NOTICE TO MARINERS.

THE Minister of Marine ad interim gives notice that in the Seagat of Goedereede, nearly in the middle of the navigable channel, at the height between the second and third black buoys, a brig is sunk, the masts of which are above water, in the following bearings:—

The Steeple of Ouddorp, in the wooden mast beacon on the sand hills of Goedereede, the steeple of Goedereede bearing S.E. to S. and the stone beacon of Goedereede S. to W. by unadjusted compass; in 54 palms' depth at low water. The needful measures have been taken, if at a later period the masts do not sufficiently indicate the spot, to place there a wreck buoy, bearing a flag.

The Secretary-General,
(Signed) MULLER.
