And whereas Her Majesty hath power and jurisdiction in the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, and the same, or certain parts thereof, hath heretofore been exercised by Her Majesty's Ambassadors, Consuls, and other officers resident within the said dominions. And whereas the right of levying hospital duties on British and Ionian merchant vessels entering the ports of the Levant, was within the powers conferred upon the late Levant Company by its Charter. And whereas, under and by virtue of certain rules and regulations duly made and issued by the authority of the late Levant Company, and before the surrender of the Charter of the said Company in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, a certain tonnage rate or duty was imposed and levied upon all British and Ionian merchant vessels entering the port of Smyrna, by the British Consul at that port, for the maintenance and support of the Sick Seamen's Hospital there. And whereas the said tonnage rate or duty has ever since continued to be so levied and applied as aforesaid. And whereas, under and by virtue of a certain Statute made and passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, entitled "An Act to repeal certain Acts relating to the Governor and Company of Merchants of England trading to the Levant Seas, and the duties payable to them, and to authorize the transfer and disposal of the possessions and property of the said Governor and Company for the Public

And whereas the right of levying hospital dues on ships trading to the Levant was one of the rights theretofore exercised by the said Company and its Consuls, and the same may now be lawfully exercised and performed by Her Majesty's Consuls in and throughout the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte. And whereas it is expedient to provide for the establishment, support, and maintenance of British hospitals for sick seamen coming in British or Ionian merchant vessels within the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte.

Now therefore, under and by virtue, and in pursuance of the premises, and of the said recited Acts of Parliament, and of all or any power, jurisdiction, or authority whatsoever, thereby or otherwise vested in or belonging to Her Majesty in this behalf, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Consuls residing within the said dominions, and they are hereby authorized, to levy upon all British or Ionian merchant vessels which may enter any of the ports within their respective jurisdictions, a tonnage duty or dues, not exceeding one penny per ton on each vessel; and they are hereby authorized, directed, and required to apply all the said duty or dues, and all monies raised or received by them on account thereof, for and towards the establishment, maintenance, and support of British hospitals for sick seamen coming in British or Ionian vessels within the said dominions. And Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the like advice, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that it shall be lawful for Her Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, from time to time, by any writing under his hand, to make and issue, and he is hereby authorized to make and issue, any such rules and regulations as to him may seem fit, with regard to the manner in which the monies which may be so levied or received, as aforesaid, by the said Consuls, shall be applied or expended for the establishment, maintenance, or support of such Hospitals as aforesaid; and Her Majesty is further pleased to order, and it is hereby further ordered, that it shall be lawful for any such Secretary of State as aforesaid, from time to time, by any rule, regulation, or order in writing under his hand, to provide for the exempting any British or Ionian merchant vessel which may, within any period therein set forth, have once paid the said tonnage duty or dues, from all or any other or additional or subsequent payment or liability in respect thereof; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is further pleased to order, and it is hereby further ordered, that it shall be lawful for any such Secretary of State as aforesaid, and he is hereby authorized from time to time by any such rule, regulation, or order in writing under his hand, to alter and vary the rate or amount of the tonnage duty or dues so to be levied or paid as aforesaid, or the manner of levying or paying, or receiving the same; provided always that no such alteration or variation shall extend or operate so as to increase or exceed the aforesaid rate or amount of tonnage duty or dues,—that is to say, one penny per ton upon each vessel; and it is hereby further ordered that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, by any writing under his hand, from time to time to limit the extent to which any Consul-General, Consul, or Vice-Consul shall exercise jurisdiction over British subjects within the dominions of the Sublime Ottoman Porte, in the matter of, or in any thing relating to the said tonnage duty or dues, any thing in the present Order contained notwithstanding; and Her Majesty is, by and with the like advice and consent, pleased further to order, and it is hereby further ordered, that for the purposes of this Order the words British merchant vessel or vessels, and British ship or ships, shall be taken and deemed to include all or any merchant ship or vessel being the property of any subject of Her Majesty.

And the Right Honourable the Earl of Clarendon, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
