

the county of Nottingham, His Grace this day took the oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, instead of the oaths of allegiance and supremacy.

At the Court at Windsor, the 2d day of February

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas, by an Order of Her Majesty in Council "for the government of Her Majesty's Subjects, being within the dominions of the Emperor of China, or being within any ship or vessel at a distance of not more than a hundred miles from the coast of China," bearing date the thirteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, Her Majesty was pleased, amongst other things, to order that if any party charged with an offence committed against the treaties, or rules and regulations therein referred to, should escape or remove from the consular district within which such offence was committed, and should be found within another consular district, it should be lawful for the Consul within whose district the party should be found, to proceed against him in the same manner as if the offence had been committed within such district: And whereas, in and by the said Order in Council, provision was made for the manner in which British subjects, convicted of crimes and offences committed within the dominions of the Emperor of China, or being required and being unable, or wilfully omitting, to give sufficient security to keep the peace, or to find security for their good behaviour, might be sent out of the dominions of the Emperor of China to the colony of Hong Kong, and also for the manner in which the expenses of so sending such persons to the said colony of Hong Kong should be defrayed: And whereas it is expedient to make further provision in respect of the matters aforesaid:—

I.—Now, therefore, in pursuance of the several Acts of Parliament in the said Order in Council of the thirteenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, recited and referred to, and in the execution of the powers thereby in Her Majesty in Council vested, Her Majesty is pleased, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and doth hereby order, that the Chief Superintendent or Consul within whose jurisdiction any party charged with having committed any offence against such treaties, or such rules or regulations as aforesaid, and who shall have escaped or removed from the consular district within which such offence was committed, shall be found, may lawfully, if such Chief Superintendent or Consul shall think fit, cause such party to be taken into custody, and sent back to the consular district from which he shall so have escaped or removed, to be there dealt with according to the provisions of the said Order in Council of the thirteenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

II.—And it is further ordered, that all removals whatsoever, of prisoners or other parties, from or to the said colony of Hong Kong, or from or to any port or place in China, under the authority of the said Order in Council of the thirteenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, shall be effected, and the expenses of all such removals shall be defrayed in like manner as by Articles 20, 21, 22, and 23, of the said Order in Council of the thirteenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, is provided, with respect to the embarking, conveying, delivering, commitment, and expenses of persons deported under the authority of the said Articles respectively, so far as the provisions thereof respectively shall be applicable to the circumstances of each particular case.

III.—And it is further ordered, that this Order shall be read, and construed with, and as being a part of the said Order in Council of the thirteenth day of June one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three.

IV.—And it is further ordered that this Order shall take effect from and after the thirtieth day of April one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven.

And the Right Honourable the Earl of Clarendon, and the Right Honourable Henry Labouchere, two of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. GREVILLE.

FOREIGN-OFFICE, January 31, 1857.

The Queen has been pleased to approve of Don Joaquin Garcia de Miranda as Vice-Consul in London for Her Majesty the Queen of Spain.

WHITEHALL, January 31, 1857.

The Queen has been pleased to constitute and appoint Colonel Godfrey Charles Mundy to be Lieutenant-Governor of the Island of Jersey, in the room of Major-General Sir James Frederick Love, K.C.B., resigned.

DUCHY OF LANCASTER, February 2, 1857.

The Queen has been this day pleased to appoint Charles Towneley, of Towneley, Esq. to be Sheriff of the county palatine of Lancaster for the year ensuing.

WHITEHALL, January 30, 1857.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Henry Lumley, of Rufford Abbey, in the county of Nottingham, Esq. a Captain in the Second Regiment of Life Guards, Her Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may henceforth take and use the surname of Savile, in lieu of that of Lumley, and that he and they may bear the arms of Savile, in compliance with a proviso contained in the last will and testament of the Right Honourable John-Savile Lumley-Savile, late Earl of Scarbrough, deceased; such arms being first duly exemplified, according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

DUBLIN CASTLE, January 28, 1857.

The Lord Lieutenant has been pleased to approve of the appointment of Edmund James Power Lalor, Esquire, to be a Deputy-Lieutenant for the County of Tipperary, in the room of Viscount Hawarden, deceased.
