*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
January 2, 1855.*

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Minister at Madrid, inclosing copy of a Notice to Mariners (a translation of which is subjoined,) issued by the Spanish Government, relative to a new Light-house on Cape San Antonio, in the province of Alicante.

Hydrographical Office.
NOTICE TO MARINERS.
(Translation.)

Light-houses on the Coast of Spain.

The Naval Department has received from the Ministry of Public Works, and has communicated to this Office, for its publication, a notice relative to the situation of a new Light-house erected on the coasts of the Spanish Peninsula by the Corps of Engineers of Roads, Canals, and Ports, the description of which is as follows:—

MEDITERRANEAN SEA.

Light-house on Cape San Antonio (Province of Alicante.)

From the 1st of January 1855, a new Light-house, erected on the old tower of Cape "San Antonio," will be lighted every night from sunset to sun-rise; the situation of this light is in 38° 48' 31" N. latitude, and 6° 24' 42" E. longitude, from the meridian of the Naval Observatory of "Sn. Fernando."

Its apparatus is of the second catadioptrical order, with a natural light eclipsed every half a minute. The elevation of the light above the level of the sea is of 625·4 feet, and its average range will be of 19 miles, though it will be visible from a greater or minor distance according to the state of the atmosphere and the elevation of the observer.
