Office of the Inspector-General of Imports and Exports, Custom-House, London, 17th November 1852.

R. D. WOODIFIELD,
Inspector-General of Imports and Exports.

EDINBURGH AND CANONGATE
ANNUITY-TAX ABOLITION.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That it is intended to apply to Parliament, in the present or ensuing Session, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills for altering, amending, or wholly or partially repealing, an Act of the Privy Council of Scotland, upon a reference from the Parliament of Scotland, dated the 18th day of March 1634; a Charter of His Majesty King Charles the First ratifying the said Act, dated the 19th day of January 1636; and an Act of the Committee of Estates of Scotland, dated the 28th day of December 1648; and the following Acts of Parliament, or some of them, viz., an Act of the Parliament of Scotland, dated the 19th day of June 1649, intituled "Act in favours of the Town of Edinburgh anent the Stipends to six Ministers out of the House Mails;" an Act of the Parliament of Scotland, dated the 6th day of June 1661, intituled "Act anent the Annuities to be uplifted within the Burgh of Edinburgh for Ministers' Stipends;" an Act passed in the 7th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for extending the Royalty of the City of Edinburgh over certain adjoining lands; and for giving powers to the Magistrates of Edinburgh for the benefit of the said City; and to enable His Majesty to grant Letters patent for establishing a Theatre in the City of Edinburgh or suburbs thereof;" an Act passed in the 25th year of the reign of His said last-mentioned Majesty, intituled "An Act for opening an easy and commodious communication from the High Street of Edinburgh to the Country southward; and also from the Lawmarket to the new extended Royalty on the north; and for enabling Trustees to purchase lands, houses, and areas, for that purpose; for widening and enlarging the Streets of the said City, and certain Avenues leading to the same; for rebuilding or improving the University; for enlarging the Public Markets and communications thereto; for regulating certain Taxes; for Lighting the said City; for providing an additional supply of Water; for extending the Royalty of the said City; and for levying an additional sum of money for Statute Labour in the Middle District of the County of Edinburgh;" an Act passed in the 26th year of the reign of His said last-mentioned Majesty, intituled "An Act for widening several Streets in the City of Edinburgh; for opening a communication from Queen's Street to Broughton Loan; for enlarging the Burial Ground; and for extending the Royalty of the said City over part of the lands of Broughton;" an Act passed in the 49th year of the reign of His said last-mentioned Majesty, intituled "An Act for extending the Royalty of the City of Edinburgh, for disannexing part of the Parish of Saint Cuthbert's from the said Parish, and uniting it to the Parish of Saint Andrew; for further regulating the Assessment for the Poor in the said Parishes; for erecting two new Churches; for discontinuing certain Churches and annexing the Parishes thereof to other Parishes; for further regulating the Revenues of the said City applicable to the payment of Ministers' Stipends; and for Draining the Meadow on the south side of the said City;" an Act passed in the 54th year of the reign of His said last-mentioned Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament for erecting and maintaining a new Gaol and other Buildings for the County and

"City of Edinburgh; for opening communications to the new Gaol; building a Bridge over the Low Calton; and for other purposes relating thereto;" an Act of the Parliament of Scotland, dated the 22d day of March 1661, intituled "Ratification in favours of the Burgh of Edinburgh of the custome of ane marke of each tunne and packe of Goodes;" an Act of the 1st and 2d year of the reign of Her present Majesty, Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to regulate and secure the Debt due by the City of Edinburgh to the Public; to confirm an agreement between the said City and its Creditors; and to effect a Settlement of the affairs of the said City and the Town of Leith;" an Act passed in the 3d year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for abolishing certain Petty and Market Customs in the City of Edinburgh, and granting other Duties in lieu thereof;" an Act passed in the 7th year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend an Act passed in the 3d year of the reign of Her present Majesty for abolishing certain Petty and Market Customs in the City of Edinburgh, and granting other Duties in lieu thereof;" an Act of the 10th year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abolish, reduce, equalise, and consolidate the Rates and Duties leviabie at the Harbour and Docks of Leith;" and an Act passed in the 10th and 11th year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to enlarge and improve the Meal, Corn, and Grain Markets of the City of Edinburgh, and for other purposes in relation thereto;" an Act of the Parliament of Scotland, dated the 5th of October 1663, intituled "Act concerning the Stipend of the Ministers of the Canongate;" and an Act of the 9th and 10th year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to authorize the construction of several Branch Railways and other Works in connection with the North British Railway;" and all other Acts or authorities which may, in any way, interfere with, or which may be affected by, the objects of the said Bill or Bills. By which Bill or Bills, it is proposed to abolish, in whole or in part, the Annuity Taxes levied within the Ancient and Extended Royalties of Edinburgh and the Burgh or Parish of Canongate, for the maintenance of the Ministers of the same; to fix the amount of the Stipends of the said Ministers and their successors; and to make provision for the payment of the said Stipends: And by the said Bill or Bills it is intended to make provision for the erection, by the Magistrates and Council of Edinburgh, of a Church in place of the Trinity College Church, which was removed for the purposes of the North British Railway Company, and for the application to that object of a sum of £10,000, or some other sum, part of the money received from the said Railway Company, as compensation for such removal; and provision will also be made for the due investment of the balance of the said money, and for the application of the said balance, or the interest thereof, towards payment of the said Stipends: And by the said Bill or Bills, it is intended to provide that the Annuity of £2000 derived from the Revenues of the Harbour and Docks of Leith, and applied, under authority of the before-mentioned Act of the 1st and 2d year of the reign of Her present Majesty, towards payment of the Stipends of the Ministers of Edinburgh, shall be applied, under authority of the said proposed Bill or Bills, towards payment of the Stipends of the Ministers of the Ancient and Extended Royalties of Edinburgh, and of the Parish of Canongate : And by the said Bill or Bills, it is intended to seek powers to appropriate and apply the revenues of the Deaneries of Her Majesty's Chapel Royal for Scotland towards payment of the Stipends of the said Ministers of Edinburgh and Canongate, under reservation of the rights of the present Deans of the said Chapel Royal, and to take away and extinguish all right or claim, competent to any other party or parties, to the said Revenues : And it is also intended by the said Bill or Bills to take powers to vest in Her Majesty and Her Royal successors the right of patronage of six, or some other number, of the Ministerial charges of the Churches of Edinburgh : And by the said Bill or Bills, it is intended to charge the Common good and patrimony of the City of Edinburgh with the payment of a sum of £6000 yearly, or some other sum, towards providing for the payment of the Stipends of the said Ministers of Edinburgh and Canongate : And it is also intended to take power to deal with the Fund mortified towards the endowment of a Church in Edinburgh, by the Lady Margaret Yester, in or about the year 1647, and to make such application of the said Fund as shall be expedient in carrying out the Scheme embraced in the said intended Act. And by which Bill or Bills power is intended to be taken to repeal, or alter, existing Tolls, Rates, and Duties, leviable under the said recited Acts, or some of them ; and to confer, vary, and extinguish all exemptions from payment of Tolls, Rates, and Duties, and other rights and privileges ; and for the purposes of the said intended Act, and in aid and relief of such Common good and patrimony, to levy from all Occupiers, including Members of the College of Justice, of dwelling-houses, warehouses, vaults, shops, cellars, stables, breweries, manufactories, workshops, mills, station-houses, and other buildings and property, and all yards and places where goods and property are deposited, or business carried on, situated within the Ancient and Extended Royalities of Edinburgh, and within that part of the Burgh or Parish of Canongate, in which the Annuity-Tax is at present leviable, an annual Assessment or Tax not exceeding £3 per centum on four-fifths of the actual yearly rent or value of such subjects, according to a valuation to be made by a Surveyor to be appointed for that purpose by the Magistrates and Council, or according to the valuation made up under authority of the Act of the 11th and 12th year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled " An Act for more effectually Watching, Cleansing, and Lighting the Streets of the City of Edinburgh and adjoining Districts, for regulating the Police thereof, and for other purposes relating thereto," and with the exceptions in the said Act mentioned ; and which valuation the Commissioners of Police of Edinburgh, and their Surveyors and Assessors, acting under the said last-mentioned Act, will be bound, if required, to furnish to the Magistrates and Council of Edinburgh ; and it is intended to alter and amend the said last-mentioned Act accordingly. And it is also intended by the said Bill or Bills, to empower the owners of dwelling-houses and others aforesaid, the occupiers of which may be liable in payment of the said annual Assessment or Tax, to redeem the same in such form, and upon such terms, as shall be fixed by Parliament. And it is intended by the said Bill or Bills, to abolish the offices of Stentmasters for the City of Edinburgh, and for Canongate and Pleasance, to substitute the Surveyor to be appointed as aforesaid, or the Surveyor of Police, for the said Stentmasters, to make alterations in the existing provisions as to the imposition and collection of the annual Assessment of one per centum, leviable in aid of the Common good and patrimony of the City of Edinburgh, under the Act of 25th George the Third, and other Acts before mentioned ; and also as to the imposition and collection of the Land-Tax leviable within the said Ancient and Extended Royalities of Edinburgh, and within the Burgh of Canongate, Pleasance, North Leith, Coal-hill, and Citadel, and to confer on the Surveyor to be appointed under the said intended Act, or on the Surveyor of Police, the powers conferred on the Stentmasters by the Acts of 25th George the Third, and of the 1st and 2d of Her present Majesty before mentioned. And it is also intended, in regard to the said Ministers of Canongate, to provide that, in addition to their respective Stipends to be derived from the sources before referred to, they shall be entitled to draw the proceeds of the Seat-Rents of the Church of Canongate, after deduction of the charges thereon, or, in the event of an additional Church being provided in said Parish, that each of the said Ministers shall be entitled to draw the free proceeds of the Seat-Rents of his Church ; and further, if necessary, to assign to the Minister of the first charge and his successors, the use and occupation of the Manse of the said Parish, and to the Minister of the second charge and his successors, the Victual-Stipend of the said Parish, or to make such other provisions in regard to the said Seat-Rents, Manse, and Victual-Stipend, as shall be sanctioned by Parliament, and also to take powers to uncollegiate the Parish Church of Canongate, and to provide a separate Church for the second Minister.

AND NOTICE IS ALSO HEREBY GIVEN, That in order to provide a sum equivalent to the Revenues of the said Deaneries, until, by the falling in of the rights of the present Deans, the said Revenues can be applied towards payment of the Stipends of the said Ministers of Edinburgh and Canongate ; and in order also to provide for any excess of the Stipends to be fixed for the present Ministers of Edinburgh, beyond the Stipends to be permanently fixed for their successors in office, it is intended by the said Bill or Bills to take power to levy from all Occupiers, including Members of the College of Justice, of dwelling-houses and others situated as aforesaid, a further annual Assessment or Tax not exceeding £1 per centum, during such limited term of years as may be fixed by Parliament, and to be leviable from the same persons, in respect of the same property, and along with, and in the same manner as, the said annual Assessment or Tax not exceeding £3 per centum.

AND NOTICE IS ALSO HEREBY GIVEN, That in addition to those Acts before mentioned, whereby any privilege or exemption from taxation is conferred on the Members of the College of Justice, it is intended to repeal, for the purposes of the said intended Act, the provisions of the following Acts of the Parliament of Scotland by which any such privileges and exemptions are conferred on the said body, viz. : an Act dated the 17th day of May 1532, whereby the said College of Justice was instituted ; an Act ratifying the institution of the said College, dated the 17th day of May 1537 ; Act, dated the 14th day of March 1540, intituled " Ratificatioun of the Institutioun of the College of Justice ;" Act ratifying the same, dated the 15th day of December 1543 ; Act, dated the 29th day of July 1587, intituled " Act in favour of the Sessioun for ratificatioun of thair privileges ;" with an Act of the same date, intituled " An Act in favor of sic of the Lordis of "Session as sall becum ageit and vnale;" Act, dated the 21st day of July 1593, intituled "Ratificatione of the priuiledges of the Colledge of Justice;" Act, dated the 8th day of June 1594, "Anent the priuiledges of the Colledge of Justice;" Act, dated the 28th day of June 1633, intituled "Ratification of the liberties of the Colledge of Justice;" Act, dated the 1st day of January 1661, intituled "Act ratifying the priuiledges of the Colledge of Justice;" Act, dated the 22d day of August 1670, intituled "Act ratifying the priuiledges of the Ordinary Lords of Session;" Act, dated the 23d day of April 1685, intituled "Act ratifying the priuiledges of the Senators of the Colledge of Justice;" with the Act passed in the year 1707, "ratifying and approving the Treaty of Union of the two Kingdoms of Scotland and England" (Article 19); and all other Acts of Parliament and of Sederunt of the Court of Session, and all Decrees of the said Court and other Acts and authorities conferring or ratifying such priuiledges and exemptions, which might in any way interfere with the provisions of the said intended Act. And it is meant to apply by the said Bill or Bills for such further powers as may be necessary or seem calculated, and may be sanctioned by Parliament, for carrying into effect the purposes aforesaid.

EDINBURGH HIGH STREET AND RAILWAY STATION ACCESS—AND SANITARY IMPROVEMENT COMPANY.

For Making a Road or Street from the South End of Waverley Bridge Road adjoining the General Railway Station at Princes' Street, to the High Street, in the City of Edinburgh.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That Application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session, for an Act for Incorporating a Company, to be called "The Edinburgh High Street and Railway Station Access—and Sanitary Improvement Company;" and to authorise such Company to make and maintain the following Public Road, Street, or Carriage-way, (that is to say) a Road commencing at or near the south end of the Waverley Bridge Road, which leads from Princes' Street, and passes along the west side of the Stations or Termini of the Edinburgh and Glasgow, the North British, and the Edinburgh, Perth, and Dundee Railways, and from thence leading in a south and south-easterly direction to, and terminating by a Junction with, the High Street, opposite or nearly opposite to Hunter Square in the said City, with buildings along the same, and all necessary approaches and conveniences connected therewith; which Road and other works will pass from, through, or into the parish of Saint Giles or High Church in the said City. And, by the said Act, the following powers or some of them will be conferred on the said Company—namely,

I. To purchase, take, and use, compulsorily or by agreement, the several pieces or parcels of Land, with the Houses, Buildings, Tenements, and other erections thereon, situated on the line of the said intended Road or near thereto, or that may be necessary for the proper construction of the same; also, to take down and remove the Houses, Tenements, and Buildings now erected on or near the site of the said intended Road or Street, and to erect other Houses and Buildings thereon.

II. To alter, so far as necessary, the levels of any existing Roads, Ways, Closes, Paths or Passages, and to cross, divert, widen, alter, build over, or shut up, temporarily or permanently, all Ways, Closes, Paths, Passages, Sewers, Drains, Streams, or Pipes which now lead or run into, upon, through, across, or over any part or parts of the said Lands, Buildings, and Tenements to be acquired by the said Company as aforesaid, and to set out and make other Roads, Streets, Ways, Paths, Passages, Sewers, Drains, Streams, or Pipes, in, upon, or over such Lands, Tenements, or Buildings; and to empower the said Company to take and hold, feu, sell, exchange, let, or otherwise dispose of, any Lands, Tenements, or Buildings to be acquired or erected by them, by virtue of and for the purposes of the said intended Act; and to vary or extinguish all rights and privileges in any manner connected with the Lands, Houses, Tenements, or Buildings to be acquired as aforesaid, and to confer or vary other rights and privileges.

III. To raise Capital in respect of the said undertaking, and borrow money therefor; and,

IV. To alter and amend, if and so far as may be necessary for the above purposes, the Acts in force relating to the Roads and the Paving and Cleansing of the said City of Edinburgh, and particularly an Act of the 5th and 6th William IV., cap. 68, an Act of the 9th and 10th Victoria, cap. 365, and an Act of the 11th and 12th Victoria, cap. 113.

AND NOTICE IS HEREBY FARTHER GIVEN, that Duplicate Plans and Sections describing the Line and situation of the said intended Road or Street, and the Lands and Houses in or through which the same is intended to be made, with Books of Reference thereto, containing the names of the Owners or reputed Owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and Occupiers of such Lands and Houses, and a copy of this Notice, as published in the Edinburgh Gazette, will, on or before the 30th day of November instant, be deposited with the Principal Sheriff-Clerk for the County of Edinburgh at his office in the County Buildings, Lawnmarket, Edinburgh; and on or before the said 30th day of November, copies of the said Plans, Sections, and Books of Reference, and a copy of this Notice, will be deposited with the Town-Clerk of the City of Edinburgh at his office in the said City, and on or before the 31st day of December next, copies of the said intended Act will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this 12th day of November 1852.
