

The Edinburgh Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 4, 1855.

At the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 28th day of August 1855.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

The Lords of the Council having taken into consideration certain applications for leave to export various articles, of which the exportation is prohibited to any place in Europe north of Dunkirk, or in the Mediterranean Sea east of Malta, are pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the prohibition to export such articles to any place east of Malta shall cease, with the exception of gunpowder, saltpetre, brimstone, nitrate of soda, sulphate of potash, muriate of potash (chloride of potassium), arms, and ammunition of every kind, including lead, with regard to which the prohibition is to remain in force;

Whereof the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Commissioners of Customs, and all other persons whom it may concern, are to take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

C. C. GREVILLE.

At the Council-Chamber, Whitehall, the 30th day of August 1855.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

The Lords of the Council having taken into consideration the expediency of prohibiting the exportation of certain additional articles capable of being converted into, or made useful in, increasing the quantity of military and naval stores (in pursuance of Her Majesty's Proclamation of the eighteenth February one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four), are pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Officers of Her Majesty's Customs do hereafter prevent the exportation of the following articles: viz.—rivet iron, angle iron, rivets, strips of iron, low moor and bowing plates, sheet plate iron exceeding a quarter of an inch, and round bars of from five-eighths to three-quarters of an inch in diameter, to any place in Europe north of Dunkirk; and that the Officers of Her Majesty's Customs do permit the export of the articles herein-mentioned to any other part of the world, upon taking from the persons exporting the same a bond that they shall be landed and entered at the port of destination:

Whereof the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Commissioners of Customs, and all other persons whom it may concern, are to take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

C. C. GREVILLE.

ADMIRALTY, August 30, 1855.

The Turkish Government having conferred Medals on Commander Henry Carr Glyn, Lieutenant Prince Ernest of Leiningen, and thirty men belonging to Her Majesty's Navy, who were employed on the Danube, in the months of July and August in last year, with the Army under the command of His Highness Omer Pacha, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty hereby give notice that they have received the Medals in question, and that they are now ready for delivery at the Admiralty, Somerset House.

Claimants should apply, either personally or by letter, to the Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy, producing their certificates for the ships to which they belonged when they performed the service for which these Medals have been awarded.

Board of Trade, Whitehall,
August 29, 1855.

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul-General in Syria, suggesting that during the unhealthy season at Alexandretta, British ships engaged in the Syrian trade should take on board at the port of Lattachia their cargoes of Aleppo produce.

Board of Trade, Whitehall,
August 29, 1855.

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires at Monte Video, reporting the intended imposition of a duty of three quarters of a rial per ton upon all vessels entering or leaving the River Plate, the proceeds of which are to be applied to the placing of a floating light on the English Bank, the erection of a lighthouse on the Island of Lobos, and the establishment of a life boat in the neighbourhood of the English Bank.
