TO THE CREDITORS OF

JAMES KEITH, Tanner in Dundee.— William Webster, jun. merchant in Dundee, trustee upon the sequestrated estate of the said James Keith, hereby intimates, that he has made up the proper statements of the bankrupt's affairs, required by the act, with an account of his intrusions with the funds, which will lie open for the inspection of all concerned till the 12th day of November next, being the first lawful day after the expiration of 18 months since the first deliverance upon the petition for sequestration; upon which day the trustee requests a general meeting of the creditors, or their agents, within the house of Alexander Morren, vintner, Dundee, at 12 o'clock noon, to give directions to him, as to the future management of the estate, particularly for the disposal of the outstanding debts, and finally settling the business. There being no funds in the trustee's hands, no dividend can be made at said meeting.
Dundee, Oct. 5. 1799.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

THOMAS GORDON, in Speynie.— — — The trustee for the creditors having prepared a state of the funds, and claims of the creditors, with a scheme of division of the funds which have been recovered; but objections having been lodged to many of the claims, the trustee requests the creditors to meet upon Wednesday the 23d day of October current, at 12 o'clock noon, within the house of Andrew Perrie, vintner in Elgin, to give directions with regard to the claims and objections, and the future management of the trust affairs.
October 7. 1799.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

ANDERSON, LESLIE, and CO. Seedsmen in Edinburgh, and of ANDREW LESLIE and JAMES CUNNINGHAM, the partners of that Company, as individuals. Donald McLaine, merchant in Edinburgh, the trustee, gives notice, that states of their affairs, and a division among their creditors, will be seen at his shop at the Cross, Edinburgh, till Saturday the 9th of November next; when the dividends will be there paid, between the hours of eleven and three o'clock.
