FROM TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 26. TO FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 29. 1799.

At the Court at St James's, the 20th of Nov. 1799,
P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas by an act, passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, "An act to encourage the trade into the Levant seas, by providing a more convenient mode of performing quarantine, and for reducing the duty granted by an act of the last Session on goods, the manufacture of Great Britain, exported to any place within the Streights of Gibraltar," it is declared to be expedient to permit goods and merchandize to be imported from the Levant, under certain regulations and restrictions, without having been opened and aired in the lazarets of any of the ports or places mentioned in an act, passed in the 26th year of his late Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An act for enlarging and regulating the trade into the Levant seas."

And it is enacted, that it shall be lawful to and for his Majesty, his heirs and successors, by and with the advice of his or their Privy Council, by any order or orders to be issued from time to time, to grant licence and permission for the importation into Great Britain, or the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, of all goods, wares, and merchandizes, coming from the Levant seas, without clean bills of health, without such goods and merchandizes having been opened and aired in the Lazarets of any of the places mentioned in the said recited act; and that all such goods and merchandizes shall and may be admitted to an entry in any of the ports of Great Britain, or the said islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, subject, nevertheless, to such regulations, rules, orders,
