ADMIRALTY, June 14, 1854.

DESPATCHES, of which the following are Copies, have been received from Rear-Admiral Sir James Stirling, Commander-in-Chief of Her Majesty's Ships and Vessels on the East Indian and China Station :—

No. 23. Barracouta, Singapore,
SIR, April 26, 1854.

1. I TRANSMIT herewith, for the information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the accompanying communications, as per schedule, from Captain O'Callaghan, of Her Majesty's ship Encounter.

These communications contain the particulars of a very serious conflict between considerable numbers of the Chinese Imperialist soldiers, employed in the siege of Shanghai, and the naval force commanded by Captain O'Callaghan, in conjunction with the commander of the United States' sloop of war, Plymouth, and assisted by a body of volunteers from the factories in that vicinity.

2. The operations reported by Captain O'Callaghan appear to have originated in the necessity for taking vigorous measures for the defence of the British and other factories, and to have led eventually to the seizure of the Chinese war-junks, and to the expulsion of the Chinese soldiers from the camps they occupied contiguous to the borders of the settlement.

3. I regret that it is not in my power to afford their Lordships any further official information on this subject, beyond that which is contained in Captain O'Callaghan's Reports, herewith transmitted.

4. In bringing this subject to their Lordships' notice, I beg to point attention to the very gallant conduct evinced by Captain O'Callaghan, and by all the officers, seamen, and marines engaged. The conduct of Commander the Honourable G. D. Keane, and of Lieutenants Dew and Majendie, and of a party of ten Marines, who resolutely withstood the attack of an enormously superior force, is particularly commended by Captain O'Callaghan, and I trust it may be considered such as to merit some mark of their Lordships' favour and approval.

I have, &c.

(Signed) JAMES STIRLING,
Rear-Admiral, Commander-in-Chief.

The Secretary to the Admiralty.

Enclosure No. 1, in No. 23.

Her Majesty's Steam-Sloop Encounter,
Shanghai, April 4, 1854.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to inform you that a collision has taken place between the Imperialist forces before the city of Shanghai and ourselves, under the following circumstances.

2. At about 4 P.M. on the 3d instant, I observed the signal (previously arranged) for the small-arm men of Her Majesty's ships to land, which was promptly obeyed.

3. I shortly received a message from Commander the Honourable G. D. Keane (who happened to be on the spot at the time) that the Imperial troops were firing on our people, and the ground was being held by the marines of the main-guard.

4. I advanced with the Encounter's men to the spot indicated (the race course), which is within the limits of our boundary, where a sharp firing was being maintained on either side.

5. Her Majesty's Consul and Vice-Consul were there; and at the former's requisition, and quite in accordance with my own views, I determined on at once acting on the offensive, and having clearly ascertained the camp from which the aggression had been made, took it and burnt it, which I am happy to say was effected without loss, as the troops retired the moment we opened fire upon them.

6. Commander Kelly, of the United States' ship Plymouth, also landed his crew, and having arranged with him for the protection of the settlement during the night by means of strong patrols, the rest of the crews were re-embarked.

7. Her Majesty's Consul deeming it advisable to take further steps for the security of the settlement, I suggested the taking possession of the Chinese Fleet, and holding it until a camp (which most unnecessarily has been pitched close to the boundary, and from which most wanton attacks have frequently been made) was removed, and in this he concurred:

8. In accordance with the above, I sent the boats of the Grecian, with the pinnace of the Encounter (commanded by Lieutenant Dew), under the command of Commander the Honourable G. D. Keane, to take possession of the junks, and bring them down under the Encounter's guns, which he effected most judiciously; and I take this opportunity of stating that from him I received every assistance that adroitness and promptitude could afford.

9. I think it my duty to call your attention to the conduct of Lieutenant Majendie, of Her Majesty's sloop Grecian; he was officer of the guard at the time the aggression took place, and on being sent for repaired to the spot with ten marines, and there kept a considerable body of men at bay until reinforced; and I feel it due to Lieutenant R. Dew, 1st Lieutenant of this ship, to mention the promptitude and smartness with which the crew of the Encounter were landed.

*Advanced Post, Shanghai,
April 5, 1854.*

10. Since the above was written I have the honour further briefly to inform you, that at the request of Her Majesty's Consul, in accordance with the other Consuls, we have found it requisite to attack the Imperial camps near our boundary, which have been most gallantly taken. I have not time to enter into details, as I am writing this on the field.

11. The Imperialists have retired in considerable force (4 to 5,000 men) to the main camp. My object will be now to defend the settlement, but the force at my disposal is small, and I urgently request a reinforcement, if possible some troops; indeed so critical do I deem our position that I have resolved on ordering the Styx up, if the senior officer at Amoy can spare her.

12. I cannot too strongly praise the conduct of Commander Keane and Lieutenant Dew, who most gallantly stormed the very strong works thrown up.

13. I am anxious this should reach as soon as possible, and for this purpose the Nymph clipper will sail to-night or to-morrow morning.

14. Our available force is about 300 men, with the Americans. Captain Kelly, with his gallant crew, has operated with me in a most effective and cordial manner. I am much indebted to the gallant and steady conduct of himself, officers, and men, and to all under my command. (Enclosed is a list of the killed and wounded.) Her Majesty's Consul and Vice-Consul,—the latter with 40 gentlemen of the settlement,—have been with me in the field, and afforded me much assistance.

15. I will take the earliest opportunity of affording you a more detailed account; but of this you may rest assured, that the extreme measures taken were positively requisite for the safety of the community.

Enclosure No. 8, of No. 26.

*Barracouta, Singapore,
April 28, 1854.*

SIR,

I RECEIVED, on the 22d, your Reports dated on the 4th and 5th instant, written from the scene of action, describing the operations and arrangements in which you had been engaged up to the latest of those dates, and containing explanations of some of the circumstances which had led to the very serious collisions you describe, with the forces of an Empire at peace with Her Majesty.

On a full review of those communications, it is my duty to point out that it belongs to the Crown alone to declare war ; and that the orders and instructions of the Admiralty prohibit the commission of acts of hostility towards the subjects of Foreign Countries, and that Naval Officers will be held most strictly responsible for any departure from the line of duty thus marked out.

In the particular case comprised in your Reports, it is clear that the seizure of the Chinese camps and junks were acts of hostility against the public forces of a State not only at peace with the Crown, but towards whom we are enjoined to shew the utmost consideration. No such acts can be justified on the ground that they were recommended or called for by any Consular Officer. They can only be justified by the immediate and unavoidable necessities of your position at the time, and it is by the proof you adduce of the existence of such necessities, that the Admiralty will judge of the propriety of such a departure from its positive injunctions.

I have considered, as it is my duty to do, the circumstances you relate, and I am bound to acknowledge that they appear to have been such as to have left you no alternative, consistent with the safety of the interests you had been ordered to protect, but to pursue the course you took upon the 3d and 4th instant ; but I must apprise you that in cases of this nature it is not for me to pronounce a conclusive judgment.

With respect to the measures you took for effecting the objects you had in view, supposing these to have been justifiable, I am at liberty to form a more decided opinion ; and I have therefore to inform you that your personal conduct, and that of the gallant captain, officers, and men who co-operated with you from the United States' ship Plymouth, and the conduct of Commander Keane, and of Lieutenants Dew, Hemsted, Majendie, and Montgomery, and of the seamen and marines, and gentlemen-volunteers engaged on the occasions referred to, has elicited my warmest admiration ; and I shall take an opportunity to bring to the notice of the Admiralty the names of the officers you particularly mention, and of the ten marines who so resolutely withstood the attacks of a very superior force upon the 3d of the month. I am, &c.,

(Signed) J. STIRLING,

ADMIRALTY, June 14, 1854.

DESPATCHES, of which the following are Copies, have been received from Vice-Admiral Sir Charles Napier, Commander-in-Chief of Her Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Baltic.

ENCLOSING a Copy of Captain Key's Despatch (and reply thereto), relative to the capture of Libau.

*Duke of Wellington, Hango Head,
May 30, 1854.*

SIR,

I REQUEST you will lay before their Lordships the enclosed copy of a despatch I have received from Captain Key, of the Amphion, senior officer on the coast of Courland and Livonia, giving an account of the measures he adopted to effect the surrender of the town of Libau, and the shipping in that port, which was happily accomplished without having occasion to fire a shot.

Enclosed I have the honour to transmit a copy of my reply to Captain Key's despatch.

I have, &c.

(Signed) CHAS. NAPIER, Vice-Admiral and
Commander-in-Chief.To the Secretary of the Admiralty,
London.Enclosure No. 1 in Sir Charles Napier's Letter,
No. 107.Her Majesty's Ship Amphion, Coast of Kourland, May 18, 1854.

SIR

I HAVE the honour to inform you that I arrived off the port of Libau on the evening of May 10th, in company with Her Majesty's Ship Conflict, and having received information from various sources that the town was defended by only 500 or 600 soldiers, and two or three guns, and that several Russian merchant vessels lay dismantled in the port, I determined to bring them out.

On the morning of the 17th we stood in towards the entrance of the river, and by careful sounding, with boats a-head, succeeded in anchoring both ships within gun-shot of part of the town. I then directed Captain Cumming to take a summons to the Governor, under a flag of truce, calling on him to surrender the merchant vessels within three hours. The Governor refused, but said that a final answer would be sent before the time specified in my letter. At 3.30 P.M., Captain Cumming, who had informed me that there was a considerable body of troops in the town, again landed to receive the answer—a letter—which I enclose. On ascertaining its contents I took the armed boats of both ships, with Captain Cumming in command of those of the Conflict, into the river. With the exception of one or two, the soldiers kept out of sight, and not a shot was fired ; it was well for us that they did so, as we pulled up the creek, which was fifty yards broad for one and a half miles before arriving at the shipping. I desired the authorities to point out the Russian vessels, of which I then directed Captain Cumming and Lieutenants Wodehouse and Hore to take possession. I detained a small steamer (originally Russian, now owned by a Dane), got her steam up, and kept her as a refuge for the boats in case of an attack.

The magistrate stated that they were induced to yield thus submissively, from their being convinced that if they were to overpower us, a large force would be sent, and the town perhaps destroyed.

The boats captured eight merchant vessels all new and well found, but dismantled, sails unrent, some scuttled and a-ground, nevertheless they were all brought out and taken in tow by the Amphion and Conflict, before 9 P.M.

The private property found on board was restored to the owners on application for it.

Although I had the opportunity of destroying a large amount of the enemy's property, such as their houses, vessels on the stocks, and vessels repairing, I did not consider it right to do so, as the troops had left the town so pitifully to its fate, and the people had assisted in getting the vessels out, by opening the bridge, &c., which would have detained us some considerable time had we been obliged to blow it up, though I was prepared to do so.

The fact of the town of Libau containing 10,000 inhabitants, and formed by nature with unusual facilities for defence, being temporarily taken possession of by 130 men without a shot being fired, I attribute almost entirely to the judicious conduct of Captain Cumming during his conference with the magistrates, when he landed with a flag of truce.

I have great pleasure in testifying to the exemplary behaviour of all the officers, seamen, and marines, employed on this service.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) A. COOPER KEY, Captain.

To Vice-Admiral Sir Charles Napier,
Commander-in-Chief.

Sub-Enclosure No. 1, in Sir Charles Napier's Letter, No. 107.

Her Majesty's Ship Amphion, off Libau, May 17, 1854.

SIR,

THE duty of summoning you to surrender the merchant vessels in the port of Libau, has fallen upon me.

I would willingly spare the town and the lives of the inhabitants; if, therefore, the steam-vessel, and all the Russian merchant vessels in the port (above and below the bridge,) are sent out in their present condition, within three hours after the receipt of this letter, not a shot shall be fired. The men bringing them out shall be landed under a flag of truce.

If, at the expiration of that time, this demand is not complied with, the consequences rest with you. In which case I trust that you will cause the women and children to leave the town, and the invalids to be removed to some conspicuous building, which, if indicated by a flag, will be respected.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) A. COOPER KEY,
Captain and Senior Officer.

His Excellency the Governor of Libau.

Sub-Enclosure No. 2, in Sir Charles Napier's Letter, No. 107.

SIR, Town Hall, Libau, May 17, 1854.

THE Notification addressed by Her Britannic Majesty's Commander of the Amphion, to deliver up the Russian merchant vessels in the port of Libau, has been received by the magistrates of this town, there being no Military or Civil Governor.

The town of Libau being in a defenceless state has no power to resist the demand.

The peaceable inhabitants are compelled to submit themselves to any demands put to them; they expect, however, that Her Britannic Majesty's power will only undertake that which is consistent with humanity and honour.

The ships demanded cannot, and will not, be refused; but it is entirely impossible to deliver them in the time prescribed, as the most of them are unrigged and lying on a swampy ground.

Under these circumstances the magistrates can only reply that Her Majesty's Commander should convince himself of the impossibility, and resolve in which way the said merchant vessels are to be brought out of harbour.

Trusting that meantime no hostilities will be undertaken against the town and its inhabitants.

I have, &c.,

In the name of the Magistrates of Libau,
the presiding Burgomaster.

(Signed) FRED'OR GRENTHER.

Enclosure No. 2, in Sir Charles Napier's Letter, No. 107.

*Duke of Wellington, Hango Bay,
May 23, 1854.*

SIR,

I HAVE received your letter giving an account of the surrender of the town of Libau, and the delivery of the shipping in that port; and I much approve of the prompt and judicious steps you took to accomplish this, and the humanity you shewed in not injuring the town.

I am, &c.,

Vice-Admiral and Commander-in-Chief.
