NORTHERN LIGHTHOUSES.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

FIVE ADDITIONAL LIGHTHOUSES ON THE WEST COAST OF SCOTLAND.

THE Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses hereby give notice, that on the night of Tuesday the 10th day of November next, and every night thereafter, from the going away of daylight in the evening to the return of daylight in the morning, lights will be exhibited from the under-mentioned Lighthouses, the positions and characteristics of which have been specified by Messrs David and Thomas Stevenson, the Engineers to the Board, as follows:—

1. Ushenish—South Uist.

Ushenish Lighthouse is situated on the most easterly headland on the eastern side of the Island of South Uist, one of the Hebrides, in the county of Inverness.

The light will be a dioptric first-class fixed red light, and will be exhibited from a tower of masonry erected on the headland. The light will be about 176 feet above high water of spring-tides, and will be seen in clear weather at the distance of about eighteen nautic miles, allowing ten feet for the height of the eye, and at lesser distances according to the state of the atmosphere.

2. Rona.

Rona Lighthouse is situated on the northern end of the Island of Rona, in Inverness-shire, between the west coast of Ross-shire and the Island of Skye.

The light will be a catadioptric second class holophotal flashing white light, showing a flash every twelve seconds. It will be exhibited from a tower of masonry erected on a peak at the north-east point of the island. It is elevated about 222 feet above high water of spring tides, and will be seen in clear weather at the distance of about twenty nautic miles, allowing ten feet for the height of the eye, and at lesser distances according to the state of the atmosphere.

3. Kyleakin.

Kyleakin Lighthouse is situated on a point of rock which covers at high water spring tides, and projects from the west end of Eilan Dool, or Gillean Island, in Ross-shire, at the western entrance of "The Narrows," leading to Loch Alsh. The tower is about fifty-three yards within the high-water mark of spring tides, and is connected with the island by a bridge of five spans.

The light will be an Azimuthal Condensing Light, and will show a fixed white light in the fairway of the Sound of Loch Alsh, and a fixed white light in the fairway leading to the Sound of Applecross, and which white light extends southwards to Pabba Island.

From thence it will show a fixed red light, extending eastwards along the shore of Skye to the south of the fairway of Loch Alsh. It will also show a fixed red light to the north-eastwards of the fairway to the sound of Applecross.

To the north of the fairway of Loch Alsh, the light will not be shown.

It will be exhibited from a tower of masonry about fifty-three feet above high water of spring tides, and will be seen in clear weather at the distance of about eleven nautic miles, allowing ten feet for the height of the eye, and at lesser distances according to the state of the atmosphere.

4. Isle Oronsay.

Isle Oronsay Lighthouse is situated on a low point at the south-east end of the Island of Oronsay, Inverness-shire, in the Sound of Skye, also called Sound of Sleat.

The light will be an Azimuthal Condensing Light, and will show a fixed white light from a tower of masonry about fifty-eight feet above high water of spring tides. The light will be seen in clear weather about twelve nautic miles, allowing ten feet for the height of the eye, and at lesser distances according to the state of the atmosphere.

5. Sound of Mull.

The Sound of Mull Lighthouse is situated on a small rock called Runa Gall, on the south shore of the Sound of Mull, Argyllshire, about one mile northwards from Tobermory. The tower is about fifty yards within the high-water mark of spring tides, and is connected with the shore by a bridge of two spans.

The light will be an Azimuthal Condensing Light, and will show a fixed red light, northwards out to sea; a fixed green light towards the New Rocks, the Red Rocks, and the Stirks Rocks, in the Sound of Mull; a fixed white light southwards into the Sound of Mull.

The light will be exhibited from a tower of masonry about fifty-five feet above high water of spring tides, and will be seen in clear weather at the distance of about twelve nautic miles, allowing ten feet for the height of the eye, and at lesser distances according to the state of the atmosphere.

And the said Commissioners hereby further give notice, that under a Warrant by Her Majesty in Council, dated the 27th day of August 1857, the following tolls will become leviable on and after the said 10th day of November next, viz:—

For every British vessel and for every Foreign vessel privileged to enter the ports of the United Kingdom upon paying the same duties as are payable by British vessels, which may pass or derive benefit from each of the said lights, the toll of eight-sixteenths of a penny per ton of the burthen of every such vessel, for every time of passing or deriving benefit therefrom, if on an oversea voyage, and one-sixteenth of a penny per ton for each time of passing or deriving benefit therefrom if on a coasting voyage, and for every Foreign vessel not privileged in manner before mentioned, double the amount of the respective tolls before specified, according to the voyage on which she may be employed. And the said tolls, in respect of each of the said lighthouses, are to be levied by the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, subject to the abatement or discount of 25 per cent. on vessels engaged in oversea voyages, and of 10 per cent. on vessels engaged in coasting voyages, provided for by an Order in Council dated the 26th June 1855; and subject also to the further abatement or discount of 15 per cent. on vessels engaged in oversea voyages, and of 15 per cent. on vessels engaged on coasting voyages, provided for by an Order in Council dated the 20th day of March 1857, and subject also to the regulations and exemptions contained in the Consolidated Tables of Light Duties sanctioned by Order in Council, dated the 26th day of June 1855.

By Order of the Board,

ALEX. CUNNINGHAM, Secretary.
