Edinburgh Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FROM FRIDAY, JULY 19. TO TUESDAY, JULY 23. 1799.

DOWNING-STREET—July 20. 1799.

DISPATCES, of which the following are copy and extract, have been received from Lieutenant-Colonel Robert Craufurd by the Right Honourable Lord Grenville, his Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Foreign Department.

MY LORD,

ZURICH, July 6. 1799.

I HAVE the honour to inform your Lordship, that on the 3d instant, a considerable corps of the right wing of General Massena's army under the command of the General of Division Le Courbe, attacked General Yellachitz's position in the Canton of Schweiz; on the whole extent of his front, from the Sill to Schweiz and Brunnen.

The affair lasted the greater part of the day; and although the French at first gained some ground, they were afterwards completely repulsed; and General Yellachitz's corps re-occupied all its former posts, except Brunnen, of which the enemy retained possession on the evening of the 3d, but from whence he was also repulsed the next morning.

Major General Yellachitz bestows great praise on the conduct of the contingent troops of the Cantons of Glaris and Schweiz.

I have the honour to be, &c.

ROBT. CRAUFURD.

Extract of a Letter from Lieutenant Colonel CRAUFURD to Lord GRENVILLE, dated Zurich, 7th July 1799.

I HAVE much satisfaction in being able to inform your Lordship, that in consequence of the total defeat of General Macdonald's army, and the retreat of Moreau, General Haddick's corps, the destination of which has been so frequently changed, is now decidedly on the point of entering the Valais.

ADMIRALTY-OFFICE—July 20. 1799.

Extract of a letter from the Right Honourable Lord BRIDPORT, K. B. Admiral of the White, &c. to EVAN NEPEAN, Esq. dated the 16th instant,

You will herewith receive a copy of a letter from the Honourable Henry Curzon, Captain of his Majesty's ship Indefatigable, which is transmitted to you for their Lordships information.

His Majesty's ship Indefatigable, at Sea, May 31. 1799.

MY LORD,
BEING in latitude 43 deg. 7 min. north, and longitude 11 deg. west, I fell in with and captured the French privateer brig La Venus, mounting twelve four and two nine-pounders, and manned with one hundred and one men, from Rochfort; had been out nine weeks, and taken the schooner Clarence, from Lisbon bound to London, and a ship, from Lisbon bound to Hamburg, laden with salt. I have the honour to be, &c.

HENRY CURZON.

Right Honourable Lord BRIDPORT, K. B. &c.

Copy of a letter from Capt. HENRY DIGBY, Commander of his Majesty's ship Alcmene, to EVAN NEPEAN, Esq. dated at Sea, the 6th of July, 1799.

SIR,

I INCLOSE you, for the information of their Lordships, a copy of a letter to Earl St Vincent. The privateer therein mentioned failed from Passage with Le Bordelais French ship privateer, and Le Grand Decide brig; they were victualled for three months, and were to return themselves, and send their prizes to Passage. I have the honour to be, &c.

H. DIGBY.

MY LORD, His Majesty's ship Alcmene, July 6. 1799.

RECEIVING information of several large privateers that had been hovering on the coast of Portugal having gone to the westward, I thought it expedient, for the commercial interest, to exceed the limits of my station, and on the 22d of June, in latitude 38 deg. 50 min. north, long. 31 deg. west, a ship boarding an American was seen, which I chased; she parting, the American made to and told me she was French, then distant two leagues. The weather being clear I saw his manœuvres, and acted accordingly throughout the night; and by using every possible exertion I got round the Island of Corvo, in calms and light winds; on the 23d the enemy, equally active in his endeavours to avoid, preserved his distance by towing and sweeping to the westward. On the 24th and 25th I passed two English brigs, and upwards of 40 sail of merchant vessels, steering for Lisbon. A breeze from the northward on the 26th brought me by six in the morning within gun-shot of the enemy; a running fight commencing, she struck after seven, in latitude 39 deg. 29 min. north, longitude 33 deg. west, having suffered in her hull, sails, and rigging; is named the Courageux, of Bourdeaux, pierced for 32, but carrying only 28 twelves and nine-pounders, (of which some were thrown overboard during the chase,) with 253 men, commanded by Jean Bernard; 23 days last from Passage, expressly to intercept a Brazil convoy.

I have the honour to be, &c.

H. DIGBY.

Earl of St Vincent, K. B. Admiral of the White, &c.

Copy of a letter from Vice-Admiral HARVEY, Commander in Chief of his Majesty's ships and vessels in the Leeward Islands, dated June 8, 1799, to EVAN NEPEAN, Esq.

You will be pleased to acquaint their Lordships, that Captain Ekins, of his Majesty's ship Amphitrite, captured on the 22d ultimo, to windward of Antigua, Le Duquesne French privateer coppered brig, of 16 guns, nine-pounders, and 129 men, belonging to Guadaloupe, which he sent to Barbadoes.

This vessel had been out but three days, and made no captures. She was bound on a cruize to windward of the Islands, is a very fast sailer, and one of the finest privateers in these seas.

Extract of a Letter from Admiral Lord DUNCAN, Commander in Chief of his Majesty's ships and vessels in the North Seas, to EVAN NEPEAN, Esq. dated off the Texel, July 17, 1799.

I TRANSMIT, for their Lordships information, another letter from Captain Winthrop, of his Majesty's ship Circe; much praise is due to him and the officers under his command; for their spirit, enterprise, and good conduct; on this as well as on a former occasion.

MY LORD,

I FEEL great pleasure in acquainting your Lordship, that the boats of our little Squadron† made another dash into the Watt, at the back of Ameland last night, and brought out three valuable vessels, deeply laden with sugar, wine, and brandy; they also burnt a large galliot, laden with brass ordnance and stores, which could not be brought off, notwithstanding the perseverance of Captain Mackenzie, to whom I am very much indebted for his coolness and judgment in the management of this affair; and also to Captain Boorder, whose local knowledge has been of great use to me. Lieutenant Searle; who commanded a schoot converted into a gun-boat; and Lieutenant Pawle, who commanded the Circe's boats, upon this as well as upon a former occasion, conducted themselves very much to my satisfaction, as did the honest fellows under their command, who were at their oars 15 or 16 hours in a very hot day, opposed to an enemy of superior force; but I am happy to say not a man was hurt. I have the honour to be, &c.

R. WINTHROP.

Admiral Lord Viscount Duncan, &c.

† Circe, Pylades, L'Espeigle, Courier Cutter, and Nancy Cutter.

SIR,

HEREWITH I transmit, for their Lordships information, a letter from Captain Wood, of his Majesty's sloop Hound, acquainting me of his having captured L'Hirondelle French lugger privateer.

I have the honour to be, &c.

ARCH. DICKSON.

SIR,

Archibald Dickson, Esq. Vice-Admiral, &c.

Copy of a Letter from Captain WOLLASTON, of his Majesty's sloop Cruizer, to EVAN NEPEAN, Esq. dated Leith Roads, July 15, 1799.

I have the honour to be, &c.

JOHN JAMES GATHERWOOD, Receiver of Corn Returns.

TO THE CREDITORS OF
THOMAS MILNE, jun. late Leather Merchant in Edinburgh.

THE Trustee on the said Thomas Milne's sequestrated estate, hereby gives notice, That he has prepared and made up a state of the funds recovered and debts claimed, with a scheme of division amongst the creditors who have produced their interests; which scheme lies open for the inspection of all concerned until Monday the 26th August; on which day the Trustee requests the creditors to meet in John's Coffeehouse, Edinburgh, at 12 o'clock noon, to receive their dividends.

TO THE CREDITORS OF
HENRY COWAN, Butcher and Cattle-dealer in Ayr.

THE Trustee upon the sequestrated estate of said Henry Cowan hereby intimates, that, after the examination of the bankrupt at the last diet of examination, the Sheriff of Ayr, upon the trustees' application, has fixed Friday the 2d of August next, within the Court-house of Ayr, at 12 o'clock noon, for the examination of the bankrupt's wife, servants, or others connected with his business.

The Trustee requests a meeting of the creditors, on Friday the 9th of August next, at 12 o'clock noon, within the Court-house of Ayr, to take into consideration an offer made at last general meeting, of a composition upon the bankrupt's whole debts, and to determine whether said offer should be accepted.

TO THE CREDITORS OF JOHN DURNO, Advocate in Aberdeen.

IARTHUR DINGWALL FORDYCE, Trustee on the Sequestrated Estate of JOHN DURNO, Advocate in Aberdeen, do hereby intimate to the Creditors, That I have made up a state of the claims on the bankrupt's estate lodged with me; also a state of the funds recovered, and of the funds outstanding, so far as was practicable—which states lie in my hands, open for the inspection of the Creditors. But owing to the preferable claim made for the debt due to the Crown, I find it impossible to pay any dividend, or to make out any scheme of Division at present—this is also the opinion of the Commissioners named by the Creditors.—Of which the Creditors will be satisfied on calling at my office.

AR. DINGWALL FORDYCE.
