional government, and which we feel are much enhanced by the brilliant example of public and private virtue which your Majesty and your illustrious Consort have at all times exhibited to the people of this great Empire.

We fervently pray that the Almighty Disposer of all events, Who has hitherto vouchsafed His merciful protection to your Majesty, your illustrious Consort, and your beloved Children, may still continue to shower down His choicest gifts upon you, and that your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free, united, and loyal people.

Given under our common seal this 13th day of October, in the year of our Lord 1852.

THOMAS MONK, Mayor.

To The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Lord Bishop of the diocese of Manchester, and the Vicar and Clergy of Preston, your Majesty's most loyal and devoted subjects, embrace with peculiar satisfaction the opportunity graciously afforded by your Majesty's brief visit to our town to give expression to our sincere and heartfelt sentiments of respect and attachment to your Royal Person, and of loyalty and allegiance to your Throne.
