Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 23, 1853.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 25th day of November 1853,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS a Treaty has been concluded between Her Majesty and the Senate of the Free Hanseatic City of Hamburg, whereby due protection has been secured by the said Senate, within the State of Hamburg, for the benefit of authors of books, prints, dramatic pieces, musical compositions, drawings, paintings, articles of sculpture, engravings, lithographs, and any other works of art in which the laws of Great Britain and of Hamburg do now, or may hereafter give their respective subjects the right of property or copyright, and for the benefit of the lawful representatives or assigns of such authors, with regard to any such works first published within the dominions of Her Majesty :

Now therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of Her Privy Council, and by virtue of the authority committed to Her by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of Her reign, intituled, "An Act to amend the law relating to international copyright," doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the sixteenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, the authors, inventors, designers, engravers, and makers of any of the following works ; that is to say :—books, prints, articles of sculpture, dramatic works, musical compositions, and any other works of art in which the laws of Great Britain give to British subjects the privilege of copyright, and the executors, administrators, and assigns of such authors, inventors, designers, engravers, and makers respectively, shall, as respects works first published within the State of Hamburg after the said sixteenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, have the privilege of copyright therein for a period equal to the term of copyright which authors, inventors, designers, engravers, and makers of the like works, respectively, first published in the United Kingdom, are by law entitled to ; provided such books, dramatic pieces, musical compositions, prints, articles of sculpture, or other works of art, shall have been registered, and copies thereof shall have been delivered, according to the requirements of the said recited Act, within three months after the first publication thereof in any part of the State of Hamburg ; or, if such work be published in parts, then within three months after the publication of the last part thereof.

And it is hereby further ordered, that the authors of dramatic pieces and musical compositions, which shall, after the said sixteenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, be first publicly represented or performed within the State of Hamburg, or their assigns, shall have the sole liberty of representing or performing in any part of the British dominions such dramatic pieces or musical compositions, during a period equal to the period during which authors of dramatic pieces and musical compositions, first publicly represented or performed in the United Kingdom, are entitled by law to the sole liberty of representing or performing the same ; provided such dramatic pieces or musical compositions have been registered, and copies thereof have been delivered according to the requirements of the said recited Act, within three months after the time of their being first represented or performed in any part of the State of Hamburg.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. GREVILLE.

At the Court at Windsor, the 25th day of November 1853,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the ninth and tenth years of the reign of Her Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend an Act of the seventh and eighth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, for reducing, under certain circumstances, the duties payable upon books and engravings," it is enacted, that whenever Her Majesty has, by virtue of any authority vested in Her for that purpose, declared that the authors, inventors, designers, engravers, or makers of any books, prints, or other works of art first published in any Foreign Country or Countries, shall have the privilege of copyright therein, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, if she think fit, from time to time, by any Order in Council, to declare that from and after a day to be named in such Order, in lieu of the customs from time to time payable on the importation into the United Kingdom of books, prints, and drawings, there shall be payable only such duties of Customs as are set forth in the said Act :

And whereas Her Majesty hath this day, by virtue of the authority vested in Her for that purpose, declared that the authors, inventors, designers, engravers, and makers of books, prints, and certain other works of art, first published within the State of Hamburgh, shall have the privilege of copyright therein :

Now therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of Her Privy Council, and in virtue of the authority committed to Her by the said recited Act, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the sixteenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, in lieu of the duties of customs now payable upon books, prints, and drawings, published at any place within the State of Hamburgh, and imported from thence into the United Kingdom, there shall be payable only the duties of customs following ; that is to say :—

Works originally produced in the United Kingdom, and re-published within the State of Hamburgh, the cwt. . . . .	2	10	0
Works not originally produced in the United Kingdom, the cwt. . . . .	0	15	0
Prints or drawings :—
Coloured or plain, single, each, . . . . .	0	0	0½
Bound or sewed, the dozen, . . . . .	0	0	1½

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Board of Trade, Whitehall, Marine Department, December 19, 1853.

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of the Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Minister at Copenhagen, inclosing copy of a Notification issued by the Danish Government (a translation of which is subjoined), of an improvement about to be made in the Eastern Beacon Light at List, on the Island of Sylt.

(Copy.)

(Translation.)

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

In order that the Eastern Beacon Light at List may be more easily distinguished from the Western one, the former will be raised from 97 to 110 Danish feet above the sea.

This is hereby made known to Mariners, with the addition, that as soon as the work is completed, a further Notice will be published.

[Repeated from the Gazettes of September 20,
and November 18, 1853.]

NOTIFICATION.

With reference to the Notification which appeared in the Gazette of the 23d ultimo, that a Convention had been concluded between Her Majesty and the United States of America, for the settlement of all outstanding claims by means of a Mixed Commission, and that Commissioners were about to meet for the purpose of carrying out the stipulations of such Convention ;

Notice is hereby given, that the Commissioners held their first Meeting on the 15th instant, and that all persons, subjects of Her Majesty, who may have claims to prefer upon the Government of the United States, arising out of transactions of a date subsequent to the 24th of December 1814, and prior to the 26th of July 1853, (the date of the exchange of the ratifications of the Convention,) should forthwith transmit the particulars of the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, together with the requisite evidence or information in support thereof, for the purpose of being submitted to the Commissioners.

Notice is also hereby given, that in conformity with the following stipulation of the third Article of the Convention—

“ Every claim shall be presented to the Commissioners within six months from the day of their first meeting, unless in any case where reasons for delay shall be established to the satisfaction of the Commissioners, or of the arbitrator or umpire in the event of the Commissioners differing in opinion thereupon ; and then and in any such case the period for presenting the claim may be extended to any time not exceeding three months longer :”

Every claim which may not be presented to the Commissioners before the 15th of March 1854, will be inadmissible, unless reasons for delay be established to the satisfaction of the Commissioners or of the arbitrator or umpire ; and that every claim which shall not be presented to the Commissioners before the 15th of June 1854, will, in conformity with the fifth Article of the Convention, be considered and treated as finally settled, barred, and thenceforth inadmissible.

NOTICE is Hereby Given, that a Summons of Disjunction and Erection has been instituted before the Lords of Council and Session, Commissioners for the Plantation of Kirks and Valuation of Teinds, at the instance of Sir JAMES CAMPBELL of STRACATHRO, Knight, the present President of the Society for erecting additional Parochial Churches in the City and Suburbs of Glasgow, called or known by the name of the Glasgow Church Building Society; and of the other Parties therein named and designed, being the present Directors of said Society, Proprietors in Trust, as therein mentioned, of the Chapel of Ease situated within the Barony Parish of Glasgow, commonly called SPRINGBURN CHURCH or CHAPEL, with consent and concurrence of the Presbytery of Glasgow; AGAINST The Officers of State and the Commissioners of Woods and Forests, as representing Her Majesty, as Patron and Titular of the Barony Parish of Glasgow; the Ministers and Kirk-Sessions of the two Parochial Churches of the said Barony Parish; and the Moderator and remanent Members of the Presbytery of Glasgow: Which Summons concludes that for the better propagation of the Gospel and spiritual edification of the people, the whole Lands and others forming the District of Springburn, particularly described in the said Summons, should, by Decree of the said Lords, be SEPARATED and DISJOINED from the said Barony Parish, and ERECTED into a separate and distinct Parish, to be called in all time coming, the PARISH OF SPRINGBURN; reserving always the existing management of the poor and poors' funds, and the rights of the existing Session-Clerk of the said Barony Parish, notwithstanding such Disjunction and Erection, in terms of the Statute 7 and 8 Vict. cap. 44; and that the said Church at Springburn should be declared to be the Parish Church of the said Parish of Springburn, and that the whole Inhabitants of the said district of Springburn, to be Disjoined and Erected as aforesaid, shall repair to the said Church of Springburn as their proper Parish Church for hearing the Word of God, receiving the Sacraments, and partaking in all other public acts of Divine Worship, and shall subject themselves to the Minister of the said Church and Parish of Springburn, so to be Erected as aforesaid, as proper parishioners thereof, in all time coming: And that the said Lords should modify, settle, and appoint to the Minister of the said Parish of Springburn such a stipend as in the circumstances may appear to be just, to be payable out of the teinds of the Lands within the said new Parish of Springburn, in all time coming; and that, in all other respects, the existing rights of all concerned in the teinds of the said Barony Parish and Parish of Springburn, should be reserved: And that the Pursuers of the said Action should be found entitled to let the sittings in the said Church of Springburn, in the way and manner, and for the purposes mentioned in said Summons; and that the Patronage of the said Parish of Springburn should be declared to be vested in Her Majesty, as the said Summons, as amended, itself more fully bears: Which Summons having been duly called in Court, and afterwards enrolled, the Court have pronounced the following Interlocutor:—'Edinburgh, 21st December 1853.—The Lords having considered the process, and heard Counsel for the Pursuers, sustain the amendment of the libel, and in terms of the Statute 7 and 8 Victoria, cap. 44, appoint Intimation of the conclusions of the Summons, as amended, to be made once from the Precentor's Desk of each of the Parish Churches of the Barony Parish of Glasgow, and of the Church or Chapel of Springburn, within the said Parish, respectively, immediately upon the blessing being pronounced after the Forenoon Service on the Sunday, of which Intimations Certificates by the respective Precentors shall be sufficient evidence: Appoint Intimation in similar terms to be made to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Woods and Forests, Land Revenues, &c., and also once in the Edinburgh Gazette, and North British Advertiser Newspaper,—all such Intimations to be made at least ten days before the process shall be again moved in Court; and further, appoint the Pursuers to lodge with each of the Session-Clerks of the Parish and Church or Chapel aforesaid, fifty copies of the printed Summons as amended, for the use of such of the Heritors or others interested as may apply for them. (Signed) 'DUN. M'NEILL, I.P.D.'

In terms of which Interlocutor this Intimation is now made. And Intimation is hereby further given, that in terms of the appointment therein, the Pursuers have lodged printed copies of the said Summons, as amended, with each of the Session-Clerks of the said Barony Parish, and with the Rev. James Arthur, Minister of the said Chapel of Springburn, for the use of the Heritors, or such other parties as may apply for the same.
