TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," power is given to the Postmaster-General to remit any of the rates of British postage for the time being, payable by law on the transmission of post letters, newspapers, or other printed papers, to such extent as the Lords of the Treasury shall from time to time direct ; and power is also given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British or Inland postage payable by law on the transmission by the post of Foreign or Colonial letters or newspapers, or any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant.

And whereas it is expedient that regulations should be made for the transmission by the post of the letters hereinafter mentioned.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the power or authority in us for such purpose vested in and by the said Act, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant (under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners, by the authority of the Statute in that case made and provided,) order and direct that, on every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight, posted in or addressed to any part of the United Kingdom, and sent from or to any Commissioned Officer (whether in the Navy or the Royal Marines), or any Warrant Officer, Midshipman, or Master's Mate, employed in any of Her Majesty's ships or vessels on any Foreign or Colonial station, and transmitted by the post between any place in the United Kingdom and any such ships or vessels, direct or through any Colony or Foreign Country, there shall be charged and taken, in lieu of any rates of postage now payable by law on such letters, an uniform British rate of sixpence.

And we direct that on every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight, sent from or to any commissioned officer (whether in the Navy or the Royal Marines), or any warrant officer, midshipman, or master's mate, employed in any of Her Majesty's ships or vessels on any Foreign or Colonial station, and transmitted by the post between any such ships or vessels, and any of Her Majesty's ships or vessels on any other Foreign or Colonial station, through the United Kingdom direct, or through any Colony or Foreign Country, there shall be charged and taken, in lieu of any rates of postage now payable by law on such letters, an uniform British rate of one shilling.

And we direct that on every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight, sent from or to any commissioned officer (whether in the Navy or the Royal Marines), or any warrant officer, midshipman, or master's mate employed in any of Her Majesty's ships or vessels on any Foreign or Colonial station, and transmitted by the post between any such ships or vessels and any of Her Majesty's Colonies or any Foreign Country through the United Kingdom direct, or through any Colony or Foreign Country, there shall be charged and taken, in lieu of any rates of postage now payable by law on such letters, the rates of British postage following (that is to say) :—

For the conveyance of every such letter between Her Majesty's ships or vessels or any such Foreign or Colonial station and any part of the United Kingdom a rate of sixpence ; and for the conveyance of every such letter between the port in the United Kingdom of the departure or arrival of the packet or ship conveying the same and the Colony or Foreign Country to or from which the same shall be forwarded, such a further or additional rate of postage as shall from time to time be charged and payable for British postage on letters posted or delivered at the port in the United Kingdom of the departure or arrival of the packet or ship conveying the same, and transmitted direct between such port and any such Colony or Foreign Country.

And we direct that on every letter, transmitted as is mentioned in this Warrant, exceeding half an ounce in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, progressive and additional rates of postage as follows ; that is to say :—

On every such letter exceeding half an ounce in weight, and not exceeding one ounce in weight, two rates of postage.

On every such letter exceeding one ounce, and not exceeding two ounces in weight, four rates of postage.

On every such letter exceeding two ounces, and not exceeding three ounces in weight, six rates of postage.

And for every ounce in weight above the weight of three ounces, there shall be charged and taken two additional rates of postage, and every fraction of an ounce above the weight of three ounces shall be charged as one additional ounce; and each progressive and additional rate chargeable under this clause shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this Warrant, if not exceeding half an ounce in weight.

And we further direct that all letters which shall be sent by the post under the regulations of this Warrant shall be subject, in addition to the British rates hereby fixed, to the payment of any Foreign postage which shall be chargeable thereon.

And we further direct that the several terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said recited Act.

And we further direct that this Warrant shall come into operation on the first day of June next.

Provided lastly, and we hereby declare and direct that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, by Warrant duly made, at any time hereafter to alter or repeal any of the rates hereby altered, or the regulations hereby made, and to make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time to appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.

Whitehall, Treasury-Chambers, the sixteenth day of May 1857.

DUNCAN,

H. BRAND.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 6th day of May 1857.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter seventy-nine, intituled "An Act to carry into effect a Convention between Her Majesty and the King of the French, concerning the Fisheries in the Seas between the British Islands and France," it is enacted by section four, that it shall be lawful for the Lords of the Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council appointed for Trade and Foreign Plantations, from time to time, as may become necessary, to make and ordain such Rules and Bye-laws as to them shall seem expedient for the more effectual performance of the said Convention, and of the Articles set forth in the Schedule annexed to the said Act, and from time to time to annul or alter the same, and substitute others instead thereof; provided always, that all such Rules and Bye-laws shall be approved by Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council:

And whereas, by the said Articles, numbered forty-five and forty-six respectively, it is provided (Art. 45,) that oyster-fishing shall open on the first of September, and shall close on the thirtieth of April, and (Art. 46) that from the first of May to the thirty-first of August, being what are commonly called the close months, no boat shall have on board any dredge or other implement whatsoever for catching oysters:

And whereas, by section nine of the said Act, it is enacted that it shall be lawful for such officers and petty officers of Her Majesty's Navy or Revenue Service, and for such Officers and Men of the Coast Guard stations as shall be thereunto authorised by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs, and such persons as shall be appointed by the Lords of the said Committee, subject to such directions as the Lords of the said Committee shall from time to time think fit to prescribe, to go on board any British vessel employed in fishing, and examine the certificate of registry, and nets, instruments, and implements of fishing belonging to or used with such vessel, and whether the regulations of this Act have been complied with, and whether the Master or other persons on board such vessel are carrying on the said fishery in the manner thereby required, and to seize any nets, instruments, or implements of fishing which are illegal, or used contrary to the provisions of the said Act:

And whereas, by section six of the said Act, with the view not to interfere further than is necessary for giving full effect to the said Convention and Articles, with the provisions of an Act passed in the fifth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to regulate the Irish Fisheries," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Lords of the said Committee, by a Rule or Rules to be made by them, from time to time, and approved of by Her Majesty in Council, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to suspend the operation of the said Act and Articles with respect to the fisheries on the coast of Ireland:

And whereas a Rule to that effect was accordingly made and duly approved of by Her Majesty in Council on the twenty-third day of August one thousand eight hundred and forty-three:

And whereas, by another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter one hundred and one, intituled "An Act for the more effectual execution of the Convention between Her Majesty and the French Government concerning the Fisheries in the Seas between the British Islands and France," and which is directed to be read and construed together with the said recited Act of the sixth and seventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty as one Act, it is enacted, by section one, that it shall be lawful for any officers or petty officers belonging to Her Majesty's Navy or Revenue Service, or such officers and men of the Coast Guard stations as may be thereunto authorized by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs, or such persons as may be appointed under the provisions of the said Act by the Lords of the Committee of Her Majesty's Privy Council appointed for Trade and Foreign Plantations, when they go on board any British vessel employed in fishing, to examine whether the regulations of the said first mentioned Act have been complied with, to seize and throw overboard or destroy any oysters found on board such vessel at any time from the first day of May to the thirty-first day of August in any year, as well as to seize and dispose of, in manner provided by the "Customs Consolidation Act, 1853," all dredges and other implements for catching oysters found on board such vessels, and also all dredges and other implements for catching oysters found sunk in or floating upon the seas at any such time as aforesaid; and, by section two, it is enacted that no oysters, taken in the seas between the United Kingdom and France, shall be imported into or landed in any part of the United Kingdom at any time between the first day of May and the thirty-first day of August in any year; and that any oysters imported in, or landed between such days from any vessel employed in fishing in the said seas shall be deemed to be oysters taken and imported contrary to the provisions of the said Articles and of that Act, unless the contrary be proved; and that it shall be lawful for any officer of the Customs, or any person who may be appointed under the provisions of the said first-recited Act, by the Lords of the said Committee of Council, to seize and destroy, or otherwise dispose of, as the Commissioners of the Customs or the Lords of the said Committee may direct, any oysters imported into or landed in any part of the United Kingdom contrary to the said last-mentioned provision:

And whereas the Lords of the said Committee have, in pursuance of the powers vested in them by the said recited Act of the sixth and seventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty, duly made and ordained, and have submitted for the approval of Her Majesty, the following Rules or Bye-laws for the more effectual observance of the said Convention and Articles, and of the said recited Acts; that is to say:—

RULE I. The several officers or persons who are or may be from time to time authorized by or under the said recited Acts, to seize dredges or other implements used or employed in taking or catching oysters in the seas between the British Islands and France, or to seize oysters taken or brought into the United Kingdom during the said close months, that is to say, from the first day of May to the last day of August in every year, are required to use all diligence in enforcing the observance of the provisions of the said Convention and Articles, and of the said recited Acts; and for that purpose, during the said close months, to make seizure of all such dredges and other implements as aforesaid, used for taking oysters, and of all oysters, oyster brood or spat taken and found on board any vessel in contravention of the said Convention, Articles, and Acts, and to proceed to the forfeiture thereof and the recovery of such penalties as shall or may have been incurred by the parties found using or having in their possession such dredges or other implements as aforesaid, but so, nevertheless, as not to interfere with the rights and interests of the owners of any private oyster beds or layings on the coasts of Great Britain, or in the bays, estuaries, and rivers thereof, within the British fishery limits, so far as regards the preservation and propagation of oysters therein, and the removal thereof from one bed or laying to another, or from one part of such bed or laying to another part of the same, under and subject to the following Rules.

RULE II.—No person shall, during the said close months, be allowed to dredge for, or in any manner take oysters, oyster brood or spat, on any part of the said coasts of Great Britain, or the bays, estuaries, or rivers thereof, within the British fishery limits, nor to use or have on board any dredge or implement for that purpose; nor to take or have on board any oysters, oyster brood, or spat, except for the preservation and propagation of oysters, or the working or replenishing of such beds or layings as may require the same, or for the removal of oysters, oyster brood, or spat, to other beds more contiguous to, or convenient for the market, nor without a special licence, under the hand of the collector, comptroller, or other principal officer of the customs of the port or place within which such oyster beds or layings are situate, nor, in any case, for any longer time than shall be prescribed by such licence.

RULE III.—No person shall, during the said close months, be allowed to remove any oysters, oyster brood, or spat, from the beds or layings in any port or place within the said British fishery limits, to any other beds or layings in any other port or place, without a licence or transire for that purpose, under the hand of the Collector, Comptroller, or other principal officer of the Customs of the port or place whence the same shall be so removed, addressed to the Collector or Comptroller, or other principal officer of the Customs of the port or place where the bed or laying at which the same are to be deposited is situate. Provided always, that no such licence or transire shall be granted for removal of such oysters, oyster brood, or spat, under this rule, until the person requiring to remove the same shall have given bond to Her Majesty for the due removal and deposit thereof at the place of destination, within such time, and in such penal sum, not being less than one hundred pounds, as the Collector, Comptroller, or other such principal officer as aforesaid, may require.

RULE IV.—The foregoing Rule shall be held to apply to the removal to oyster beds or layings on the coasts of Great Britain, within the British fishery limits, of oysters, oyster brood, or spat, taken or dredged during the said close months on the coasts of Ireland, under the authority of the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland, by virtue of any Act or Acts to regulate the Irish fisheries.

Now therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth hereby approve of the foregoing Rules or Bye-laws, and doth hereby order and direct that the same shall take effect and come into operation at the end of one week from and after the first publication thereof in the London Gazette.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Commissioners of the Customs, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

KEITH AND DUFFTOWN RAILWAY.

Deviation of Railway through Part of the Lands of Drummuir,

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that the Promoters of the "Keith and Dufftown Railway (No. 2) Bill," now before Parliament, intend to apply for leave to introduce into the said Bill all necessary provisions for enabling them to deviate the route of the said proposed Railway through part of the Lands of Drummuir, in the Parish of Botriphnie.

The said deviation will be wholly situate in the said Parish of Botriphnie, in the County of Banff, and will commence at a point in or near a field or piece of ground about 190 yards or thereby east from the Free Church of Botriphnie, and terminate at a point on the Commutation Road, about 170 yards or thereby south from the Sawmill at Lochpark, all being part of the Lands of Drummuir, in the said Parish of Botriphnie.

For the purposes of the said deviation, it is intended to apply for powers for the compulsory purchase of Lands, Houses, and other property, and to vary and extinguish all such rights and privileges as may be necessary.

AND NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, that a Plan and Section showing the Line and Levels of the proposed deviation, with a Book of Reference to the said Plan, containing the Names of the Owners or Reputed Owners, Lessees or Reputed Lessees, and Occupiers of the Property to be taken, and a copy of this Notice, will be deposited for public inspection, on or before the 18th day of May 1857, with the Principal Sheriff-Clerk for the County of Banff, at his Office at Banff, and with the Schoolmaster of the said Parish of Botriphnie, at his place of abode.

INGLIS & LESLIE, W.S., Edinburgh.
EDWD. MORTIMER, Banff.

Dated this Eleventh day of May 1857.

ORKNEY ROADS.

(Amendment or Repeal of Act; New Roads and Bridges.)

NOTICE is Hereby Given, That application is intended to be made to Parliament in the present Session, under the provisions of "A Bill" for more effectually making, repairing, and maintaining, the Highways, Roads, and Bridges, "within the County of Orkney, and for other purposes," introduced in the last Session of Parliament, and again introduced in the present Session thereof, for powers to deviate in the manner and to the extent shewn on the Plan and Section of such deviation after mentioned, a portion of the intended Main Line of Road between Stromness and Kirkwall, as shewn upon the Plans deposited with the Sheriff-Clerk of the County of Orkney on or before the 30th day of November last, with reference to the said Bill, between the point where the intended new line of Road to Sandwick diverges from the said intended Main Line of Road between Stromness and Kirkwall and the point where the said Main Line of Road is intended to cross the outlet from the Loch of Stenness to the Sea at Waith, and which deviation will be wholly situate in the Parish of Stromness, and County of Orkney.

AND NOTICE is also given, that a Plan and Section describing the Line and level of the said intended deviation, and the lands and property which may be required to be taken for the purposes thereof respectively, together with a book of reference to such Plan, containing the names of the Owners or reputed Owners, Lessees or reputed Lessees, and Occupiers of such lands and property were, on or before the Eleventh Day of May current, deposited for public inspection with the principal Sheriff Clerk for the County of Orkney, at his Office in Kirkwall, and also with the Schoolmaster of the said Parish of Stromness, at his place of abode. Dated the Twelfth Day of May, 1857,
