

to extend to any letters posted in or addressed to France, or any Foreign Country through France, and transmitted between France or Foreign Countries (through France) and Sierra Leone or Turk's Island; all which last-mentioned letters shall be charged and chargeable with the same rates of postage as if this Warrant had not been signed.

And we further direct that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to annul, prejudice, or affect any of the exemptions and privileges granted by or under the said recited Act, or by or under any other Acts of Parliament relating to the Post-Office, and that all such exemptions and privileges shall remain in full force.

And we further direct that the term "by the Post," used in this Warrant, shall, as to the sea conveyance, include the conveyance by any British, or Colonial, or Foreign packet-boat, (packet-boats belonging to, or employed by, or under the Government or Post-Office of the United States of America, and French Mediterranean packet-boats excepted,) and also the sea conveyance by any private ship.

And we further direct that this Warrant shall come into operation on the 1st day of June 1855.

Provided lastly, and we hereby declare and direct that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any two of them, by Warrant under their hands, at any time hereafter to alter or repeal any of the rates hereby altered, or the regulations hereby made, and to make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time to appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.
