WHITEHALL, June 7, 1855.

THE following Addresses of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland having been transmitted by Robert Montgomery, Lord Belhaven, Her Majesty's Commissioner, to the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, have been by him presented to the Queen; which Addresses Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

We, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, now convened as the representatives of the several Presbyteries, Royal Burghs, and Universities in Scotland, have received with profound respect and gratitude your Majesty's gracious letter addressed to this General Assembly.

In the renewed assurance of your Majesty's affectionate and undiminished regard for this National Church, and in the expressed resolution to maintain this Ecclesiastical Establishment in the possession of its ancient rights and privileges, we recognise a solemn pledge on which we rely with that entire confidence which is due from subjects to a Sovereign, whose determination it is to make the long established Laws and Constitution of the State the unvarying and inviolable rule of her Government.

We are also cheered and encouraged, in the labours of our several vocations, by the satisfaction which your Majesty has been pleased to express with the frequent proofs given by former Assemblies of anxiety to promote the interests of true religion and piety; and we earnestly pray that our deliberations may, through the aid of Divine Grace, contribute effectually to the present happiness and the everlasting welfare of the people committed to our charge.

We are seriously impressed by the momentous considerations to which your Majesty has called our attention, as incitements to the zealous performance of our sacred functions at a time when the Sovereign and the subjects have equal cause to implore the protection and counsel of the Almighty God in the war which the general voice of the Nation has pronounced to be just and necessary. Participating fully in the sympathy which your Majesty feels with the suffering inevitably resulting from war, we at the same time cherish the most earnest desire that the sacrifices so cheerfully made by the people may be the means, under the guidance of Providence, for obtaining an honourable and lasting peace.

Your Majesty's Royal Warrant for two thousand pounds, to be applied to the Reformation of the Highlands and Islands of Scotland, has been most gratefully received; and it shall be our earnest study so to distribute this substantial boon as to effect the pious and benevolent purposes for the accomplishment of which it has been so liberally bestowed.

The reappointment of the Right Honourable Lord Belhaven as your Majesty's representative in this General Assembly, is regarded by us as a special proof of your royal favour, as we have hitherto found that distinguished nobleman to be a firm and ardent friend of this National Church, and in all respects highly entitled to our respect and confidence.

That the Lord God Almighty, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, may, in the good pleasure of His unspeakable goodness, multiply to our beloved Queen the choicest blessings of the present life, with the higher glories and felicities of the life everlasting,—that the same rich and unfading benefactions may be abundantly vouchsafed to the Prince Albert, to the Prince of Wales, and to all the Royal Family,—that the vast population of the British Empire, now living under the mild and beneficent rule of a Sovereign so justly endeared to every loyal and patriotic heart, may, through the ages to come, enjoy the same inestimable privileges; and that the time may soon arrive when the people of every land, rejoicing in the light of the Gospel, shall universally be actuated by the pure, holy, and beneficent principles of Christian truth which alone can purify their souls from the influence of every hostile and hateful passion, and make them meet for the enjoyment of the incorruptible inheritance of heavenly places in Christ, is the earnest prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful, dutiful, and loyal subjects,

The Ministers and Elders met in the National Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and at our appointment, by

ANDREW BELL, Moderator.

Edinburgh, May 26, 1855.

To The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

We, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, convened in General Assembly, embrace the opportunity afforded by our meeting to approach the Throne with the humble expression of our warm attachment to your Majesty's person, and family, and Government.

We beg to convey to your Majesty the assurance of our heartfelt sympathy in the present trying and anxious state of the Nation over which your Majesty rules, as still engaged in a protracted war with an enemy of great power and resources, as well as unbounded ambition.

While, as subjects of the Prince of Peace, we regard war as a great evil, and devoutly recognize in it the chastisement of a Holy and Righteous God, yet we know that He can overrule it for good; and we are fully persuaded that the present contest has been engaged in by your Majesty for just ends, such as we trust the just King and Judge of all may approve.

We deplore the many painful events that have occurred during its continuance, and the sacrifice that has been incurred of many lives, valuable to your Majesty and the Nation. While we recognize the hand of God in those events, and would strenuously inculcate on the flocks committed to our care resignation to the Divine Will under such inflictions, together with the exercise of repentance and amendment of heart and life, we would venture to express to your Majesty our congratulations on the patient endurance and dauntless bravery which have been displayed by your Majesty's Forces by sea and land, and the hope, which we are encouraged to entertain, that their efforts may ere long be crowned with triumphant success; and it is our earnest prayer, which we will not fail, along with our people, to prefer at the Throne of the Heavenly Grace, that, through your Majesty's wise administration, and the blessing of God on the councils and arms of your Majesty and your Allies, the ends for which the present war was undertaken may be speedily attained, and a safe, honourable, and lasting peace secured.

We unite in praying Him, who is King of Kings and Lord of Lords, to enrich your Majesty with every temporal and every spiritual blessing, and, in His goodness to this Nation, to spare your Majesty long to reign in righteousness and with true glory over a loyal, happy, and religious people.

Given at Edinburgh, this 26th day of May 1855, in name of the General Assembly.

ANDREW BELL, Moderator.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of "postage," power is given to the Commissioners Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British or Inland Postage, payable by law on the transmission by the Post of Foreign or Colonial letters or newspapers, or any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and to make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof.

And whereas it is expedient that further regulations should be made for the transmission by the Post of the letters hereinafter mentioned.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the power or authority in us for such purpose vested in and by the said Act, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant, under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners, by the authority of the Statute in that case made and provided, order and direct that on every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight, transmitted by the Post between any place in the United Kingdom and the Colony of Victoria (direct or through any Foreign Country), there shall be charged and taken in lieu of any rates of British postage now payable by law on such letters, a uniform British rate of one shilling, if the sea conveyance be by packet boat, and a uniform British rate of eightpence if the sea conveyance be by private ship.

And we direct that on every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight, transmitted by the Post between the Colony of Victoria and any other of Her Majesty's Colonies, or any Foreign Country through the United Kingdom (whether through any Foreign Country or not), there shall be charged and taken, in lieu of any rates of British postage now payable by law on such letters, the rates of British postage following; that is to say:—

For the conveyance of every such letter between the Colony of Victoria and any part of the United Kingdom, the sea conveyance being by packet-boat, a rate of one shilling; and, if the sea conveyance be by private ship, a rate of eightpence, and for the conveyance of every such letter between the port in the United Kingdom of the departure or arrival of the packet or ship conveying the same and the Colony or Foreign Country to or from which the same shall be forwarded, such a further or additional rate of postage as shall from time to time be charged and payable for British postage on letters posted or delivered at the port in the United Kingdom of the departure or arrival of the packet or ship conveying the same, and transmitted direct between such port and any such Colony or Foreign Country.

And we direct that on every letter transmitted as is mentioned in this Warrant, exceeding half an ounce in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, progressive and additional rates of postage as follows; that is to say:—

On every such letter exceeding half an ounce in weight, and not exceeding one ounce in weight, two rates of postage.

On every such letter exceeding one ounce and not exceeding two ounces in weight, four rates of postage.

On every such letter exceeding two ounces and not exceeding three ounces in weight, six rates of postage.

And on every such letter exceeding three ounces and not exceeding four ounces in weight, eight rates of postage.

And for every ounce in weight above the weight of four ounces there shall be charged and taken two additional rates of postage, and every fraction of an ounce above the weight of four ounces shall be charged as one additional ounce, and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this Warrant if not exceeding half an ounce in weight.

And we direct that in all cases in which any letter, in respect of which any rate of postage is chargeable by this Warrant, shall pass through a Foreign Country, any Foreign postage payable thereon shall be charged and paid thereon in addition to the British postage.

And we further direct that nothing in this Warrant contained shall in anywise prejudice or affect the privilege granted by the said recited Act in favour of petitions and addresses forwarded to Her Majesty by the Post, nor the privilege granted by the same Act to members of each House of Parliament, to receive by the Post petitions and addresses to Her Majesty, and petitions addressed to either House of Parliament, not exceeding thirty-two ounces in weight, exempt from postage, nor shall anything in this Warrant contained in anywise prejudice or affect the privilege which seamen and soldiers employed in Her Majesty's Service, and seamen and soldiers employed in the service of the East India Company, now by law enjoy, of sending and receiving by the Post letters not exceeding half an ounce in weight, subject to the regulations and restrictions in respect of the same.

And we further direct that nothing in this Warrant contained shall be deemed or construed to extend to any letters or packets posted in or addressed to France, or any Foreign Country through France, and transmitted between France or Foreign Countries through France, and the Colony of Victoria; all which last-mentioned letters and packets shall be charged and chargeable with the same rates of postage as if this Warrant had not been signed.

And we further direct that this Warrant shall come into operation on the twentieth day of this present month of June.

Provided lastly, and we hereby declare and direct that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, or any two of them, by Warrant under their hands, at any time hereafter, to alter or repeal any of the rates hereby altered, or the regulations hereby made, and to make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time to appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.
