INDIA-BOARD, December 2, 1852.

A DESPATCH, from which the following is an Extract, has this day been received at the East India House :—

From the Governor-General of India in Council to the Secret Committee of the East India Company, dated Fort-William, October 25, 1852.

From the General Order, and the Despatches published on the 23d instant, you will learn with satisfaction of the capture of Promé, on the 9th and 10th idem, with but a trifling loss on our side.

GENERAL ORDERS BY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.

Fort-William, Foreign Department, October 23d, 1852.

THE Most Noble the Governor-General in Council has much gratification in publishing for general information, Despatches received from Commodore Lambert and from Major-General Godwin, which report the capture and occupation of the city of Promé, after some resistance, and with comparatively trifling loss.

The steam squadron and the boats of Her Majesty's ships conveying the troops upon the Irrawaddy, anchored off Promé on the 9th of October. A fire from the shore was silenced by the fire of the steamers and of the boats. The troops having been landed, drove the enemy, some three or four thousand strong, from the suburbs; and on subsequently advancing to the great pagoda and to the heights beyond, they found the position wholly abandoned by the Burman force.

The Governor-General in Council desires to express, in the strongest terms, his obligations to Commodore Lambert, for the care, the energy, and unwearied zeal which he has shown in directing the naval preparations for advance, and which have conducted so largely to the early and successful renewal of operations in the field.

His Lordship in Council begs to offer his thanks to Captain Loch, and to Commander Shadwell, for their conduct of the service on the river; and to Commander Rice, for his direction of the body of seamen upon shore.

His thanks are also due to Commander Campbell, of the Indian navy, whose merit has been acknowledged by the Commodore.

The Governor-General in Council has viewed with high approbation the services of the officers and men, who, upon this occasion and for several months past, have been employed in boats upon the river, subjected to severe exposure, and engaged in harassing duties, which they have performed with the utmost alacrity and cheerfulness, and with conspicuous advantage to the public service.

To the officers, seamen, and marines of Her Majesty's ships, of the Indian navy, and of the Bengal marine, who have been serving upon the Irrawaddy, and to Commander Tarleton, who long commanded them, the Governor-General in Council is desirous of offering his hearty thanks.

The Governor-General in Council has in like manner to assure Major-General Godwin of the satisfaction with which he has viewed the skill and judgment by which the Major-General enabled the troops to obtain possession of an important post without delay, and with but little loss.

To Major Mayhew, Deputy Adjutant-General; to Major Allan, Deputy Quarter-Master-General; to Captain Smith, Interpreter; to Captain Burne, Military Secretary; and Captain Chads, A. D. C. the Governor-General in Council tenders his thanks.

Especially to Captain Christie and to Captain Welsh, of Her Majesty's 80th Regiment, for the gallant manner in which they led their men to the attack, and to all the officers, non-commissioned officers, and soldiers of the force, the Governor-General in Council desires to give assurance of his cordial approbation.

While thus congratulating the naval and military forces on the first result of their advance, the Governor-General in Council feels it to be due to the memory of an old and gallant sailor, that he should add a public expression of the deep regret with which he has received intimation of the death of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief of Her Majesty's Ships in the Indian Seas.

Although Admiral Austen did not survive to witness the successful conclusion of the operations in which he had shared, the Governor-General in Council desires to record his admiration of the staunch high spirit which, notwithstanding his age and previous suffering, had led the Rear-Admiral to take his part in the trying service which has closed his career.

His Excellency Rear-Admiral Austen has afforded to the Government of India at all times a cordial and constant aid.

The Governor-General in Council has been grateful for his services, and laments his death.

C. ALLEN,
Secretary to the Government of India.

Commodore Lambert, R.N., to Charles Allen, Esq.

H.M.S. Fox's Boat, on board the Fire Queen, at Prome, October 11th, 1852.

SIR,

I REQUEST you may be pleased to inform the Governor-General in Council, that having embarked on board the East India Company's steam vessels under my orders H. M. 18th and 80th Regiments, the 35th Regiment Madras Native Infantry, a detachment of Sappers and Miners, and of the Bengal Artillery with their field guns, I despatched them as they were ready to rendezvous off Yangernsia, a town situated at the upper end of the Panglang Creek, which joins the Irrawaddy to the Rangoon River.

2. The Commissariat, Ordnance, and Engineers' Stores, and about 1,000 followers attached to the Regiments, were conveyed in the steamers, large Burmese cargo boats, five small schooners, and a barque.

The cargo boats, manned by Burmese crews, advanced in three divisions under convoy of the barges and pinnaces of Her Majesty's Ships Fox, Winchester, and Hastings; the barque and schooners were towed by the steamers.

3. These arrangements being completed, I left Rangoon on the 24th ultimo, and Major-General Godwin joined me on the following day at Yangernsia.

4. Having hoisted my broad pendant on board the Fire Queen, the steamer in which the Major-General embarked, I weighed from Yangernsia on September 27th with the steam squadron specified in enclosure No. 1, and proceeded up the Irrawaddy to Prome, calling at Henzadah on my way.

5. On the morning of the 9th of October Prome was in sight, and on the squadron nearing the city, the enemy opened fire with a couple of guns and musketry, which was returned by the steamers as we proceeded into the bay, where I anchored in a convenient position, abreast of the town, for landing the troops.

6. The enemy continuing to keep up a fire after we had anchored, I sent the boats of the squadron, under the command of Captain Loch, C.B., of Her Majesty's ship Winchester, to throw in a few shells and canister shot amongst them, which had the effect of silencing it for a time, although they kept up a very spirited fire on the boats, which wounded two seamen.

7. They then brought a gun down abreast of the Fire Queen, but had only time to give us one shot before it was dismounted by the fire from the steamers, which effectually cleared a landing-place.

8. Major-General Godwin now expressed his wish to land the 80th Regiment and a party of artillery with two guns, at half-past 4, which was effected without any opposition, and the lower town cleared of the enemy.

9. At daylight next morning the remainder of the troops were landed, and a brigade of 50 seamen being formed under Commander Rice, at the Major-General's request, to assist in working the guns, the boats and other parts of the city were taken possession of, the Burmese flying as the forces advanced.

10. Thus the important city of Prome was occupied by British troops with the trifling loss of one killed and three wounded on the part of the army, while in the squadron only four were wounded, who are named in enclosure No. 2.

11. My thanks are due to Captain Loch, C.B., for the assistance he rendered me throughout these operations, also to Commanders Shadwell and Rice, of Her Majesty's ships Sphinx and Hastings, the former for his unremitting attention to the instructions I had sent him previously to my entering the Irrawaddy, and to the latter officer for the part he took when on shore with the brigade of seamen. Nor can I speak too highly of Commander Campbell, the officers and men of the Indian navy and Bengal marine.

The skill and perseverance displayed by the officers and men belonging to the boats appointed to convoy the cargo-boats from Rangoon to Prome; a distance of more than 200 miles, against a rapid stream, exposed occasionally to a fire from the enemy, is deserving of my highest praise.

I have, &c.,

GEORGE R. LAMBERT,
Commodore 1st Class, Commander-in-Chief.

Major-General Godwin, to C. Allen, Esq.

SIR,
Prome, October 12, 1852.

THE Governor-General in Council was aware of my intention, at the proper season, when the monsoon here had in some measure subsided, to break up the Army at Rangoon, and remove its head-quarters to Prome.

I have now the honour to inform you that the first division of this force is in possession of that city.

After some weeks of preparation, the embarkation commenced on the 16th of September, and the 1st division, amounting to 2,300 men, and consisting of one company of the Madras Foot Artillery, with two 24-pounder howitzers and four 9-pounder guns, H.M. 18th Royal Irish, H.M. 80th Regiment, the 35th Regiment Madras N.I., and 119 Sappers, were all on board by the 25th idem.

The flotilla arrived off Prome on the morning of the 9th of October ; each ship was cannonaded from a projecting point on the hills, as it rounded to the city, with very little effect. This fire was returned with much spirit by the steamers.

The weather here is so intensely hot that I disembarked the Artillery under Brigadier Foord ; H.M. 80th Regiment, under Lieutenant-Colonel Hutchinson, with the Sappers under Lieutenant Allen, on the evening of the same day ; and by sunrise the next morning the 18th Royal Irish under Lieutenant-Colonel Coote, and the 35th Madras N. I. under Lieutenant-Colonel Apthorp.

The enemy, consisting of three or four thousand men, occupied a very fine position on a range of hills about a thousand yards east from the point where they first opened fire, commanding the town and the large pagoda, which they also occupied.

The troops were landed in the evening, in a suburb to the north of, and beyond the town. I then ordered them to advance towards the position I had selected for the night, when, upon the head of the column approaching a dry nullah dividing the suburb from the town, a very smart fire of musketry and jingalls was simultaneously opened from some jungle and houses on our left, and a small pagoda in our front.

The grenadiers of H.M. 80th Regiment, under Captain Christie, immediately advanced at the double towards the pagoda, and a party, consisting of two companies of the same regiment, under Captain Welsh, and accompanied by Brigadier Reynolds, were detached to the left, and in a very short time most gallantly drove the enemy out of their position, with the loss of only one man killed and a few wounded, Captain Welsh's party bringing in a jingall.

The grenadiers of the 80th Regiment kept possession of the pagoda, which I made the right of my position, and the troops had excellent cover during the night, which was passed in perfect quietude.

The following morning, when the remainder of the troops were landed, I advanced through the town in a direction I had determined upon the day before, from plans of the place in my possession, covered by the flank companies of the 18th Royal Irish and H.M. 80th Regiment, and two 24-pounder howitzers, which were drawn by a party of sailors, under Commander Rice, of H.M.S. Hastings. Upon our advanced guard reaching the pagoda, it found that the enemy had abandoned that position, as well as the heights beyond it, leaving in our possession an entirely evacuated town, over-run with thick and rank vegetation, and, I regret to add, abounding in swamps.

It is evident that the enemy expected our force to land, and advance up the direct road to the pagoda, along which they had erected two or three small breast-works, as well as removed the planking of several wooden bridges leading to the pagoda and the heights beyond it ; but landing at the point we did, not only gave us an excellent road, but at the same time completely turned their position, rendering it impossible for them to hold it.

I have been for a long time aware of the assemblage of a large force about ten miles east of Prome, and at which place they also had a very formidable force in the last war, which took Sir Archibald Campbell several days to disperse. I have ascertained, from very good authority, that they have now about 18,000 men well posted in two or more stockades.

It is not my intention to disturb them at present in any way, as by their concentration at that place the fine force now assembling here will have an opportunity of striking a blow which may put an end to much future opposition. It was on this Burmese Army that the enemy retreated from Prome upon our entering. The bravery and alacrity of the troops on this occasion was as conspicuous as it ever is.

His Lordship's thanks are deserved by Captain Christie, of H.M. 80th Regiment, for the gallant manner in which he led his company to the attack and capture of the small pagoda in our front, and to Captain Welsh, who, with two companies of his regiment, drove the enemy out of their position on our left.

The general staff—Major Mayhew, Deputy Adjutant-General ; Major Allen, Deputy Quartermaster-General ; Captain Smith, Interpreter to the Force ; as also my personal staff—Captain Burne, Military Secretary, and Lieutenant Chads, Aide-de-Camp, were active in rendering me every assistance.

Brigadier-General Sir John Cheape, commanding the Bengal Division, came up to Prome with the portion of his division embarked, and was present throughout the whole of these operations ; and I have great satisfaction in being enabled to leave him in command upon my return to Rangoon, where I am required, and for which place I shall leave this to-morrow.

I leave Major Fraser, of the Engineers, and Major Allen, Deputy Quartermaster-General, at Prome, to carry out the necessary arrangements for the reception of the regiments which will hereafter arrive.

To Commodore Lambert your Lordship is deeply indebted for the unremitting exertions, calling forth all possible resources and anxious solicitude, which have accomplished the conveyance of the force to its destination up this noble, but most difficult to be navigated, river. To Commander Rice, for the exertions of himself and men under his command, I feel greatly indebted.

I have the honour to enclose a Return of the Casualties which have occurred during our operations before Prome, and to remain, &c.

WHITEHALL, December 2, 1852.

The Queen has been pleased to direct letters-patent to be passed under the Great Seal, granting the dignity of a Knight of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, unto Charles Robert Mitchell Jackson, Esquire, Puisne Judge of the Supreme Court of Judicature at Bombay.

At the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of November 1852,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas there was this day read at the Board a Report from the General Board of Health, dated the twenty-third day of November one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two, in the words following; that is to say:—

“We, the General Board of Health, appointed for the purposes of the Public Health Act, 1848, have, in pursuance of the provisions of that Act, upon the petition of not less than one-tenth of the inhabitants rated to the relief of the poor of and within the parish of Halstead, in the county of Essex (the number of the said petitioners greatly exceeding thirty in the whole), directed Thomas Webster Rammell, a Superintending Inspector appointed for the purposes of the said Public Health Act, to visit the said parish, and to make inquiry, and to examine witnesses as to the sewerage, drainage, and supply of water, the state of the burial-grounds, the number and sanitary condition of the inhabitants, and as to any local Acts of Parliament in force within such parish, for paving, lighting, cleansing, watching, regulating, supplying with water, or improving the said parish, or having relation to the purposes of the said Public Health Act; also as to the natural drainage areas, and the existing municipal, parochial, or other local boundaries, and the boundaries which might be most advantageously adopted for the purposes of that Act;

“And the said Superintending Inspector, having previously given the notices directed by the said Public Health Act, proceeded upon the said inquiry in the manner directed by that Act, and hath reported in writing to the said Board upon the said several matters with respect to which he was directed to inquire, and upon certain other matters with respect to which he deemed it expedient to report for the purposes of that Act;

“And copies of the said Report, accompanied by a notice stating that written statements might be forwarded to the said Board with respect to any matter contained in or omitted from the said Report, or any amendment proposed to be made therein, have been duly published and deposited as directed by the said Public Health Act, and the time for forwarding such statements has now elapsed;

“And it appears by the said Report that there is no local Act of Parliament in force within the said parish for paving, lighting (otherwise than for the profit of proprietors or shareholders), cleansing, watching, regulating, supplying with water, or improving such parish, or any part thereof, or in anywise relating to the purposes of the said Public Health Act;

“Now therefore, we, the said General Board of Health, do hereby, in pursuance of the said Public Health Act, humbly report to your Majesty that it appears to us to be expedient—

“1. That the Public Health Act, 1848, and every part thereof, except the section numbered 50 in the copies of that Act printed by your Majesty's printers, should be applied to and be in force within and throughout the entire area, places, and parts of places comprised within the boundaries of the said parish of Halstead, in the county of Essex, and that such area, places, and parts of places, should be and constitute a district for the purposes of the said Public Health Act accordingly.

“2. That the Local Board of Health to be elected under the Public Health Act, should consist of nine persons, and that the entire number should be elected for the whole of the said district.

“3. That the first election of the said Local Board of Health should take place on the thirteenth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

“4. That one-third in number of the said Local Board of Health should go out of office on the thirty-first day of March in each year subsequently to that in which the said first election of that Local Board takes place; but in case the day so appointed should fall on a Sunday, or on a day appointed for public fast or thanksgiving, then such one-third should go out of office on the day next following.

“5. That every person at the time of his election as member of the said Local Board, and so long as he shall continue in office by virtue of such election, be resident, as in the said Public Health Act, 1848, is required, and be seized or possessed of real or personal estate, or both, to the value or amount of not less than five hundred pounds, or should be so resident, and rated to the relief of the poor of some parish, township, or place, of which some part is within the said district, upon an annual value of not less than twenty pounds.

“6. That at the first election of the said Local Board, the Reverend Charles Burney, Vicar of Halstead aforesaid, should have the powers and perform the duties vested in or imposed upon the Chairman of the Local Board of Health by the Public Health Act, 1848, in relation to the election by owners of property and rate-payers, and should perform all other duties which it may be requisite for him to perform in conducting and completing the said first election; and in case the said Charles Burney, from illness or other sufficient cause, should be unable to exercise or discharge such powers or duties, or should be absent, or should refuse to act, then that George de Horne Vaizey, Esquire, J.P., of Halstead aforesaid, should exercise and perform such of the said powers and duties as then remain to be exercised or performed.

"7. That the fourteen days' notice of qualification required by the Public Health Act, 1848, to be given by owners of property, in order to entitle them to vote at the said first election, should be given to the said Charles Burney, at his residence, the Vicarage, situate within the aforesaid district of Halstead; or in case he should refuse, or be unable to receive the same, then to the said George de Horne Vaizey, at his residence, Constantyns, likewise within the district aforesaid.

"Given under our hands, and under the seal of the General Board of Health, this twenty-third day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-two.

(L. S.) (Signed) EDWIN CHADWICK.
T. SOUTHWOOD SMITH."

Now therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said Report into consideration, is pleased to approve thereof, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth hereby, under and in pursuance of the Public Health Act, 1848, order and direct:—

1. That from and after the date of this Order, the Public Health Act, 1848, and every part thereof, except the section numbered 50 in the copies of that Act, printed by Her Majesty's printers, shall be applied to and be in force within and throughout the entire area, places, and parts of places comprised within the boundaries of the said parish of Halstead, in the county of Essex, and that such area, places, and parts of places, shall be and constitute a district for the purposes of the said Public Health Act accordingly.

2. That the Local Board of Health to be elected under the said Public Health Act, shall consist of nine persons, and that the entire number shall be elected for the whole of the said district.

3. That the first election of the said Local Board of Health shall take place on the thirteenth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

4. 5. That every person at the time of his election as member of the said Local Board, and so long as he shall continue in office by virtue of such election, be resident, as in the said Public Health Act, 1848, is required, and be seized or possessed of real or personal estate, or both, to the value or amount of not less than five hundred pounds, or shall be so resident and rated to the relief of the poor of some parish, township, or place, of which some part is within the said district, upon an annual value of not less than twenty pounds.

6. That at the first election of the said Local Board, the Reverend Charles Burney, Vicar of Halstead aforesaid, shall have the powers and perform the duties vested in or imposed upon the Chairman of the Local Board of Health by the Public Health Act, 1848, in relation to the election by owners of property and rate-payers, and shall perform all other duties which it may be requisite for him to perform in conducting and completing the said first election; and in case the said Charles Burney, from illness or other sufficient cause, shall be unable to exercise or discharge such powers or duties, or shall be absent, or shall refuse to act, then that George de Horne Vaizey, Esquire, J.P., of Halstead, aforesaid, shall exercise and perform such of the said powers and duties as then remain to be exercised or performed.

7. That the fourteen days' notice of qualification required by the Public Health Act, 1848, to be given by owners of property, in order to entitle them to vote at the said first election, shall be given to the said Charles Burney, at his residence, the Vicarage, situate within the aforesaid district of Halstead, or in case he should refuse, or be unable to receive the same, then to the said George de Horne Vaizey, at his residence, Constantyns, likewise within the district aforesaid.
