WAR-DEPARTMENT, June 18, 1855.

LORD PANMURE has this day received two Despatches and their Enclosures, of which the following are Copies, addressed to His Lordship by Field-Marshal the Lord Raglan, G.C.B.—

Before Sevastopol,

MY LORD,

June 9, 1855.

I HAVE the great satisfaction of informing your Lordship that the assault which was made upon the Quarries in front of the Redan, from our advanced parallel in the right attack, on the evening of the 7th instant, was attended with perfect success, and that the brave men who achieved this advantage with a gallantry and determination that does them infinite honour, maintained themselves on the ground they had acquired, notwithstanding that during the night, and in the morning of yesterday, the enemy made repeated attempts to drive them out, each attempt ending in failure, although supported by large bodies of troops, and by heavy discharges of musketry, and every species of offensive missile.

The French on our right had shortly before moved out of their trenches and attacked the Ouvrages Blancs and the Mamelon. These they carried without the smallest check, and their leading column rushed forward and approached the Malakof Tower; but this it had not been in contemplation to assail, and the troops were brought back and finally established in the enemy's works, from which the latter did not succeed in expelling them, though the fire of musketry and cannon which was brought to bear upon them was tremendous.

I never saw anything more spirited and rapid than the advance of our Allies.

I am happy to say that the best feeling prevails between the two Armies, and each is proud of and confident in the gallantry and high military qualities of the other.

I apprized your Lordship, by Telegraph on the 6th, that our batteries re-opened that afternoon. The fire was kept up with the greatest energy until the day closed, when it was confined to vertical fire; but the next morning the guns resumed the work of destruction, and the effect was such that it was determined by General Pelissier and myself that the time had arrived for pushing our operations forward. Accordingly, soon after six o'clock on the evening of the 7th, the signal was given for the assault of the works I have enumerated, and the result was most triumphant.

The troops employed in storming the Quarries were composed of detachments from the Light and 2d Divisions, and at night they were supported by the 62d Regiment.

The command of these troops was entrusted to Colonel Shirley, of the 88th, who was acting as General Officer of the Trenches; and he was assisted in the arrangements and guided as to the points of attack and distribution of the troops by Lieutenant-Colonel Tylden, of the Royal Engineers, the directing engineer officer of the right attack.

Although nothing could be more spirited than the attack of the Quarries, or more creditable to every officer and man engaged in the operation, yet I cannot refrain from drawing your Lordship's especial attention to the energy and determination which they all displayed in maintaining and establishing themselves after their first success in them. They were repeatedly attacked during the night, and again soon after daylight on the 8th, and it was in resisting these repeated efforts on the part of the enemy that a great portion of the heavy loss the Army has to deplore was sustained.

The mode in which Colonel Shirley conducted this very arduous service, and carried out his orders, entitles him to my highest commendation. I have great pleasure in mentioning the following officers, who are stated to have distinguished themselves on the occasion, viz.—Lieutenant-Colonel Campbell, of the 90th, who commanded the storming party; Major Mills, Royal Fusiliers; Major Villiers, 47th; Major Armstrong, 49th,—who are all severely wounded; Lieutenant-Colonel Maxwell, of the 88th; Major Bayley, of the same regiment, who was unfortunately killed; Lieutenant-Colonel Grant, 49th; Major Simpson, of the 34th; Lieutenant-Colonel Johnstone, of the 33d; Major Herbert, of the 23d; Captain Lowry of the 47th; Captain Turner, of the 7th; Captain Lowndes, of the 47th; Captain Nason, of the 49th; Captain Le Marchant, of the 49th, who was wounded; Captain Wolseley,* 90th; and Lieutenants Chatfield and Eustace, of the 49th; and Palmer, Irby, and Waddilove, of the 47th; and Captain Hunter, 47th; and Lance-Corporal Quinn, 47th, who took a Russian Officer prisoner in the most gallant manner.

* This officer is also recommended by Colonel Tylden.

I also feel it my duty to solicit your Lordship's notice to the eminent services of Lieutenant-Colonel Tylden, of the Royal Engineers; he has been indefatigable in the discharge of his peculiar duties from the commencement of the siege, and he has always been at hand to aid in the repulse of the enemy when they have assaulted our trenches. He eulogizes the conduct of Captain Browne, of the Royal Engineers, Lieutenant Elphinstone, of the same corps, Lieutenant Anderson, 96th Foot, (Acting Engineer), who is wounded; and he laments the death of Lieutenant Lowry, R.E., who conducted the storming party, and was afterwards killed by a cannon shot.

Notwithstanding the frequency of the endeavours of the Russians to regain possession of the Quarries, and the interruptions to the work to which these attacks gave rise, Lieutenant-Colonel Tylden was enabled to effect a lodgement and to establish the communication with the advanced parallel, and this redounds greatly to his credit and that of the Officers and men employed as the working party; and I cannot omit this opportunity to express my approbation of the conduct of the Sappers throughout the operations. The exertions of the Royal Artillery under Brigadier-General Dacres, and those of the Naval Brigade, under Captain Lushington, R.N., in serving the guns, cannot be too warmly commended. The accuracy of their fire is the theme of universal admiration; and the constancy with which they applied themselves to their arduous duties under all circumstances, however dangerous, cannot be too strongly placed upon record.

It is deeply to be lamented that this success should have entailed so heavy a loss, as is shewn in the accompanying Returns, which however are still incomplete; but I have the assurance of the principal Medical Officer that many of the wounds are slight, and that by far the greater portion of the sufferers are progressing most favourably.

I have just learnt that the enemy have abandoned a work in the rear of the "Ouvrages Blancs," which they constructed at the commencement of the month of May. The French took possession of it on the 7th, but did not retain it. In the other works they captured 62 pieces of artillery, and they have 14 officers and about 400 men prisoners.

We have a few prisoners, and amongst them a Captain of Infantry, who was wounded, and taken by Corporal Quinn, of the 47th.

I have, &c.,

RAGLAN.

The Lord Panmure, &c., &c., &c.

Before Sevastopol,

MY LORD, June 9, 1855.

I HAVE the honour to enclose a letter from Dr Hall, Inspector-General of Hospitals, enclosing a Return of the Casualties, so far as they had been ascertained when he visited the hospitals yesterday morning, which took place in the attack and continued occupation of the Quarries on the evening of the 7th and morning of the 8th.

I visited most of the wounded yesterday, and was much pleased with the attention of the medical officers to the sufferers, and with the patience and resignation of the latter; and I am happy to say, while there are some very serious cases, the greater portion has every prospect of recovery, and many of the wounds are slight. I have, &c.,

RAGLAN.

The Lord Panmure, &c., &c., &c.

Enclosure 1.

Before Sevastopol,

MY LORD, June 8, 1855.

I HAVE the honour to enclose a return of the Casualties of last night, so far as they had been ascertained when I visited the Hospitals this morning, and the states were made out; but on my visit this evening I found that more wounded had been brought up from the trenches, a Supplementary Return of which I shall have the honour to submit to your Lordship to-morrow.

The wounded of last night were all comfortably accommodated in their own regimental hospitals, and their hurts were promptly and properly attended to by the medical officers, both Staff and Regimental; and your Lordship, I am quite sure, will be glad to learn that a large proportion of the wounds is not of a dangerous nature.

The Regimental establishments of the 2d and Light Divisions, and of the Right and Left Siege Trains, were sufficient for the reception of the wounded of last night, and we have still in reserve in camp the spare accommodation of the regimental hospital of the 3d and 4th Divisions, and nearly the whole of the Field General Hospital in rear of the 3d Division, which consists of thirty huts that have been given over for that purpose, and equipped for the reception of patients by the activity and zeal of First Class Staff Surgeon Dr Mouat.

Besides the above accommodation, the Surgical Hospital at the Old Castle, Balaklava, can receive upwards of 400 patients, and as the wounded hitherto sent there have done so remarkably well, I am anxious that it should be accepted; and it has been arranged that a train of railway cars shall be appropriated for the conveyance of sick and wounded every day at two o'clock; by which means we shall be able to relieve the hospitals in front, and prevent over-crowding.

I beg to bring under your Lordship's notice the very satisfactory manner in which all the Medical Officers have performed their duty on this occasion; and I trust I may be permitted to mention the exertions of First Class Staff-Surgeon Dr Gordon, Superintending 2d Division; First Class Staff-Surgeon, Dr Logan, Light Division; Surgeon Bent, Ordnance Medical Department, Right Siege Train; and Surgeon Elliot, Ordnance Medical Department, Left Siege Train.

I have, &c.,

J. HALL,

Inspector-General of Hospitals.

JOHN HALL,

Inspector-General of Hospitals.

*Metropolitan Cattle Market, Copenhagen Fields,
June 13, 1855.*

This day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, and the Deputation of Aldermen and Common Councilmen of the City of London, waited upon His Royal Highness Prince Albert with the following Address, which was read by the Right Honourable J. A. Stuart Wortley, M.P., the Recorder, and which His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:—

To His Royal Highness PRINCE ALBERT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, Her Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the city of London, in Common Council assembled, desire, by the warmest expression of our gratitude, to testify to your Royal Highness the value which we attribute to your gracious presence on this occasion.

The proceedings of this day are of deep interest and importance to the great community of the metropolis, and to the country at large.

These costly and extensive works have been undertaken by the corporation of the city of London in deference to the suggestions of the National Legislature, and under a strong sense of the responsibility accompanying the powers and the means confided to them by their fellow-citizens.

If the transfer of the Chief Metropolitan Market to this new and spacious locality shall be successful, it will not only have removed all ground of complaint arising from the character of its ancient site, but will also have conferred essential benefits upon the population of this vast capital as well as on those important branches of our National industry which are concerned in supplying with food the increasing masses of its inhabitants and the countless numbers who frequent it.

In the happiness and prosperity of all classes of Her Majesty's subjects your Royal Highness has always evinced the warmest and most active interest, and we know nothing more likely to secure success to this great undertaking than the sanction and encouragement afforded in its inauguration by the illustrious Consort of our Queen.

We therefore humbly rejoice in the opportunity thus given to us of welcoming your Royal Highness on this spot, of expressing our heartfelt gratitude for your Royal Highness's attendance, and of manifesting anew our affectionate and respectful attachment to the Person and Family of the beloved Sovereign of these Realms.

To which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to return the following most gracious answer:—

My Lord Mayor and Gentlemen,

"Accept the expression of my hearty thanks for your kind welcome, and for the gratifying assurance of your loyal and affectionate attachment to the Queen and Her family.

"I have been much pleased by the opportunity which your kind invitation has afforded me of seeing and admiring the great work which you this day open to the public; a work which not only deserves all admiration in itself on account of the excellence of the arrangements and the magnificence of the design, but which will, I trust, be found eminently conducive to the comfort and health of the city of London.

"That its success will be commensurate with the spirit in which it has been undertaken and carried out, I cannot doubt.

"A certain dislocation of habits and interests must inevitably attend the removal of the great City Market from the site it has occupied for so many centuries, and this may possibly retard for the moment the fullest development of the undertaking. But any opposition arising from such causes will soon cease; and the farmers will doubtless soon learn to appreciate the boon thus conferred upon them by the London Corporation, in the increased facility which will be afforded to them for the transaction of their business, and the comparative security with which they will be enabled to bring up and display their valuable stock in the Great Metropolitan Cattle Market."

FOREIGN-OFFICE, June 12, 1855.

The Queen has been pleased to approve of Mr Edward Ryan as Consul in Canada for the Free Hanseatic City of Lubeck.

The Queen has also been pleased to approve of Mr Thomas Ryan as Vice-Consul at Montreal for the Free Hanseatic City of Lubeck.

WHITEHALL, June 16, 1855.

The Queen has been pleased to grant to the Reverend Henry George Liddell, M.A., the place and dignity of Dean of the Cathedral Church of Christ, in the University of Oxford, void by the death of the Reverend Doctor Thomas Gaisford.

WHITEHALL, June 16, 1855.

Marine Notification of the Alteration of the Provisional Regulation which was published on the 22d of September 1852 for the Pilotage of the Bar and Bay of San Marcos, in the Province of Maranham.

No. 61, Rio de Janeiro, Minister of the Affairs of the Marine, December 19, 1854.

MOST EXCELLENT SIR,

HAVING laid before His Majesty the Emperor the Despatch which your Excellency addressed to this Department, under No. 24, and dated the 11th May last, relative to the alterations proposed by the Captain of the Port of the Province of Maranham, as being necessary in the Provisional Regulations of the pilotage of the Bar and Bay of San Marcos, according to his experience of upwards of a year, the said august Lord has been pleased to approve of the said alterations, some of them being modified, as your Excellency will perceive, and consist as follows:—

The Articles 15, 16, and 18, of the Provisional Regulation, to which the Notice of the 22d of September 1852 refers, relative to the Pilotage of the Bar and Bay of San Marcos, in the Province of Maranham, are thus altered.

Article 15. National and Foreign vessels are to pay for Pilotage outwards; those with three masts, 46 mil 400 reis (£5 : 4 : 4); those with two masts, 40 milreis (£4 : 10s.); and for pilotage inwards

27 mil 200 reis (£3 : 1 : 2), besides 6 mil 400 reis (14s. 5d.), for mooring; 8 milreis (18s.) for taking the vessel to the beach or ship yard, if requiring repairs; and 12 milreis (£1 : 7s.) if to the place named "Madre de Deos."

For each succour afforded by the pilots from the ridge of rocks of the lake to the shallows of the bar, inclusive, 120 milreis (£13 : 10s.); if upon these shallows, 60 milreis (£6 : 5s.); if on these shallows near to Guimarães, Pirajuba, and Corva Grande, 240 milreis (£27); and the like sum when the vessel is taken by the Bay of S. José, Rio Mosquito; and Itaquí, to cross the bar.

Article 16. Those vessels which do not choose to take a pilot are to pay half the tax established for pilotage in the preceding Article, as well on taking their departure as on entering. The coasting vessels whose masters dispense with the service of the pilots, from being themselves pilots of the coast and bar of the Province, and as such registered in the respective Captain of the Port's Office, are exempted from this half tax.

Article 18. There is to be a box, with two keys, under the charge of one of the pilots, to be selected by the others, with the approval of the Captain of the Port, one of which keys is to be kept by the chief pilot and the other by the responsible pilot. The latter is also to keep a book stating the receipt and expenditure of the money produced by the pilotage, which is to be always regularly posted up, and according to the orders and under the inspection of the Captain of the Port, a yearly account of such receipt and expenditure to be sent to the Office of the Secretary of State for Marine Affairs, through the Captain of the Port. For this charge the said pilot is to be remunerated monthly with the sum of six milreis (13s. 6d.) out of the respective chest.

The above-mentioned chest will serve for keeping the amounts received for the labour of the pilots, as is provided for in the Articles 15, 16, and 17, of this Regulation; and the sum which may exist in the said chest, after deducting all expences, is to be distributed monthly, in equal shares, amongst the chief and other pilots.

The following Articles are added to the said Regulation:—

Article 19. Those pilots who shall render any extraordinary service, not mentioned in this Regulation, or any other person doing so, are to be paid according to the award of arbitrators to be named by the Captain of the Port.

Article 20. If any one of the pilots, from reasons unconnected with the pilotage, excepting in the case of illness, should omit performing the duty which in his turn devolves upon him, during the course of one month, he will have no right to the respective share, which is to be divided only amongst the other pilots.

Article 21. The pilot who should be addicted to inebriety, or be habitually ill-behaved, is to be imprisoned from one to eight days for the first time, as many as fifteen days for the second time, and in the case of his not reforming, he is to suffer the penalty of dismissal.

All of which I communicate to your Excellency for your information, and that you may cause it to be executed.

God preserve your Excellency.
