

All steam ships leaving any port or ports in the United Kingdom for New York, or any port in the United States, north of New York,

Will pass the said lighthouse, and will derive benefit therefrom.

Now therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers vested in Her by the said recited Act, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to direct that from and after the date of this present Order, the dues in respect of the said lighthouse upon Cape Race, to be paid for every such ship as aforesaid, except ships belonging to Her Majesty, Her heirs and successors, shall be one sixteenth of a penny per ton of the burthen of every such ship, for every such voyage as aforesaid.

But no such dues as aforesaid shall be levied in any colony, unless and until the legislative authority in such colony has, either by address to the Crown or by an Act or Ordinance duly passed, signified its opinion that the same ought to be levied in such colony.
