WAR-DEPARTMENT, March 5, 1856.

LORD PANMURE has received a Despatch, of which the following is a copy, addressed to his Lordship by General Sir William Codrington, K.C.B.—

Sevastopol, February 20, 1856.

MY LORD,

I HAVE to acknowledge the receipt of your telegraphic message from the Judge-Advocate-General in England, in reference to the man of this Army under sentence of death for murder.

There are no palliating circumstances to interfere with the just punishment due to such a crime, committed on a helpless wounded man in hospital. Painful though the duty may be, with a sense of the responsibility attaching to human life, but with the conviction that the decision is just and necessary, I have ordered the execution of this man on Saturday morning next, the 23d instant, in conformity with the sentence of the Court.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) W. J. CODRINGTON,
General Commanding.

The Lord Panmure, &c., &c., &c.

February 23, 1856.

P.S.—This prisoner, Private G. Day, No. 3,577, 77th Regiment, was executed this morning at seven A.M., on the Piquet House Hill, in the presence of detachments of 1,000 men from each Division of the Army. His body was buried on the spot.

(Signed) W. J. CODRINGTON,
General Commanding.

And whereas it hath been made to appear to Her Majesty that due facilities will be given for recovering and apprehending seamen who desert from British Merchant Ships in the territories belonging to the Republic of Chile :

Now therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by the said "Foreign Deserters Act, 1852," and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and declare, and is hereby ordered and declared, that from and after the publication hereof in the London Gazette, seamen, not being slaves, and not being British subjects, who desert from Merchant Ships belonging to citizens of the Republic of Chile, within Her Majesty's dominions or the territories of the East India Company, shall be liable to be apprehended and carried on board their respective ships : Provided always, that if any such deserter has committed any crime in Her Majesty's dominions or the territories of the East India Company, he may be detained until he has been tried by a competent Court, and until his sentence (if any) has been fully carried into effect.

EAST INDIA HOUSE, March 5, 1856.

NOTICE is hereby Given, that the annexed Code of Regulations for the Admission of CANDIDATES at the Examinations to be held for the appointment of ASSISTANT-SURGEONS in the Service of The EAST INDIA COMPANY has been framed by the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India, under the provisions of the Act 16th and 17th Victoria, cap. 95, sect. 38.

REGULATIONS for the Admission of Candidates for the appointment of ASSISTANT-SURGEON in the Service of The EAST INDIA COMPANY.

All natural-born Subjects of Her Majesty between 22 and 28 years of age, and of sound bodily health, may be Candidates for Admission into the Service of the East India Company as Assistant-Surgeons.

This Declaration must be accompanied by the following documents:—

2. A Certificate of Moral Character from a Magistrate, or a Minister of the religious denomination to which the Candidate belongs, who has personally known him for at least two preceding years.

Candidates who may not have been able to attend the practice of an Asylum for the Insane, or of an Ophthalmic hospital, for three months previous to their offering themselves for Examination, will not be excluded from Examination, but will, if successful in obtaining recommendation for appointments, be required to produce certificates of having attended such practices during the interval between the Examination and the time of proceeding to India.

7. A Certificate of having attended a course of lectures on Midwifery, and of having conducted at least six labours.

8. A Certificate of having acquired a practical knowledge of Cupping.

Candidates may also, at their option, send in Certificates of attendance at any Hospitals, or on any course of Lectures, in addition to the above. Attendance on a course of Military Surgery, and the practical Study of Surgical Operations on the dead Body, are recommended.

The Examination will include the following subjects—

1. Surgery in all its departments.
2. Medicine, including the Diseases of Women and Children, Therapeutics, Pharmacy, and Hygiene.
3. Anatomy and Physiology, including Comparative Anatomy.
4. Natural History, including Botany and Zoology.

The following are the Books recommended in—
Zoology and Comparative Anatomy:

Outlines of the Structure of the Animal Kingdom, by Rymer Jones, or Cours Élémentaire d'histoire Naturelle, par Milne Edwards.

Botany

Lindley's School Botany, or }
Lindley's Elements of Botany. }

The Examination will be conducted—

1. By means of written Questions and Answers.
2. By Object Examinations and Experiments, when the subject admits of such tests.
3. By Practical Examination of Patients, and by Operations on the dead Body.
4. By viva voce Examination.

The Persons who shall be pronounced by the Examiners to be the best qualified in all respects, will be appointed to fill the requisite number of appointments as Assistant-Surgeons in the East India Company's Service, and, so far as the requirements of the Service will permit, they will have the choice of the Presidency in India to which they shall be appointed, according to the order of merit in which they stand on the list resulting from such Examination.

All Assistant-Surgeons are required to subscribe to the Military or Medical, and Medical Retiring Funds, at the Presidencies to which they may be respectively appointed, and to the Military Orphan Society also, if appointed to Bengal.

All Assistant-Surgeons who shall neglect or refuse to proceed to India under the orders of the Court of Directors, within three months from the date of their appointment, will be considered as having forfeited it, unless special circumstances shall justify a departure from this Regulation.

A copy of these Regulations, and any further information, may be obtained on application to the Secretary of the Military Department, East India House.

The Examinations will take place in the months of January and July in each year, and due notice will be given, by public advertisement, of the days appointed, and of the probable number of Candidates to be selected.

The Examiners for Assistant-Surgeons in the Honourable East India Company's Service having received many inquiries as to the object and extent of the Examination in Comparative Anatomy, Zoology, and Botany, have considered it desirable to announce that their objects are—

1. To ascertain who of the Candidates have devoted especial attention to any of these sciences, and are hence qualified to undertake duties requiring a knowledge of them, as well as the general duties of their profession. Proficiency in these sciences will, in classifying the Candidates by merit, be entitled to great consideration.

2. To encourage all Candidates to acquire an elementary knowledge of the Structure and Affinities of the principal natural families of Animals and of Plants, with the general plan upon which these are constructed, and the functions and relations of their most important organs.

3. To promote the study of Natural History as a most important adjunct or preliminary to a liberal Medical Education; that of Comparative Anatomy, Zoology, or Botany, if properly cultivated, by means of specimens, for even a short period, being eminently calculated to develop habits of close observation, and to strengthen those powers of reasoning upon observed facts, which must be habitually exercised by medical men everywhere, but which must be exercised with the greatest energy and promptitude by those who practise in a tropical climate, and who are often thrown wholly upon their own resources.

The general Examination in these sciences will be elementary, and will embrace a very limited range of technical terms. At the written Examination, a considerable number of questions will be put, with the view of allowing each Candidate to select such subjects as he has attended to, and thereby of enabling the Examiners to ascertain the particular departments of science in which the verbal Examination should be conducted.

With those Candidates who have attained proficiency in any branch of these sciences, the verbal Examination will be pursued in the branch selected, so as to ascertain the full extent of their knowledge.

It is now announced that the next Examination will be held at this House on the 14th July next, and succeeding days; and that the probable number of vacancies in the Medical Establishment of the East India Company to be then filled up will be thirty.
