WHITEHALL, August 12, 1854.

THE following ADDRESS was presented to the QUEEN on Her Majesty's Visit to the Isle of Alderney; and Her Majesty was pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

To The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and dutiful Address of the Court, Clergy, and Douzainiers of your Majesty's Island of Alderney.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the undersigned, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, desire most humbly and respectfully to approach your Majesty with their and the inhabitants' heartfelt satisfaction at your Majesty's visit to this Island.

Separated as we are from the rest of our Countrymen, the only remains, with the neighbouring Islands, of your Majesty's royal predecessors' Norman subjects, who from generation to generation have kept inviolate their devoted loyalty to your Majesty's Crown and Government,

Your Majesty's gracious visit to these shores enables the Inhabitants to renew in person their ardent loyalty, homage, and devotion to your Majesty's sacred Person.

Most sincerely do we implore the Almighty Disposer of events to bless your Majesty with a continued, long, and prosperous life, to reign over a happy and devoted people.

Alderney, 8th August 1854.
