TUESDAY, JUNE 6, 1854.

LORD CHAMBERLAIN'S OFFICE,

April 18, 1854.

NOTICE is Hereby Given, that Her Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, on Friday, the 9th June next, at Two o'Clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who purpose to attend Her Majesty's Levee at St. James's Palace are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance in the Ante-Room, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to Her Majesty.

Those Gentlemen who are to be presented at the Levee on the 9th of June next, are hereby informed it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to present them, should be delivered at the Lord Chamberlain's Office before Wednesday the 7th of June next, by twelve o'clock, in order that they may be submitted for The Queen's approbation; it being Her Majesty's command that no presentation shall be made at the Levee but in conformity with the above Regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

The State Apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court until half-past one o'clock.

Noticé is hereby given, that all persons having Petitions or Addresses to present to Her Majesty at the Levee on the 9th of June next, are to deliver a card (having on it their names, a statement of the object of such Petitions or Addresses, and the names of the persons from whom they come,) to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock, on Wednesday the 7th of June next, and that two other cards, having on them precisely what is written upon that sent to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, are to be taken to the Levee; one to be delivered to the Page in the Ante-Room, and the other to the Lord Chamberlain, who will read its contents to The Queen; and on these occasions, no other statement is to be addressed to Her Majesty.

A Deputation to present an Address is not to exceed four persons.

ADMIRALTY, June 2, 1854.

DESPATCHES have been received at this Office from Vice-Admiral Sir Charles Napier, K.C.B., Commander-in-Chief of Her Majesty's ships and vessels in the Baltic, of which the following are copies:—

No. 96.

Her Majesty's Ship Duke of Wellington, off Hango Head, May 20, 1854.

SIR,

I BEG to enclose a letter from Captain Yelverton, of the Arrogant, giving an account of a smart operation he performed at Ekness, 12 miles in the interior of the country. Great credit is due to him for his perseverance in threading up so narrow and intricate a navigation; and it will show the enemy they are not safe even in their country towns.

Captain Yelverton very properly abstained from damaging the town.

He speaks very highly of the gallantry of Captain Hall, of the Hecla (who I am sorry to say is slightly wounded), as also of Lieutenant Haggard, first of the Arrogant, and Lieutenant Crew Read, the senior Lieutenant of the Hecla, which gallant officer has received a severe wound, which I fear has endangered the sight of his eye. All the officers and men behaved as British seamen and marines were wont to.

I enclose a list of killed and wounded on this service.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) CHAS. NAPIER,
Vice-Admiral and Commander-in-Chief.

I also enclose a sketch of Ekness, and one of the Hecla's funnel.

The Secretary of the Admiralty.

Her Majesty's Ship Arrogant, Skagaedslenden, May 20, 1854.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to inform you that I came into the inner passage yesterday, in company with the Hecla, for the purpose of examining the channel.

At three in the afternoon, just as I was about to anchor a little beyond Teverminne, a strong force of the enemy's troops opened their fire upon both ships from behind an extensive sand-bank; the effect, however, of a few broadsides from the Hecla and this ship soon dispersed them.

No one, I am glad to be able to say, was hurt in either vessel.

I did nothing to provoke this attack on the part of the enemy.

I ascertained from a pilot who lives here, that three large Russian loaded merchant-ships were at Ekness, eight miles to the northward. I lost no time in proceeding there early this morning; but did not expect to find the enemy so well prepared to receive me. Owing to the Hecla's light draught of water she led the way; a task not easy to perform in a narrow and intricate passage, exposed as she was to the first of the enemy's fire.

In addition to a field battery of five guns (two of which I dismounted) and one mortar, they had erected a strong battery which they supplied very efficiently; Captain Hall succeeded in dismounting and bringing off three of the guns. The engagement lasted longer than I expected, as they returned to their guns twice in the midst of our fire, and were only compelled to leave them when their guns were destroyed by our shot.

On reaching the anchorage of Ekness, I found that two of the merchantmen were aground, but Captain Hall brought out one under the fire of a battery, which my draught of water would not allow me to near sufficiently to completely destroy. I most carefully avoided firing one shot in or near the town of Ekness, directing the whole of the fire of the guns exclusively to the batteries and troops attacking us, which consisted, in addition to the brigade of Horse Artillery, of a considerable body of cavalry and infantry, moving abreast of the ship as she advanced.

I cannot give sufficient credit to Captain Hall for the assistance he rendered me on this, as on all occasions, since he has been under my orders; the admirable way in which he went in and brought out his prize, under a galling fire from the enemy, deserves the greatest praise.

I beg also to call to your favourable notice Lieut. H. V. Haggard, Senior Lieutenant of this ship, whose most zealous services at all times were particularly displayed on this occasion, and also that of the whole of the officers, seamen, and marines, of Her Majesty's ship under my command.

I regret to say that I had one man killed, and five wounded. I must not omit to mention how very highly Captain Hall speaks of Lieutenant Crewe Read, First Lieutenant of the Hecla, for the support he had from him throughout the engagement (until he was unfortunately wounded and carried below), as also from the officers, seamen, and marines, of Her Majesty's ship under his command.

I beg leave to enclose herewith a list of casualties on board the Hecla and Arrogant, in the engagement.

I have, &c.

(Signed) H. R. YELVERTON,
Captain.

A List of Casualties on board Her Majesty's ship Arrogant, on the 20th May 1854, when engaged with the Enemy.

(Signed) H. R. YELVERTON,
Captain.

T. Brock, Pilot, slightly wounded; bruise of right thigh from a splinter.

WHITEHALL, May 31, 1854.

THE following Addresses of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland having been transmitted by Robert Montgomery, Lord Belhaven, Her Majesty's Commissioner, to the Right Honourable Viscount Palmerston, G.C.B., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, have been by him presented to the Queen; which Addresses Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE have received with lively gratitude the gracious letter in which your Majesty has been pleased to express hearty satisfaction on the occasion of our present Meeting, and to renew the assurance of the royal sanction to the annual sitting of the General Assemblies of this National Church.

It cannot fail to afford us unmingled pleasure to learn that your Majesty regards the constant proofs which former Assemblies have given of loyalty and attachment to your person and Government, and the wisdom and prudence that distinguished their Councils, as affording an earnest of the continued efficacy of our deliberations under the divine guidance and blessing, in conducting to the welfare and true interests of the Established Church, to the advancement of pure religion among its members, and to the promotion of the prosperity and happiness of your Majesty's subjects in Scotland.

We derive great encouragement from the expression of your Majesty's confidence in the spirit of discretion and forbearance with which it is our earnest purpose to fulfil the solemn and important duties entrusted to us, and from your Majesty's declared determination to extend undiminished protection to the Church of Scotland, and to uphold it in the enjoyment of its ancient rights and privileges.

The re-appointment of Lord Belhaven as the representative of your royal person in the General Assembly, is welcomed by us with cordial and unfeigned congratulation, as he has in time past distinguished himself by his zeal and fidelity, his discretion and kindness, and by unshaken attachment to the Church of his patriotic and noble progenitors.

We return our hearty thanks for your Majesty's liberal donation of two thousand pounds, to be applied to the reformation of the Highlands and Islands of Scotland, and we pledge ourselves to the faithful administration of a fund devoted by our gracious Sovereign to an object so sacred.

That the Supreme Lord of heaven and earth, the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, may in the good pleasure of His will pour down the most precious gifts of His providence and the abundant riches of His grace on your Majesty, on your Royal Consort the Prince Albert, on the Prince of Wales, and all the Royal Family; that He may prosper the wise and vigorous measures of your Government, that wisdom and knowledge may be the stability of your times, and the fear of the Lord your treasure, that the time may soon arrive when nation shall not lift up the sword against nation, and when the olive of peace shall bud forth pleasantly throughout all the kingdoms of the earth, and that when time shall be no longer, your Majesty, and all who are most dear to you, shall inherit a kingdom which shall not be moved, is the earnest prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most loyal and faithful subjects,

The Ministers and Elders met in the National Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and at our appointment, by

JAMES GRANT, D.D., Moderator.

Edinburgh, 22d May 1854.

To The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland met in General Assembly, embrace the earliest opportunity of approaching your Majesty's Throne, at this interesting juncture, to express our sincere and inviolable attachment to your Majesty's royal person and Government.

We join most cordially with our fellow-subjects in every affectionate testimony of loyalty to our most gracious Sovereign, and of zeal for the honour and happiness of our country.

As servants of the God of peace we deplore the war in which your Majesty has recently been called to engage, and we contemplate with deep and most painful concern the perils and miseries with which it threatens to be attended. But feeling persuaded that it has been undertaken in support of the weak against a powerful aggression, and for the purpose of maintaining the independence of the States of Europe, we believe it to be unavoidable. We will not fail to commend the cause in which our country is engaged to Him who ruleth in the Kingdoms of men. It will be our fervent prayer that your Majesty's well concerted and vigorous efforts, combined with those of your Allies may, by the divine blessing, frustrate the designs and repel the unjust and oppressive movements of the enemy; and that your Majesty, supported by the wise and generous patriotism of your faithful subjects, may be enabled to bring the present formidable and alarming contest to a speedy, successful, and glorious issue.

We consider it to be our duty at such a crisis to be indefatigably diligent in the functions of our sacred office, that we may lead the people under our care to a just and devout consideration of the awful judgments which are abroad in the earth, in order to impress them with a deep sense of their manifold transgressions, and excite them to such a reformation of heart and life as may, through the merits of our Lord Jesus Christ, avert from our country the calamities which our iniquities most justly deserve.

That the Lord of Hosts may crown with victory your Majesty's fleets and armies, that the war which has arisen may soon terminate in an honourable and lasting peace, and that your Majesty may long continue to reign the beloved Sovereign of a free, loyal, religious, and happy people, is the sincere and earnest prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most loyal and faithful subjects,

The Ministers and Elders met in the National Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and at our appointment, by

JAMES GRANT, D.D., Moderator.

Board of Trade, Whitehall
May 30, 1854.

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received the subjoined copy of a Notice, issued by the United States Light-house Department, regarding Nantucket New South Shoal Light-Vessel.

(Copy.)

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

Nantucket New South Shoal Light-Vessel.

A LIGHT-VESSEL will be placed during the ensuing month (May 1854) to mark the New South Shoal, off Nantucket, and to guide vessels clear of dangers in that vicinity.

This vessel will be fitted with two masts painted yellow, white mast heads, with an open work, oval, black day mark, 5 feet in diameter, at an elevation of 63 feet from the water line.

The hull of the vessel will be red, with "Nantucket South Shoal" painted in large white letters on both sides.

The length of the vessel is about 100 feet; breadth of beam about 24 feet; height of gunwale above water, 11 feet; burden, 250 tons.

Two lights (one on each mast) will be exhibited at an elevation of 44 feet above the level of the sea, each produced by 8 Argand fountain lamps and parabolic reflectors, and should be seen in good weather, from an elevation of 15 feet above the water, at a distance of from 12 to 13 nautical miles.

During thick or foggy weather a heavy bell will be kept constantly ringing.

The vessel will be placed in from 13 to 15 fathoms water, about one, or one and-a-half mile to the southward of the southern extremity of the New South Shoal.

The position will be in about

Lat. 40° 56' 30" North; Long. 69° 51' 30"
West from Greenwich.

In passing this Light-Vessel the following bearings and distances will be found to be sufficiently accurate to guide navigators in shaping their courses from positions near it:—

To centre of "Old South Shoal," (Mag.) N. by E., distant 8 miles.

To "Tom Never's Head," (Mag.) N. 26° W., distant 21 miles.

To "Block Island Lights," (Mag.) W.N.W., distance 78 miles.

To "Lt. Vessel off Sandy Hook," (Mag.) West, distant 180 miles.

Variation of the Compass, 8° 18' West.

Vessels bound to Boston Bay or to that vicinity, when the weather is moderate, may, after passing the Light-Vessel, steer an E.N.E. course for 18 miles, leaving Fishing Rip on the starboard hand; from thence a N. by W.  $\frac{1}{2}$  W. course for about 38 miles, will bring up with the Chatham Lights.

The attention of Mariners is particularly invited to the setting of the currents in the vicinity of these shoals, as shown by the Coast Survey Chart, and it must not be forgotten that compass courses cannot be depended upon without having regard to the time of tide and its set.

Notice will be given of the precise time when this vessel will be placed at her station, and the lights exhibited, with any changes that it may be found necessary to make specified.

By order of the Light-house Board,
(Signed) SAMUEL R. KNOX, Lieut. U.S.
Navy, Inspector 2d Light-house
District.
