

The Edinburgh Gazette.

Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 8, 1856.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight,
the 28th day of July 1856,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the "Foreign Deserters' Act, 1852," it is provided that whenever it is made to appear to Her Majesty that due facilities are or will be given for recovering and apprehending seamen who desert from British Merchant Ships in the territories of any Foreign Power, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, stating that such facilities are or will be given, declare that seamen, not being slaves, who desert from Merchant Ships belonging to a subject of such Power, when within Her Majesty's dominions or the territories of the East India Company, shall be liable to be apprehended and carried on board their respective ships, and may limit the operation of such Order, and may render the operation thereof subject to such conditions and qualifications, if any, as may be deemed expedient.

And whereas it hath been made to appear to Her Majesty that due facilities will be given for recovering and apprehending seamen who desert from British Merchant Ships in the territories belonging to the Republic of Chile :

Now therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by the said "Foreign Deserters' Act, 1852," and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, that from and after the publication hereof in the London Gazette, seamen, not being slaves, who desert from Merchant Ships belonging to citizens of the Republic of Chile, within Her Majesty's dominions or the territories of the East India Company, shall be liable to be apprehended and carried on board their respective ships : Provided always, that if any such deserter has committed any crime in Her Majesty's dominions, or the territories of the East India Company, he may be detained until he has been tried by a competent Court, and until his sentence (if any) has been fully carried into effect.

And Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by the said "Foreign Deserters' Act, 1852," and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is further pleased to order and declare, that upon and after the publication hereof in the London Gazette, the Order in Council relating to seamen who desert from Merchant Ships belonging to citizens of the Republic of Chile, made by virtue of the said Act, on the twenty-fifth day of February one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, and which was published in the London Gazette on the twenty-ninth day of February one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, shall be revoked, and the same is hereby revoked accordingly.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Commissioners for the Affairs of India, are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

WM. L. BATHURST.

BOARD OF GREEN CLOTH,
July 25, 1856.

The Queen has been pleased to appoint the Honourable Valentine Augustus Browne, commonly called Viscount Castlerosse, to be Comptroller of Her Majesty's Household, in the room of the Right Honourable Archibald William Douglas, commonly called Viscount Drumlanrig, resigned.

DOWNING-STREET, August 1, 1856.

The Queen has been pleased to constitute so much of the present diocese of the Bishoprick of New Zealand as comprises all that portion of the middle Island of New Zealand which lies to the southward of a geographical line drawn across the said middle Island, at the northern boundary of the territory set apart for the Canterbury settlement, under the provisions of the Act 13 & 14 Victoria, cap. 70 ; together with the southern Island of New Zealand, and the Auckland Islands, and all adjacent islands lying to the southward of the 43d degree 5 minutes of south latitude, into a separate and distinct diocese, to be called "The Bishoprick of Christchurch," and to appoint the Reverend Henry John Chitty Harper, D.D., to be ordained and consecrated Bishop of the said diocese.

FOREIGN-OFFICE, August 4.

The Queen has been pleased to appoint Mr James R. Smith, Junior, as Consul General and Honorary Agent for the United States of America.

WHITEHALL, August 2, 1856.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto the Reverend Gilbert Frankland Lewis, M.A., the place and dignity of a Canon of the cathedral church of Worcester, the same being void by the death of the Honourable and Reverend James Somers Cocks, late Canon thereof.

Board of Trade, Whitehall, August 4, 1856.

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Ambassador at Paris, enclosing a copy of the following French Imperial Decree, relative to the importation of certain descriptions of Iron.

Art. I.—In conformity with the regulations of the Ordinance of 28th May 1843, sheet iron, iron corners, and other articles of iron intended to be employed in the construction of iron ships and boilers for steam engines, will continue to be admitted free of duty, on condition of an engagement by the importers to re-export, within six months, manufactured articles of the nature of those described above, of a weight equal to the weight of the materials admitted to the privilege of the temporary free import.

Art. II.—Such sheet iron, iron corners, &c., cannot be imported, and iron ships and boilers cannot be re-exported, except through established warehousing ports (entrepôts réels), and through the offices on the frontier open to transit trade.

Art. III.—All deficiencies will give rise to the application of the penalties imposed by the Art. 3 of the law of the 5th July 1836.

All discovered deficiencies arising from waste in the manufacture, may however be considered as involving the payment of the duty attaching to the raw material.

Art. IV.—The regulations of the before-recited Ordinance of 1843, which are not re-enacted by the present decree, are abolished.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

(No. 19.) MEDITERRANEAN SEA.

The Turkish Government has given notice that the following Lights, situate respectively in the Dardanelles, Bosphorus, and Black Sea, were re-lighted on the 1st June 1856 :—

Gallipoli—Dardanelles.

A fixed white light has been temporarily placed on the tower nearest to the town of Gallipoli, on the European shore of the Dardanelles, at a height of 98 feet above the level of the sea, and should be visible from the deck of a ship at 10 miles' distance, in clear weather.

This light will shortly be replaced by a revolving light of the second order.

Fanar Bakcheh—Skutari.

A fixed white light has been established on the point Fanar Bakcheh, on the coast of Asia, three miles and a half to the southward of the town of Skutari, at a height of 84 feet above the level of the sea, and should be visible at a distance of 10 miles.

Anadoli Light—Bosphorus.

A revolving light has been established on the ancient tower of Anatolia, on the Asiatic shore, at the entrance from the Bosphorus into the Black Sea.

The light shows, alternately, a red face followed by two white faces or flashes, at intervals of two minutes each; the light gradually increasing and decreasing, but never totally eclipsed. It stands at a height of 250 feet above the level of the sea, and may be seen at a distance of 18 miles in clear weather.

The illuminating apparatus is a catadioptric lens of the third order.

Rumili Light—Bosphorus.

A fixed white light has been established on the ancient tower of Roumelia, on the European shore, at the entrance from the Bosphorus into the Black Sea.

It stands at an elevation of 190 feet above the level of the sea, and should be visible at a distance of 18 miles in clear weather.

The illuminating apparatus is a catadioptric lens of the third order.

Fidonisi Light—Black Sea.

A fixed light has been temporarily placed on Fidonisi, or Serpent Island, in the Black Sea, off the coast of Bulgaria, at 24 miles E $\frac{1}{2}$ N. of the Sulina entrance of the Danube.

The lighthouse is of wood, painted white, 70 feet high, and stands on the summit of the island, in lat. 45° 15' 36" N., long 30° 14' 54" East of Greenwich.

The light is shown at an elevation of 195 feet above the level of the sea, but at present has a range of only 10 miles; it is visible through an arc of the horizon of 200°, or from West (magnetic) round southerly to E.N.E.

This temporary light will shortly be replaced by a revolving light of the second class.

By Command of their Lordships,

JOHN WASHINGTON, Hydrographer.
