FROM TUESDAY, OCTOBER 22. TO FRIDAY, OCTOBER 25. 1799.

ADMIRALTY-OFFICE—Oct. 19. 1799.

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral the Right Honourable Lord KEITH, K. B. to EVAN NEPEAN, Esq. dated the 16th instant.

SIR,

I enclose, for their Lordships information, a letter from Captain Digby, of his Majesty's ship the Alemene, to me, acquainting me of the capture of a French letter of marque; and have the honour to be, Sir, &c.

KEITH.

*His Majesty's ship Alemene at sea,
September 22. 1799.*

MY LORD,

I have the honour to acquaint you that I captured on the 16th ult. Les Deux Amis French brig letter de Marque of six guns and sixty men, from France bound to St Domingo.

I have the honour to be, &c.

H. DIGBY.

Vice-Admiral Lord KEITH, K. B. &c.

Copy of a Letter from the Honourable Captain STOFFORD, of his Majesty's ship Excellen, to EVAN NEPEAN, Esq. dated Carward Bay, Oct. 17. 1799.

SIR,

I have to request that you will acquaint the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that on the 10th instant, being to windward of the Impregnable and her convoy, in a very thick weather, I discovered a brig standing towards the convoy, which altered her course upon seeing the ship. I chased and came up with her in the night; she proved to be a French corvette, called L'Arethuse, carrying 18 nine-pounder guns, and 153 men, commanded by a Lieutenant de Vaisseau, from Port L'Orient, bound to Cayenne with dispatches, which were destroyed previous to her capture. She is a new vessel, of large dimensions, and sails well. I have the honour to be, &c.

ROBERT STOFFORD.

ADMIRALTY-OFFICE—Oct. 22. 1799.

Extract of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Mitchell to Evan Nepean, Esq. dated on board his Majesty's ship Isis, near the Vlieter, the 15th instant.

I enclose a copy of a letter from Capt. Campbell, giving an account of the capture of four gun-boats in the Zuyder Zee, and a copy of a letter from Captain Boorder, containing an account of two unsuccessful attacks made by the enemy on Lemmer;

[Price Sixpence.]

by all which their Lordships will perceive that I cannot too highly extol the gallantry and good conduct of these Captains, and of the Officers and men under their command.

His Majesty's Gun Brig Hasty, off Marken, October 7.

SIR,

I beg to inform you, that I yesterday sailed from Usk, with the Hasty, Defender, and Cracker brigs, and Isis schuyt; and having reached this place by four A. M. I proceeded with the brigs to attempt cutting out the Dutch gun-boats lying on or near the Pampus, and am happy to say, succeeded in getting possession of four without the loss of a man. They each mount four long guns or carrotsades, and have between 20 and 30 men; one of them built on purpose for a gun-vessel, and quite new, carrying two long eighteen-pounders in her bow, and two eighteen-pounder carronades on her broadside; the rest are schuyts.

I beg to recommend to your notice Mess. Hall and Winter, midshipmen, for their spirited behaviour on this occasion, as also all the seamen engaged, for their alacrity in boarding, and good conduct after having gained possession. I have sent the Defender with charge of the gun boats, and have the honour to be, &c.

PATRICK CAMPBELL, Commander of his Majesty's sloop Dart.

Vice-Admiral Mitchell, Enchuyzen.

*Lemmer Town, West Friesland,
Oct. 11. 1799.*

SIR,

I have the honour to inform you, that at five o'clock this morning the enemy made a general attack on this town in four different parts. Their advanced party attempted to storm the north battery. We soon got them between two fires; our tars with pikes surrounded them, and they immediately laid down their arms. The force was one officer, one serjeant, one corporal, and 28 men; two of the latter killed. We had no sooner secured our prisoners than they attacked us with the remainder of their force, 670 in number; our little army did wonders; for with sailors and marines our force was only 157. We fought them for four hours and a half, when the enemy gave way in all directions: I immediately ordered the marines to pursue them. Their breaking down a bridge prevented their colours and two field pieces from falling into our hands; but before this was effected the heavy fire from the marines.

had killed 18 of the enemy and wounded about 20; and in their general attack they had five men killed and nine wounded.

It is impossible for me to speak too highly of the men and officers under my command. Lieutenant Wyburn of the marines, as also Lieutenants Howel, Higginson, and Gardner, behaved with honour to themselves and credit to their country. Lieutenant Norman of the navy, as also Mr Lane, Mr Iron, Mr Wheatly, Mr Travers, and Mr Petty distinguished themselves in a most gallant manner, as did likewise the whole of the sailors and marines.

It affords me great satisfaction to inform you we had not a man hurt. I am, &c.

WILLIAM BOLTON, Esq. Captain of his Majesty's gun vessel Wolverene.

Copy of a letter from Vice-Admiral Mitchell to Evan Nepean, Esq. dated on board his Majesty's ship Isis the 18th instant.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to enclose you the copy of a letter to me from Captain Winthrop, giving an account of his having captured a sloop of war and an armed schooner, by which their Lordships will perceive that he acquitted himself with his usual zeal and good conduct; and that the officers and men under his command are entitled to my highest commendations. I have the honour to be, Sir, &c. &c.

A. MITCHELL.

Circe, River Ems, October 11, 1799.

SIR,

BEING detained here by contrary winds, which deprived me of the pleasure of acting with you in the Zuyder Zee, I proceeded to reconnoitre the port of Delfzel, where I discovered a sloop of war and a schooner lying within musket-shot of the batteries; and conceiving it practicable to carry them by a coup-de-main, I gave the necessary orders for that purpose, but the weather proving tempestuous nothing could be effected until the 8th, at night. Delfzel being distant 20 miles from the Circe, the boats proceeded with the first of the tide, and arrived there just as the moon went down; at which time I ordered the attack to be made by Lieutenant Maughan upon the ship, and Lieutenant Pawle upon the schooner, who boarded and carried them in a most gallant manner, and I am happy to say without any loss, notwithstanding the guns were loaded, primed, and the matches lighted. The name of the ship is the Lynx, of 12 guns, eight and twelve pounders, and 75 men; that of the schooner, the Perseus, mounting eight four-pounders, and 40 men.

The officers, seamen, and marines employed upon this service deserve my warmest acknowledgments for their cool, silent, and steady conduct, to which our success was in a great measure owing; and I feel great satisfaction in having an opportunity to do justice to the merits of my First Lieutenant, Mr Maughan, whose zeal for the service I have often witnessed; and also to Mr Pawle, my Second Lieutenant, whom I have had frequent occasion to commend.

To Lieutenant Buckle, of the Hawke cutter, and Captain May, a naval officer, in the service of the Prince of Orange, who very handsomely volunteered their services with me: on this occasion, I am much indebted for their advice and assistance. I have the honour to be, Sir, &c.

Vice-Admiral Mitchell, &c.

R. WINTHROP.

Copy of a Letter from Mr JAMES LE BARR, commanding the May Flower private ship of war, to EVAN NEPEAN, Esq. dated at Guernsey the 14th instant.

SIR,

I TAKE the liberty to advise you, for their Lordships information, that I yesterday returned from a cruise of six months in the private ship of war the May Flower, belonging to this island; during which I captured a Spanish gun-boat, mounting two long brass eighteen-pounders and forty-three men; and a Spanish packet, cutter-rigged, mounting eight guns, four of which are brass, and four swivels, and 27 men; the former I sent into Minorca and the latter into Gibraltar; besides which I also captured four merchant vessels, as per list at foot hereof, three of which I saw safe in port, and the fourth I left on the 8th inst. in the homeward-bound Lisbon fleet, under convoy of his Majesty's ships the Impregnable, Excellent, and the Alcmene frigate. I have the honour to be, &c.

JAMES LE BARR.
