JOINT STOCK COMPANIES ACT, 1856.

EDINBURGH, August 21, 1856.

NOTICE is Hereby Given, that an OFFICE has been established at No. 2, ST DAVID STREET, in this City, for the Registration and Incorporation of Joint Stock Companies in Scotland, in pursuance of the provisions of this Act.

GEORGE DEANE, Registrar of Joint Stock Companies for Scotland.

FOREIGN-OFFICE, August 19, 1856.

The Queen has been pleased to approve of Mr Gregory O'Neill, as Consul at Cork for the Oriental Republic of the Uruguay.

WHITEHALL, August 11, 1856.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Edward Henry Sayer, of Cambridge Terrace, Hyde Park, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, eldest son and heir-apparent of Edward Lane Sayer, of East Hornden, in the county of Essex, Clerk, Master of Arts of St John's College, in the University of Cambridge, Her Majesty's royal licence and authority that he and his issue may take and use the surname of Milward, in addition to and after that of Sayer, and that he and they may bear the arms of Milward, quarterly, in the first quarter, with his and their own family arms, in compliance with a direction contained in a codicil annexed to the last will and testament of his late uncle Henry Collier Milward, (heretofore Henry Collier Sayer,) of York Street, Portman Square, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, deceased; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said licence and permission to be void and of none effect.

And also to command that this, Her Majesty's concession and declaration, be registered in Her College of Arms.

WHITEHALL, August 15, 1856.

The Queen, taking into Her royal consideration that upon the decease of Edmund, Earl of Cork and Orrery, which happened in the month of June last, the honour and dignity of Earl of Cork and Orrery devolved upon Richard St Lawrance, now Earl of Cork and Orrery, as eldest son and heir of Charles Boyle, Esq., commonly called Viscount Dungarvon, who died in the month of August 1834, and who, when living, was the eldest son and heir-apparent of the said Edmund, Earl of Cork and Orrery; and that, according to the ordinary rules of honour, the brothers and sisters of the said Richard St Lawrance, now Earl of Cork and Orrery, cannot enjoy that place and precedence which would have been due to them had their late father, the said Charles Boyle, survived his said father Edmund, Earl of Cork and Orrery, and had succeeded to the title and dignity of Earl of Cork and Orrery; Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to ordain and declare that William George Boyle, Esq., Edmund John Boyle, Esq., Louisa Caroline Elizabeth Boyle, and Mary Emily Boyle, Spinsters, shall henceforth have, hold, and enjoy, the same title, place, pre-eminence, and precedence, as if their late father, the said Charles Boyle, had survived his father, the said Edmund, Earl of Cork and Orrery, and had succeeded to the title and dignity of Earl of Cork and Orrery.

And also to command that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

DUBLIN CASTLE, August 16, 1856.

The Lord Lieutenant has been pleased to appoint William Gernon, Esq. Barrister-at-Law, to be one of the Secretaries to the Commissioners of Charitable Donations and Bequests, in the room of Daniel M'Dermott, Esq. appointed a Divisional Magistrate of Police.

Board of Trade, Whitehall,
August 16, 1856.

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Note from the Russian Minister at this Court, stating that since the evacuation of the Crimea by the Allies, quarantine has been re-established on the coasts of the Black Sea and Sea of Azof.
