TO THE CREDITORS OF

ROBERT MACLAGAN, of Wood Street, Cheapside, London, Merchant.

The trustee on Mr MacLagan's sequestrated estate requests a general meeting of the creditors, in the Royal Exchange Coffee-house, Edinburgh, on Tuesday the 14th day of January next, at two o'clock P. M. to give directions relative to the heritable property, and other business of importance.

TO THE CREDITORS OF

JOHN McDONALD, Cattle Dealer or Drover at Dalindurg of Lochaber.

The trustee intimates, that he has made up a state of the bankrupt's affairs, which will lie with Alex. McDonnell, writer in Inverness, his factor, till the 12th January next, when the creditors are requested to meet, within the house of Mrs Robert Ettles, vintner in Inverness, at 12 o'clock noon, to give directions relative to the trust funds. The trustee further intimates, that, from the terms of the sales of the stocking, no dividend could hitherto take place; but as it is likely that shall happen soon, and only few creditors have given in their claims, the creditors at large are again requested to do so on or before the 12th day of May next; certifying, that if they fail to lodge their claims, with oaths of verity on the same, they will not be entitled to a share in the first dividend.

Not to be repeated.
