FRIDAY, JANUARY 27, 1854.

DOWNING-STREET, January 24, 1854.

THE Queen has been pleased to appoint Stephen Rice, Esq. to be Her Majesty's Treasurer for Prince Edward Island.

NOTIFICATION.

CLAIMS BY BRITISH SUBJECTS ON THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

WHEREAS by a Convention between Her Majesty and the United States of America, signed on the 8th of February 1853, for the settlement of outstanding claims by a Mixed Commission, it is agreed that all Claims on the part of subjects of Her Majesty upon the Government of the United States, and all Claims on the part of citizens of the United States upon the Government of Her Majesty, which may have been presented to either Government for its interposition with the other, since the 24th December 1814, and which remain unsettled, as well as any other such Claims which may be presented within the time specified in the said Convention, shall be referred to two Commissioners for their final determination.

Notice is hereby given, that all British subjects who, since the said 24th day of December 1814, have presented to the British Government for its interposition with that of the United States, Claims which yet remain unsettled and which they desire to have laid before the Commissioners under the said Convention, are required to notify such desire to the Agent of Her Majesty's Government under the said Convention; and to transmit to him forthwith any further statements or particulars of their Claims, together with the documentary evidence necessary to support them.

It is further provided by the said Convention, that all Claims shall be presented to the Commissioners within six months from the day of their first meeting, which was held on the 14th September 1853, unless under special circumstances, to be proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioners, in which case the time may be extended to any time not exceeding three months.

All Claims not presented within the periods above-mentioned, will be considered as barred.

Communications to be addressed to James Hannen, Esq. Agent of Her Majesty's Government under the American Claims Convention, No. 2, Essex Court, Temple, London.

Foreign-Office, January 20, 1854.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
January 21, 1854.*

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Lisbon, reporting that the Board of Health in that City has declared Redondella, and the right bank of the River Minho, to be infected with Cholera Morbus, and all the other Ports of the Spanish Province of Galicia, to be suspected of infection therewith.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
January 23, 1854.*

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, copies of two Despatches from Her Majesty's Ambassador at Paris, enclosing two Imperial Decrees, the one authorizing Foreign ships to trade between France and Algeria; the other extending till 31st July 1854, the coasting trade facilities granted to Foreign Ships, of which the following are translations:—

Art. I. The privilege granted by the Decree of the 30th September 1853, to Foreign vessels to carry, until 31st December 1853, corn, meal, rice, potatoes and dry vegetables, between Algeria and France, is extended to 31st July 1854.

Art. II. Whatever may be the date of their arrival at their destination, Foreign vessels thus laden shall enjoy the benefit of the above Article, provided they shall have quitted the port of departure previous to 31st July 1854.

Art. III. Our Ministers of War, of Commerce, and of Finance, are charged, each in his own Department, with the execution of the present Decree.

Given at the Palace of the Tuileries, 17th December 1853.

NAPOLEON.

By the Emperor. The Marshal of France, Secretary of State for the Department of War,

A. DE SAINT ARNAUD.

Art. I. The privilege granted by our Decree of 12th October 1853, to Foreign vessels to carry from one sea to another, coastwise, grain and other provisions loaded in a French port, is extended, under the conditions named in the above-mentioned Decree, to the carriage, coastwise, of the same articles, from one port to another in the same sea.

The above privilege, which is to extend to the 31st July 1854, shall only be applicable to vessels laden exclusively with grain and the other provisions specified in the Decree of 12th October last.

Art. II. Vessels thus laden shall be admitted at their port of destination at whatever date they may arrive, if their clearance papers shall prove that they sailed previous to the 31st July 1854.

Art. III. Our Ministers of Agriculture, Commerce, and Public Works, and of Finance, are charged, each in his own Department, with the execution of the present Decree.

Given at the Palace of the Tuileries, 16th January 1854.

NAPOLEON.

By the Emperor. The Minister
Secretary of State for the Department of Agriculture,
Commerce, and Public Works,
P. MAGNE.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
January 23, 1854.*

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of the Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Minister at Lisbon, stating that the Portuguese Government has decided that the possession of a clean Bill of Health does not of itself entitle a vessel to free pratique in a Portuguese port, and still less so if arriving from an infected port; and that, in the case of Colliers, the Portuguese Government has conceded the privilege of commencing their quarantine at Belem, from the day of their making their entry at that port.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
Marine Department, January 24, 1854.*

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Minister at Madrid, transmitting copy of a Notification published in the Madrid Gazette (a translation of which is subjoined), announcing the establishment of a new lighthouse on the north side of Cape Prior, coast of Galicia.

(Copy.)

(Translation.) Hydrographical Office.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

The Minister of Marine has communicated to this office, through the Department of Public Works, the subjoined details relative to the situation of a new lighthouse which has been built on the coasts of the Spanish Peninsula by the Corps of Engineers of Roads, Canals, and Ports, wherewith the following Notice has been drawn up:—

ATLANTIC OCEAN.—Coasts of Galicia.

Lighthouse on Cape Prior.

Province of Corunna.

From the 1st of March, of the present year, a new lighthouse established on the "north side of Cape Prior" will be lighted every night from sunset to sunrise.

This Lighthouse lies in—

43° 33' 40" N. latitude, and

2° 6' 52" W. longitude from the Observatory of San Fernando.

Its apparatus is of the third catadioptrical order, with a permanent light, grand model. The elevation of the luminous focus above the level of the sea is of 136.5 metres (489.87 feet), and produces a tangent of 24 miles, although it will only be visible at a distance of about 15 miles, according to the state of the atmosphere and the elevation of the observer.

The above Notice is hereby published, by order of the Queen, for the guidance of Mariners.

Madrid, January 11, 1854.

(Signed) JORGE LASSO DE LA VEGA.

NOTICE respecting the OFFICERS and CREWS of Her Majesty's Ships "EREBUS" and "TERROR."

ADMIRALTY, January 19, 1854.

NOTICE is hereby given, that if intelligence be not received before the 31st March next, of the Officers and Crews of Her Majesty's ships "Erebus" and "Terror" being alive, the Names of the Officers will be removed from the Navy List, and they and the crews of those Ships will be considered as having died in Her Majesty's Service. The pay and wages of the Officers and Crews of those Ships will cease on the 31st day of March next; and all persons legally entitled, and qualifying themselves to claim the pay and wages then due, will be paid the same on application to the Accountant-General of Her Majesty's Navy.

Security will be required in certain cases, for which special provision will be made.

By Command of the Lord Commissioners of the Admiralty.

W. A. B. HAMILTON, Secretary.
