A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA R.

WHEREAS a Definitive Treaty of Peace and Friendship between Us and Our Allies and His Imperial Majesty the Emperor of all the Russias was concluded at Paris on the thirtieth day of March last, and the Ratifications thereof have now been duly exchanged; In conformity thereunto, We have thought fit hereby to command that the same be published throughout all Our Dominions; And We do declare to all Our Loving Subjects, Our Will and Pleasure that the said Treaty of Peace and Friendship be observed inviolably, as if by Land, and in all cases whatsoever, strictly charging and commanding all Our Loving Subjects to take notice hereof, and to conform themselves thereunto accordingly.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham-Palace, this twenty-eighth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, and in the nineteenth year of Our Reign.

A PROCLAMATION,

FOR A PUBLIC THANKSGIVING IN SCOTLAND.

VICTORIA R.

WHEREAS it has pleased Almighty God, in His great Goodness, to put an End to the Warfare in which We have been engaged against the Emperor of Russia, and to restore Peace to Europe; We, therefore, adoring the Divine Goodness, and duly considering that the great and public Blessings of Peace do call for public and solemn Acknowledgments, have thought fit, by and with the advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Proclamation, hereby appointing that a General Thanksgiving to Almighty God for these His Mercies be observed throughout that part of the United Kingdom called Scotland, upon Sunday the fourth day of May next; and We do earnestly exhort all Our loving Subjects in Scotland that they do reverently and decently observe the said Public Thanksgiving on the said fourth day of May next. Our Will and Pleasure is therefore, and We charge, that this Our Proclamation seen, ye pass to the Market-Cross of Edinburgh, and all other Places needful, and there, in Our Name and under Our Authority, make Publication thereof, that none pretend Ignorance. And Our Will and Pleasure is, that Our Solicitor do cause printed Copies of this Our Proclamation to be sent to the Sheriffs of the several Shires, Stewarts of Stewartries, and Bailiffs of Regalities, and their Clerks, whom We ordain to see the same published; and We appoint them to send Copies thereof to the several Parish Churches within their bounds.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham-Palace, the twenty-eighth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, and in the nineteenth year of Our Reign.
