WAR-DEPARTMENT, April 29, 1856.

LORD PANMURE has received a Despatch, and its Enclosure, of which the following are Copies, addressed to his Lordship by General Sir William Codrington, K.C.B. :—

Sevastopol, April 15, 1856.

MY LORD,

I HAVE the honour to transmit herewith, for your Lordship's information, the weekly report of Sir John Hall.

I have, &c.,

W. J. CODRINGTON,
General Commanding.

The Lord Panmure, &c., &c., &c.

Enclosure.

Head-Quarters, Camp, Crimea,
April 15, 1856.

SIR,

THE sanitary condition of the Army continues highly satisfactory, and there has been a decrease in both the mortality and number of sick this week.

Since the furious snow storm of the third instant, the weather has been gradually getting milder, and now nothing could be more delightful than it is.

This favourable change in the weather has been marked by a decrease of chest affections, and a slight increase of febrile complaints, but none of them of any great severity, except in the Land Transport Corps, where typhoid fever still prevails, and four out of the five fatal cases of fever which occurred during the week, took place in the Land Transport Corps alone.

Of the sixteen deaths which have occurred during the week—

Five were from fever ;

Two from apoplexy, the direct effects of drunkenness ;

Five from affections of the lungs ;
Two from chronic bowel complaints ;
One, a sudden death, from the bursting of an aneurism of the aorta ; and

One from the results of an injury of the head received in a drunken brawl six weeks ago.

So that only twelve out of the sixteen are fairly attributable to disease.

The ratio of admissions to strength this week has been ..... 1·81 per cent.

Deaths, to strength, 0·02 ditto.

Sick to well, ..... 3·87 ditto.

Taking the whole force, the admissions to strength in all the hospitals, both general and regimental, have only been 2·19 per cent.

Deaths, to strength, 0·03 per cent.

Sick, to well, ..... 5·34 ditto.

I have, &c.,

J. HALL,

Inspector-General of Hospitals.

General Sir Wm. J. Codrington, K.C.B.,
Commanding-in-Chief.
