WAR-OFFICE, December 2, 1854.

THE Right Honourable Sidney Herbert, M.P., the Secretary-at-War, has received no List of Casualties amongst the Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates in the Forces under the command of Field-Marshal the Lord Raglan, G.C.B., at the Battle of Inkerman; and it appears that no such Lists can be forwarded to England until after the next or following Mail, in consequence of the great difficulty existing in obtaining complete and corrected Lists from the several Regiments of the Army in the Crimea.

GENERAL ORDER.

Horse Guards, November 22, 1854.

The Queen having been pleased to command that a Medal shall be prepared to commemorate the success of Her Majesty's Forces in the wars in which they were engaged against the Kaffirs in the years 1834-5, 1846-7, and in the course of the period between the 24th December 1850 and the 6th February 1853; and to direct that one of the said Medals shall be conferred on every surviving Officer, Non-commissioned Officer, and Soldier, of the regular forces,—including the Officers of the Staff, and the Officers and Men of the Royal Artillery, and Royal Engineers, and Sappers and Miners, who actually served in the field against the enemy in South Africa, at the periods alluded to,—excluding those who may have been dismissed for subsequent misconduct, or who have deserted and are absent;—

The General Commanding-in-Chief desires that all claims for the Medal in question may be addressed to the Secretary to the Board of General Officers, Whitehall Yard, London.

Officers who served on the Staff of the Army,—as well as those now on half-pay, or who may have retired from the Service by the sale of their Commissions,—are to address their applications direct to the Board.

The claims of Regimental Officers, Non-commissioned Officers, and Soldiers, now serving, are to be forwarded through their respective Commanding Officers; and Pensioners, and Men who may have purchased their discharge, are to transmit their applications to the Board (the former through the Staff Officers of Pensioners), duly certified, according to the annexed form.

By Command of the Right Honourable

GENERAL VISCOUNT HARDINGE,
 Commanding-in-Chief.

G. A. WETHERALL,
 Deputy-Adjutant-General.

At the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 30th day of November 1854,

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

The Lords of the Council having taken into consideration the expediency of prohibiting the exportation of certain additional articles capable of being converted into or made useful in increasing the quantity of Military and Naval Stores (in pursuance of Her Majesty's Proclamation of the eighteenth February one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four), are pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Officers of Her Majesty's Customs do hereafter prevent the exportation of Lead and of Nitrate of Soda, and likewise of Blue Lias, Portland Cement, or any article commonly used in the manufacture of Marine Cement, to any place in Europe north of Dunkirk, and that the Officers of Her Majesty's Customs do permit the export of the articles herein mentioned to any other part of the World upon taking from the persons exporting the same, a bond that they shall be landed and entered at the port of destination:

Whereof the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury and the Commissioners of Customs, and all other persons whom it may concern, are to take notice and govern themselves accordingly.
 C. C. GREVILLE.

WHITEHALL, November 29, 1854.

The Queen has been pleased to present the Reverend John Mitchell to the church and parish of St Fergus, in the presbytery of Deer, and county of Aberdeen, vacant by the death of the Reverend James Robertson, late Minister thereof.

Master of the Horse's Office, November 15, 1854.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to appoint John Richard Groves, Esq. late Major of the Essex Rifles, to be Crown Equerry, Secretary to the Master of the Horse, and Superintendent of the Royal Stables.
