NOTICE.

JOHN HERRON, Carrier and Dealer in Poultry and Game, Auchterarder, having presented a Petition to the Lord Ordinary officiating on the Bills, praying for sequestration of the estates of the Deceased Mrs JANET BLACK or CARMICHAEL or YOUNG, Poulterer in Edinburgh, and lately residing in No. 4, Milne Square there, his Lordship was pleased to pronounce the following Deliverance thereon, viz:—'Edinburgh, 17th December 1852.—The Lord Ordinary having considered this Petition, with the Writs produced, grants warrant to Macers and Messengers-at-Arms to cite John Carmichael, now or lately residing in Sydney, New South Wales, the only surviving son of the deceased Mrs Janet Black or Carmichael or Young, Poulterer in Edinburgh, and lately residing in No. 4, Milne Square there, and James Potts, Farmer, residing at Causewayend, Parish of Kirknewton, the Executor-nominate of the said Mrs Janet Black or Carmichael or Young, in terms of the Statute, to appear in Court, within twenty-one days after citation, to shew cause why sequestration of the estates of the said deceased Mrs Janet Black or Carmichael or Young, should not be awarded; and grants warrant for letters of diligence to recover evidence to shew that the said deceased debtor resided in Scotland at the time of her death, and was then owner of heritable or moveable estates in Scotland, and Commission to the Judge Ordinary of the Bounds to take the oaths of Havers, in common form. (Signed) 'JOHN MARSHALL'

That in terms of the foregoing Deliverance the said John Carmichael and James Potts were duly cited, but no appearance having been made by or for either of them, the Lord Ordinary, on resuming consideration of the Petition, with the Writs produced, by Interlocutor dated 13th January 1853, appointed the warrant of citation above quoted to be published in the Edinburgh Gazette, and ordained the successors of the said deceased Mrs Janet Black or Carmichael or Young, to appear in Court, within twenty-one days after publication, to shew cause why sequestration of her estates should not be awarded.—Of all which publication is hereby made.
