WAR-DEPARTMENT, September 3, 1855.

LORD PANMURE has this day received a Despatch and its Enclosures, of which the following are Copies, addressed to his Lordship by General Simpson :—

Before Sevastopol,

August 21, 1855.

MY LORD,

IN my Despatch of the 18th instant I was unable to give as detailed an account of the part taken by the Sardinian troops in the Battle of the Tchernaya as I could have wished. I have since received General La Marmora's report, of which I have now the honour to send you a copy.

The Killed and Wounded of the Russian Army exceed, if anything, the number I originally stated. An armistice was granted to enable the enemy to bury the dead, and vast quantities were carried away.

The fire from the batteries of the Allies has been very effective, and the result attained has been sufficient to enable the works against the place to progress satisfactorily.

I beg to enclose the List of Casualties to the 19th instant.

Major McGowan, 93d Highlanders, who was reported by me as missing in my Despatch of the 11th August, I have since ascertained was attacked whilst posting his sentries in advance of the trenches, wounded severely, and made prisoner.

I have, &c.,

JAMES SIMPSON,

General Commanding.

The Lord Panmure, &c., &c., &c.
