

SEQUESTRATION of JAMES MATHIE, Bookseller and Stationer in Kilmarnock.

JOHN TORRANCE, Writer in Kilmarnock, has been elected Trustee on the estate; and James Morton, Writer in Ayr, Alexander John Bruce, Banker in Kilmarnock, and Robert Chalmers Robertson, Painter there, have been elected Commissioners. The examination of the Bankrupt will take place within the Sheriff-Court-House at Kilmarnock, on Wednesday the 8th day of December next, at 11 o'clock forenoon. The Creditors will meet in the George Hotel, Kilmarnock, on Thursday the 23d day of December next, at one o'clock afternoon; and the Trustee on the said sequestrated estate hereby intimates, that at the meeting for the election of said Trustee and Commissioners, held on the 18th day of November current, the Bankrupt made an offer of a composition of Four Shillings per pound on all debts due by him at the date of his sequestration, payable by equal instalments at two and four months after the Bankrupt's final discharge, and also offered to pay and provide for the whole expences attending the sequestration and the remuneration to the Trustee; the Bankrupt farther offered Robert Chalmers Robertson, Painter in Kilmarnock, as his security. That the meeting having unanimously resolved that the offer and security should be entertained for consideration, Notice is hereby given, that said offer and security will be decided on at the meeting to be held after the Bankrupt's examination, on the said 23d day of December next, at one o'clock afternoon, within the George Hotel as aforesaid. Kilmarnock, November 20, 1852.

JOHN FLEMING, Accountant in Glasgow, Trustee on the sequestrated estates of JAMES STEWART and STEWART & M'GREGOR, Calico Printers at Avon Printfield, near Linlithgow, at Mile-end of Glasgow, and No. 22, Ingram Street, Glasgow, and James Stewart and Robert M'Gregor, as Partners of the said Concern, and as Individuals, hereby intimates, that at a general meeting of the Creditors, held on the 9th current, called with consent of the Commissioners, in terms of the Statute, the Bankrupt, James Stewart, made offer to the Creditors of the Company of James Stewart and Stewart & M'Gregor, of a composition of Five Shillings in the Pound,—the Creditors, on the other hand, discharging the Company and himself as an Individual Partner thereof, of their respective debts, and granting him, or any person named by him, an assignation and conveyance of the Company assets; and an offer of Sixpence per pound to all his individual Creditors at the date of the sequestration,—receiving in like manner a discharge of said debts and a re-investment in his individual estate. Both of which compositions will be payable in three equal instalments, at four, eight, and twelve months from the date of his final discharge. The said James Stewart further offered to provide for the Trustee's commission and the expences of sequestration, and proposed as security for the said offer of composition and expences, Mr John Tegg, Print Cutter, Paisley, as cautioner for both compositions to their whole extent; Messrs Patrick Henderson & Company, Merchants, Bothwell Street, Glasgow, as cautioners to the extent of Twelve Hundred and Thirty Pounds, to the Creditors, according to their rights and interests in the two compositions,—and Mr Thomas Bayne, Merchant, George Square, Glasgow, as cautioner to the extent of Eight Hundred Pounds, to the Creditors, according to their said rights and interests on the two compositions, &c. That the Creditors and Mandatories for Creditors to the extent in number and value required by the Statute, having resolved that the said offer and security should be entertained for consideration, Notice is hereby given, that another general meeting of the Creditors will be held within the Office of the Trustee, No. 21, St Vincent Place, Glasgow, upon Thursday the 9th day of December next, at one o'clock afternoon, for the purpose of finally deciding on the Bankrupt, Mr Stewart's offer.—Of all which Intimation is hereby given, in terms of the Statute. Glasgow, November 22, 1852. JOHN FLEMING, Trustee.

JAMES NISBET, Solicitor before the Supreme Courts of Scotland, Trustee on the sequestrated estate of JOHN HENDERSON, Farmer and Cattle-dealer, formerly at Chesterhill, now at Soutramains, by Blackshiells, hereby intimates, that at the third general meeting of Creditors, held on the 16th November current, the Bankrupt made an offer of a composition of One Shilling per pound to his Creditors on the debts owing by him at the date of his sequestration, payable by two equal instalments, at the terms of Lammas and Mar- tinmas 1853, and also to pay or provide for his preferable debts, and the expences of sequestration and remuneration to the Interim Factor and Trustee. The said John Henderson farther offered John Camron, Esquire, Corrychoillie, as cautioner for payment of said composition. That the Creditors present at said meeting having unanimously resolved that the offer and security should be entertained for consideration, Notice is hereby given, that another general meeting of the Creditors will be held within the Star Hotel, Haddington, on Saturday the 11th day of December next, at 12 o'clock noon, for the purpose of finally deciding on the Bankrupt's offer and the security proposed.
