ST JAMES'S PALACE, July 13, 1855.

THE Queen has been pleased to appoint Miss Emily Cathcart, second surviving daughter of the late Lieutenant-General Sir George Cathcart, K.C.B., to be one of the Maids of Honour in Ordinary to Her Majesty, in the room of the Honourable Matilda Page, resigned.

FOREIGN OFFICE, July 12, 1855.

The Queen has been pleased to approve of Mr Gaillard de Ferry as Consul-General in London for the Emperor of the French.

CROWN OFFICE, July 12, 1855.

MEMBER returned to serve in the present PARLIAMENT.

Borough of Evesham.

Edward Holland, of Dumbleton, in the county of Gloucester, Esquire, in the room of Charles Lennox Grenville Berkeley, Esquire, who has accepted the office of Steward of Her Majesty's Chiltern Hundreds.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
July 10, 1855.*

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Bilbao, forwarding the enclosed Notification, issued by the Spanish Board of Health, affecting masters of British vessels which arrive in Port Santander.

(Copy.)

(Translation.)

It is enacted by the Sanitary Law that every vessel which arrives at a port of the Peninsula from a foreign port, not having a Bill of Health, incurs a fine of 1100 reals of Vellon, and a fine of 200 reals when the Bill of Health is not countersigned by the Spanish Consul resident at the port of departure of the vessel.

And as it has been observed at this port that in many recent instances British vessels have contravened these regulations, and as I am desirous to guard against further abuses, and that in the strict fulfilment of the law, the observance of which is confided to me, no further questions may arise on the plea of ignorance,—which in sound principles would not exempt the infractor from responsibility,—I have deemed it expedient to address you, in order that you may take such steps as you may consider proper to make the above known to the British mercantile community; and further, that it is to be borne in mind that in such cases where there may be no Spanish Consul or Agent residing at the port of the vessel's departure, the magistrate of the place by whom the Bill of Health is granted must certify that fact.

I request you will acknowledge the receipt of this communication.

May God preserve, &c.

Santander, June 21, 1855.

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of the Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Acapulco, transmitting the enclosed translation of a Decree issued by the Mexican Government, granting certain advantages to whaling vessels which may enter the port of Acapulco.

(Copy.)

(Translation.)

IGNACIO COMONFORT, Governor and Commandant General of the Department of Guerrero, to its inhabitants be it known, that the following decree has been forwarded to him by his Excellency General Alvarez, &c.

Art. 1st.—While ships of all friendly Nations are permitted to enter and winter in the port of Acapulco, keeping their cargo on board, without being subject to tonnage dues, or to any other expenses but those mentioned in this Decree.

Art. 2d.—The fees for the captain of the port pilot-boat and bill of health will be the same for whalers as those exacted from other vessels under the existing regulations; but as respects their draught of water, one dollar two reals only will be exacted per foot both on entering and leaving the port.

Art. 3d.—During the time said vessels remain in port they will be subject to the regulations of the maritime custom-house.

Art. 4th.—The owners, captains, consignees, or agents of this class of vessels are permitted to deposit in the port of Acapulco the oil, whalebone, ivory, and all other articles pertaining to their business, without payment of any duty, provided the same are not sold, in which case they will pay a duty of ten per cent. (10 per cent.) on the survey made of the said articles by the administrator of the custom-house, the surveyor, and two of the principal merchants of the port.

Art. 5th.—No impediment shall be placed in the way of these vessels to their obtaining provisions, water, or anything that may be necessary for repairs.

Art. 6th.—This Decree will be subject to the revision of the supreme government that may hereafter be established, according to the plan of Ayutla.

Therefore I command that it be printed, published, circulated, and fulfilled.

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Ambassador at Paris, enclosing copy of a French Imperial Decree, prolonging, until the 31st December 1855, the prohibition to export cereals from Algeria, enacted by the Decree of the 1st November 1854.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
July 11, 1855.*

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Ambassador at Paris, enclosing copy of a French Imperial Decree, by which the liberty accorded to foreign vessels, to carry grain, and meal of rice, of potatoes, and of dried vegetables, between Algeria and France, is extended until the 31st December 1855. Foreign vessels so laden will enjoy this privilege whatever may be the date of their arrival at the port of their destination, provided they shall have left the port of departure previously to the 31st December 1855.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
July 11, 1855.*

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Lisbon, transmitting the accompanying translation of a Notice issued by the Board of Health in that city.

(Copy.)

(Translation.)

The Board of Health of this Kingdom having observed that, notwithstanding the repeated instructions to the contrary, Consuls continue to issue Bills of Health, leaving the number of passengers in each ship in blank, thereby provoking more rigorous sanitary measures than otherwise would be required, and causing to crews, passengers, merchants, and others, unnecessary embarrassments, hereby make known that, according to the sanitary regulations now in force, all passengers, crew, and cargo of every vessel without a Bill of Health, stating in full the number of such passengers and crew, will be subject to quarantine and to the corresponding sanitary precautions. And in order that this may be known to those interested, and that they may claim from the Portuguese Consulates the exact form in making out the necessary documents, this present notice is published.

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Assumption, transmitting the enclosed translation of a Decree, altering the duties levied upon tobacco and hides.

(Copy.)

(Translation.)

The President of the Republic determines and decrees :

Art. 1.—The exportation of cigars manufactured in the licensed manufactories of the Republic is free of duty.

Art. 2.—The manufactures of cigars which in form, size, and other qualities, approach nearest to Havanna cigars, shall receive a premium of four reals per thousand cigars ; and the manufacturers of such as have not these qualifications, but are well adapted for commerce, shall receive a premium of two reals per thousand cigars, and shall be recognised as competent persons.

Art. 3.—The office of the Collector-General shall pay the premiums established in the previous Art., on presentation of a certificate of the Captain of the Port of the embarkation of the cigars.

Art. 4.—A duty of fifteen per cent. is imposed on the exportation of all kinds of tobacco ; the present duty of ten per cent. being hereby abolished.

Let this Decree be duly communicated, and in order that it may be known to all, let it be publicly announced in the usual form, and officially published in the Semanario de Avisos.
