FRIDAY, MARCH 2, 1855.

By The QUEEN.

A PROCLAMATION,

For a Day of Solemn Fast, Humiliation, and Prayer in Scotland.

VICTORIA, R.

WE, taking into Our most serious consideration the just and necessary War in which We are engaged, and putting Our trust in Almighty God that He will graciously bless Our arms, both by sea and land, have resolved, and do, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, hereby command, that a Public Day of Solemn Fast, Humiliation, and Prayer be observed throughout that part of Our Kingdom of Great Britain called Scotland, on Wednesday the twenty-first day of March next, that so both We and Our people may humble Ourselves before Almighty God, in order to obtain pardon of Our sins, and in the most devout and solemn manner send up Our Prayers and Supplications to the Divine Majesty for imploring His Blessing and Assistance on Our arms for the Restoration of Peace to Us and Our Dominions : and We do strictly charge and command, that the said day be reverently and devoutly observed by all Our loving Subjects in Scotland, as they tender the favour of Almighty God, and would avoid his Wrath and Indignation : Our will is, therefore, and We charge, that, this Our Proclamation seen, ye forthwith proceed to the Market Cross of Edinburgh, and all other places needful, and there, in Our name and authority, make publication hereof, that none pretend ignorance : And our will and pleasure is, that Our Solicitor do cause printed copies hereof to be sent to the Sheriffs of the several Shires, Stewarts of Stewartries, and Bailiffs of Regalities, and their clerks, whom We ordain to see the same published ; and We do appoint them to send copies hereof to the several Parish Churches within their bounds, that, upon the Lord's day immediately preceding the day above mentioned, the same may be published and read from the pulpits, immediately after Divine Service.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this twenty-eighth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and in the eighteenth year of Our reign.

GOD save The QUEEN.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of February 1855,
PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

This day the Right Honourable Sir George Cornwall Lewis, Baronet, was by Her Majesty's command sworn of Her Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

Her Majesty in Council was this day pleased to declare the Right Honourable George William Frederick, Earl of Carlisle, Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, Lieutenant-General and General-Governor of that part of the United Kingdom, called Ireland.

Her Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable Montagu, Earl of Abingdon, to be Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of the County of Berks, his Lordship this day took the oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, instead of the oaths of allegiance and supremacy.

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 28th day of February 1855,
PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Her Majesty in Council was this day pleased to appoint the Right Honourable the Lord President of the Council for the time being; the Most Noble the Duke of Argyll, Lord Keeper of the Privy Seal; the Most Honourable the Marquis of Lansdowne; the Right Honourable John Russell (commonly called Lord John Russell), one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; the Right Honourable Viscount Palmerston, First Lord Commissioner of Her Majesty's Treasury; the Right Honourable Viscount Canning, Her Majesty's Postmaster-General; the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Baronet, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and the Right Honourable Sir George Cornwall Lewis, Baronet, Chancellor and Under Treasurer of Her Majesty's Exchequer,—to be a Committee of Council to superintend the application of any sums of money voted by Parliament for the purpose of promoting Public Education.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of February 1855,
PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Her Majesty in Council was this day pleased to make the following Amendment on the Roll of Sheriffs.

Merionethshire, Charles Ponsonby Tottenham, of Carrogissa, Esquire, made Charles John Tottenham, of Berwyn House, near Llangollen, in the county of Denbigh, Esquire.

LORD CHAMBERLAIN'S OFFICE,

February 26, 1855.

NOTICE is Hereby Given, that Her Majesty will hold Levees at St James's-Palace, on the following days, at Two o'Clock:—

Wednesday the 7th of March next.

Wednesday the 14th of March next.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEES AT ST JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who purpose to attend Her Majesty's Levees at St James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in attendance in the Ante-Room, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to Her Majesty.

Those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to present them, should be delivered at the Lord Chamberlain's Office before twelve o'clock on the Monday previous to each Levee, or upon any earlier day between the hours of eleven and four, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation; it being Her Majesty's command that no presentation shall be made at the Levees but in conformity with the above Regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to the Queen.

The State Apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half-past one o'clock.

Notice is Hereby Given, that all persons having petitions or addresses to present to Her Majesty at the Levees, are to send a card (having on it their names, a statement of the object of such Petitions or Addresses, and the names of the persons from whom they come,) to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, before twelve o'clock on the Monday previous to each Levee; and that two other cards, having on them precisely what is written upon that sent to the Lord Chamberlain's Office, are to be taken to the Levees; one of the two cards to be delivered to the Page in the Ante-Room, and the other to the Lord Chamberlain, who will read its contents to Her Majesty; and on these occasions, no other statement is to be addressed to Her Majesty.

A Deputation to present an Address is not to exceed four persons.

WAR DEPARTMENT, February 27, 1855.

LORD PANMURE has this day received a Despatch and its Enclosures, of which the following are Copies, addressed to His Grace the Duke of Newcastle, by Field-Marshal the Lord Raglan, G.C.B.

Before Sevastopol,

February 13, 1855.

MY LORD DUKE,

I MENTIONED to your Grace in my Despatch of the 10th instant, that there had been a return of bad weather, and that the Country was again saturated with wet.

On Sunday it rained or snowed from morning till night, and the wind was very high, and though it was fine yesterday, still the ground was in a worse state than I had seen it for some time.

The Enemy has made no movement.

Major-General Jones, Royal Engineers, arrived a few days ago, and is busily engaged in making himself acquainted with the position occupied by both Armies.

Lieutenant-General Sir George Brown has also returned, and I have great satisfaction in adding, in excellent health. His wound is healed, and with the exception of not having entirely regained the full use of his elbow, he no longer suffers any inconvenience from it.

He will resume the command of his Division without loss of time.

I enclose the Return of the Casualties to the 11th instant. I have, &c., RAGLAN.

His Grace the Duke of Newcastle,
&c. &c. &c.

FOREIGN-OFFICE, February 24, 1855.

The Queen has been pleased to approve of Mr Herman Dirs Mertens as Consul at Margate, and of Mr V. Weber as Consul at Ramsgate and Deal, for the King of the Belgians.

DOWNING-STREET, February 26, 1855.

The Queen has been pleased to appoint Sir Henry George Ward, K.G.C. St M. and St G., now Her Majesty's Lord High Commissioner for the United States of the Ionian Islands, to be Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Island of Ceylon and its dependencies.

ST JAMES'S PALACE, February 26, 1855.

The Duke of Cambridge has been pleased to appoint Staff-Surgeon James B. Gibson, Esq. M.D., to be Surgeon to His Royal Highness.

The Duke of Cambridge has also appointed the Reverend Robert Halpin to be one of His Royal Highness' Chaplains.

DUBLIN CASTLE, February 22, 1855.

This day His Excellency the Grand Master, by Her Majesty's Command, held a Chapter of the Most Illustrious Order of Saint Patrick.

The following Knights Companions, in their Mantles, Stars, and Collars, assembled in the Entree Room, viz :—

The Earl of Howth,
The Marquess of Headfort,
The Earl of Milltown,
Lord Farnham,

attended by the following Officers of the Order, viz :—

The Most Rev. the Archbishop of Dublin,
the Chancellor ;
The Hon. and Very Rev. the Dean of Saint Patrick's, the Registrar ;
Sir William Leeson, Genealogist ;
Colonel Sir George Morris, Usher of the Black Rod ;
Sir Bernard Burke, Ulster King of Arms, and Knight Attendant on the Order ; Molyneux Betham, Esq. Cork Herald ; and Sheffield Betham, Esq. Dublin Herald.

At Twelve o'Clock the Knights were called over by Ulster, and proceeded to the presence of the Grand Master, who was seated in the Chair of State in the Presence Chamber, and the Knights Companions took their respective seats at the table according to their Stalls.

His Excellency then commanded Ulster to read Her Majesty's Letter, authorizing the Chapter to be held, which being done,

Lowry Vesey Townley-Balfour, Esq. was introduced by Ulster King of Arms, and having made and subscribed the necessary Declaration, was invested with the Ribband and Badge of Secretary of the Most Illustrious Order of St Patrick.

Lord Baron Cremorne was then introduced by the Gentleman Usher and Ulster King of Arms, and, kneeling, received the honour of Knighthood, and retired.

The Earl of Gosford was in like manner introduced by the Gentleman Usher and Ulster King of Arms, and, kneeling, received the honour of Knighthood, and retired.

By command of the Grand Master, the two Junior Knights present then proceeded to the door of the Chapter-Room, and (Ulster bearing the insignia of the Order before them on a velvet cushion) conducted the Lord Cremorne to the right of the Chair of State, where His Lordship made and subscribed the Declaration appointed by the Statutes, and His Excellency the Grand Master, assisted by the two Senior Knights Companions present, put the Ribband and Badge over the Baron's right shoulder, pronouncing the Admonition directed by the Statutes, after which the Baron was congratulated by His Excellency and the Knights present, and took his seat at the table.

The Earl of Gosford was, in like manner, conducted by the two Junior Knights present to the right of the Chair of State, where His Lordship made and subscribed the Declaration appointed by the Statutes, and His Excellency the Grand Master, assisted by the two Senior Knights Companions present, put the Ribband and Badge over the Earl's right shoulder, pronouncing the Admonition directed by the Statutes, after which the Earl was congratulated by His Excellency and the Knights present, and took his seat at the table.

Ulster, then, by His Excellency's command, called over the names of the Knights Companions, who each rose from his seat on the pronunciation of his name, and the Chapter broke up.

J. BERNARD BURKE, Ulster.
