Edinburgh, 17, Duke Street,
16th March 1853.

INTIMATION is Hereby Given, that ROBERT MACQUEEN, Esquire of Braxfield, Heir of Entail in possession of the Entailed Estates of BRAXFIELD, HARDINGTON, and Others, lying in the County of Lanark, and of the Entailed Estate and Barony of BROUGHTON and Others, lying in the County of Peebles, has presented a Petition to the Lords of Council and Session (First Division, Mr Walker, Clerk), in terms of the Act 11 and 12 Vict., cap. 36, intituled 'An Act for the Amendment of the Law of Entail in Scotland,' praying their Lordships to find and declare that the sum of L.93 : 18 : 2, expended by the Petitioner in Improvements upon said Entailed Estates previous to the date of said Act, and the sum of L.695 : 2 : 7, expended by him in Improvements upon said Estates subsequent to the date of said Act, were expended in Improvements of the nature contemplated by the Act 10 Geo. III., cap. 51; and that said expenditure, or such other sums as may be ascertained by their Lordships, were bona fide made by the Petitioner while Heir of Entail in possession of said Estates, and do not exceed the amount authorised by the said last-mentioned Act; and to grant warrant to and authorise the Petitioner to uplift from the Commercial Bank of Scotland the sum of L.114 : 1 : 2, deposited in said Bank on 19th April 1852 by the Caledonian Railway Company, being the value of a portion of ground taken by said Company from the said Entailed Estates, for the purposes of their Railway,—said sum to be applied by the Petitioner in extinction of the said sum of L.93 : 18 : 2, and further in extinction pro tanto of said additional sum of L.695 : 2 : 7, or of such sum or sums as may be ascertained by their Lordships to have been expended on Improvements as aforesaid; and on this being done, to find the said sums expended in Improvements to be to that extent paid and extinguished; and farther, to authorise the Petitioner to execute in favour of any party or parties he may think fit, a Bond and Disposition in Security, or Bonds and Dispositions in Security, in ordinary form, over the said Entailed Lands and Estates, other than the Mansion-house, Offices, and Policies of Hardington, for two-thirds of three-fourth parts of the said sum of L.93 : 18 : 2, and for two-thirds of the said sum of L.695 : 2 : 7, but under deduction always of the said sum of L.114 : 1 : 2, if the Petitioner shall obtain authority to uplift and apply the same towards extinction of said Improvement expenditure as aforesaid; with the due and legal interest of the sums for which said Bond or Bonds and Dispositions in Security shall be granted, from the date of advance until repaid, and with corresponding penalties; such Bond and Disposition, or Bonds and Dispositions in Security, containing all clauses usual in Bonds and Dispositions in Security granted over Estates in Scotland held in fee-simple, or otherwise, being in the form, and having the effect and operation, and being subject to the conditions, provisions, and others referred to in the 18th section of the said Act 11 and 12 Vict. cap. 36: On which Petition the following Interlocutor has been pronounced:—'Edinburgh, 10th March 1853.—The Lords appoint the Petition to be intimated on the Walls and in the Minute-Book for fourteen days, and to be served on the persons on whom it prays for an order for service to be made, and them to answer the same, if advised so to do, within the proper periods, in terms of the Statute and relative Acts of Sederunt; also appoint the same to be publicly advertised, once in the Edinburgh Gazette, and once weekly for six successive weeks in the North British Advertiser and Edinburgh Evening Courant Newspapers.
