ADMIRALTY, March 8, 1855.

DESPATCHES, of which the following are Copies, have been received from Rear-Admiral Sir Edmund Lyons, Bart., G.C.B., Commander-in-Chief of Her Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Mediterranean and Black Sea.

UNSUCCESSFUL ATTACK BY THE RUSSIANS ON EUPATORIA.

Royal Albert, off Sevastopol, February 20, 1855.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to enclose, for the information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, copies of two letters which I have received from Captain Hastings, of the Curaçoa, Senior Officer at Eupatoria, reporting an unsuccessful attack made upon that place, at daybreak, on the 17th instant, by a large Russian force of cavalry, artillery, and infantry, and enclosing a letter from Omar Pasha, expressing warm acknowledgments for the great services rendered by Her Majesty's ships Curaçoa, Valorous, Furious, and Viper, as well as his Highness' thanks for the reinforcements of steamers which I had sent to him on hearing that the enemy was still in force in his neighbourhood.

2. Captain Hastings appears to have conducted his share of the defence with his accustomed zeal and ability, and to have been well and effectively seconded by Captains Buckle and Loring, and Lieutenant Brock, and the officers, seamen, and marines of all Her Majesty's ships present on that occasion.

3. Colonel Simmons, of the Royal Engineers, who is attached to Omar Pasha's Staff, estimates the attacking force at 40,000 of all arms, and he states that as many as sixty guns, some of them 32-pounders, played upon the place at one time.

4. I understand that at nine o'clock the enemy's infantry formed under the shelter of a wall, at 350 yards from the place, and advanced to the attack, but were repulsed with considerable loss, and soon afterwards retired, leaving nearly two hundred dead on the nearest spot, and removing the rest of their dead from the more distant parts of the field.

5. Omar Pasha's army appears, from the latest and most authentic accounts, to have had nearly a hundred men killed, and about two hundred and fifty wounded, and to have had eighty artillery horses killed, and some guns much damaged.

6. The Banshee has brought me a report from Captain Hastings up to noon yesterday, at which time the enemy remained encamped about five miles from Eupatoria, with his left leaning on the Putrid Lake Sasik; whilst Omar Pasha, with the garrison, having been reinforced after the battle by further Turkish Troops brought over from Varna in British transports, as well as by the Dauntless, Curlew, Arrow, and Lyux, sent by me from hence, and by two French steamers sent by Admiral Bruat, awaited an attack with confidence in a favourable result.

I am, &c.

ED. LYONS,

Rear-Admiral and Commander-in-Chief.

To the Secretary of the Admiralty,
London.

Enclosure No. 1.

Her Majesty's Ship Curaçoa, Eupatoria, February 17, 1855.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to acquaint your Excellency that this morning, about 6.30 A.M., the Russians in considerable force attacked the Turkish troops which are encamped at this place under the command of his Highness Omar Pasha.

The ships under my command at this anchorage, which are named in the margin,* immediately proceeded under steam to close the flanking position of the Turkish entrenchments,—Valorous and Viper taking the left flank, and Curaçoa and Furious the right. About half an hour after the commencement of the attack, I received from his Highness Omar Pasha, a request to strengthen as much as possible the right flank, as the enemy were pressing their attack upon that point.

The Viper was immediately recalled, and from her light draught of water was enabled to effect good service, as also the three other ships in their respective positions.

The conduct of the captains, officers, seamen, and marines under my command on this occasion, deserves your Excellency's approbation.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) G. F. HASTINGS,

Captain.

* Her Majesty's ships Valorous, Furious, and Viper.

P.S.—The French and Turkish vessels also did good service in their respective positions, which they took up.

*His Excellency Rear-Admiral Sir
Edmund Lyons, Bart., G.C.B.,
K.C.H., &c., &c., &c.*

Enclosure No. 2.

*Her Majesty's ship Curaçoa,
Eupatoria, February 18, 1855.*

SIR,
I HAVE the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your memorandum of yesterday's date, relative to my report of the Russians having attacked this place on the 17th instant, as communicated by the steam transport Queen of the South, and beg to inform you that the reinforcement of vessels mentioned therein have duly arrived here, and that I immediately informed his Highness Omar Pasha of the reinforcement being sent to his support, who begged me to offer to your Excellency his warmest thanks.

In the late attack the Turks suffered a loss of 88 men killed, 250 wounded, and 78 horses killed; the loss on the part of the Russians cannot be ascertained.

No further attack has been made; but the Russians still remain in force about five miles from Eupatoria, and large reinforcements, both of men and waggons, are daily arriving from the road to Simferopol. If the Arrow's services could be spared, she would be of great assistance here.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) G. F. HASTINGS,
Captain.

*His Excellency Rear-Admiral Sir
Edmund Lyons, Bart., G.C.B.,
K.C.H., &c., &c.*

Enclosure No. 3.

Quartier-Général d'Eupatoria, 17 Février, 1855.

MONSIEUR LE CAPITAINE,

PENDANT l'attaque que les Russes ont tentée ce matin sur la ville d'Eupatoria avec des forces considérables, l'escadre de la marine de Sa Majesté Britannique qui se trouvait dans la rade sous votre commandement, a beaucoup contribué par les dispositions que vous avez prises, par leur prompte exécution et par la justesse du tir de votre artillerie, à rendre infructueux les efforts de l'ennemi et à assurer le succès de la journée.

En vous transmettant mes vives remerciements je vous prie d'être auprès de vos officiers et marins l'interprète de mes sentiments d'estime et de reconnaissance.

Recevez, Monsieur le Capitaine, les assurances de ma considération très-distinguée.

Le Généralissime de l'armée Ottomane.

(Signé) OMER.

Enclosure No. 1.

*Camp, Naval Brigade,
February 11, 1855.*

SIR,
IN continuation of our proceedings, I have the honour to inform you that we have been employed this week in carrying shot into the batteries. The enemy continues augmenting his defences and firing on our working parties during the day. Several ineffectual sorties have been made on the French during the past week.

I have also been getting up slops and provisions, and have a supply for seven days of the latter in our store tents.

I have much pleasure in informing you of the healthy state of the brigade, having only 44 in the sick list, no serious cases, and victualling 998.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) S. LUSHINGTON,
Captain, Commanding Naval Brigade.

Rear-Admiral Sir Edmd. Lyons, G.C.B., Commander-in-Chief.

Enclosure No. 2.

*Camp, Naval Brigade,
February 18, 1855.*

SIR,
I HAVE the honour to inform you that the enemy still continues strengthening his works. I am happy to say that there have been no casualties this week, and that the brigade is remarkably healthy. We have only 27 men in the sick list, victualling 999 men and officers. All symptoms of scurvy have disappeared; and I am informed by the medical officer in charge, that he considers this as principally owing to the liberal supply of oranges issued to the brigade.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) S. LUSHINGTON,
Captain, Commanding Naval Brigade.

*Rear-Admiral Sir Edmund
Lyons, Bart., G.C.B., &c., &c., &c.*

*Royal Albert, off Sevastopol,
February 24, 1855.*

SIR,
I HAVE the honour to report, for the information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that no attack has taken place at Eupatoria since that of the 17th inst., which, as their Lordships will perceive by the enclosed copy of a letter from Colonel Simmons to me, was more serious than was at first supposed. Her Majesty's ships are in eligible positions for assisting in the repulse of any future attack.

The weather, which for the last few days has been very severe, is now remarkably fine.

I am, &c.,

(Signed) E. LYONS,
Rear-Admiral and Commander-in-Chief.

OCCURRENCES IN NAVAL BRIGADE.

*Royal Albert, off Sevastopol,
February 20, 1855.*

IN continuation of my letter of the 7th instant, No. 103, I enclose, for the information of the Lords

Enclosure No. 1.

Eupatoria, February 20, 1855.
9 P. M.

SIR,

THE bearer is an Aide-de-Camp of the Seraskier, bearing Despatches from Omer Pasha to his Government.

His Highness would be much obliged to you if you would kindly order him a passage to Constantinople by the first opportunity.

The position is much stronger here than it was; in fact, I should say doubly so, and nearly twice as many guns mounted as on the 17th.

That affair was pretty sharp, and the Russians lost a great many men; we have interred 453, and there can be no doubt they carried off and buried many more who were killed at long ranges by our artillery.

They also left nearly 300 dead horses on the field.

Our loss was 87 killed, 277 wounded, Turks; 4 killed and 9 wounded, French; and 13 killed, 11 wounded, of the population; besides 79 horses killed and 18 wounded. Our field battery had 19 men (Turks) killed, and every gun (6) disabled.

The Turks behaved very well. Selim Pasha, the Egyptian, who was killed, was a great loss, but his place is well supplied by Suliman Pasha, who was wounded.

Omer Pasha is most gratified for the promptitude with which you sent up ships after hearing of the attack. The exertions of the officers and men of your fleet in disembarking troops, &c., here, are beyond all praise; but, unfortunately, the weather during the last week or ten days has not been propitious, and consequently transports have been detained longer than they otherwise would.

I am, &amp;c.,

(Signed) J. N. SIMMONS,
Royal Engineers,
attached to Omer Pasha's Staff.
