

Every packet transmitted by the post under the 7th, 8th, 9th, and 10th Clauses of this Warrant, shall be sent open at the ends or sides, and either without a cover, or in a cover or envelope open at the ends or sides.

There shall be no word or communication printed on any newspaper transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant after the publication thereof, or upon any cover thereof, nor any writing or marks upon any such newspaper, or upon any cover thereof, other than and except the name and address of the person to whom the same is sent, but the name or title of such newspaper, and the name and address of the publisher, newsvendor, or agent, by whom the same is sent, may be printed on the cover thereof.

There shall be no paper or thing enclosed in or with any such newspaper.

No packet transmitted by the post under the 10th clause of this Warrant shall contain any written letter, either closed or open, nor any written communication in the nature of a letter, either closed or open (whether such letter or communication be addressed to, or intended for, the person to whom the packet shall be directed, or any other person), nor any inclosure sealed, or otherwise closed against inspection, nor shall there be any other inclosure, not authorized by this Warrant, sent in or with any such packet, nor shall there be any written letter or any written communication in the nature of a letter, in or upon any such packet, or on the cover or envelope thereof.

Every packet transmitted by the post under the 7th, 8th, 9th, and 10th clauses of this Warrant, and posted in the United Kingdom, shall be put into the Post-office at such hours in the day, and under all such regulations as the Postmaster-General may appoint.

Upon every packet transmitted by the post under the 10th clause of this Warrant, which shall be posted in the United Kingdom or Liberia, the postage thereof shall be paid at the time of the same being posted.

12. If any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered, in order to be sent by the post under the 7th, 8th, 9th, and 10th clauses of this Warrant, shall in length, or breadth, or width, exceed the dimensions of two feet, or if any such packet, or the cover, or envelope thereof, shall not be open at the ends or sides, or if any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered, in order to be sent by the post, under the 7th, 8th, and 9th clauses of this Warrant, shall be sent otherwise than in conformity with the terms, conditions, and regulations established by or under the authority of this Warrant, or if any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered, in order to be sent by the post, under the 10th clause of this Warrant, shall contain any written letter, or any written communication in the nature of a letter, or if there shall be any written letter, or any written communication in the nature of a letter, on any such last-mentioned packet, or on the cover or envelope thereof (whether such letter or communication be addressed to or intended for the person to whom the packet shall be directed, or any other person), every such respective packet shall and may be detained and opened, and, at the option of the Postmaster-General, shall be either returned or given up to the sender thereof, and every such respective packet, on being so returned or given up, shall be chargeable with the like amount of postage to which it would have been liable as a letter.

13. If any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered, in order to be sent by the post, under the 10th clause of this Warrant, between the United Kingdom and Liberia (any such packet posted in London, and sent from any department or office in or connected with the public service of Her Majesty, which shall keep a postage-account with the General Post-office in London, and the postage thereof being charged in such account only excepted), shall be posted in the United Kingdom or Liberia with a postage paid thereon less in amount than the rate of postage to which such packet would be liable under and by virtue of the regulations hereinbefore contained, but equal in amount to the single rate of postage which would be chargeable under this Warrant, if such packet did not exceed four ounces in weight, every such packet shall be forwarded, charged with the amount of the difference between the postage so paid thereon, and the postage to which such packet would be liable as aforesaid, together with a further and additional rate of postage, equal in amount to the single rate of postage chargeable under the 10th clause of this Warrant on a packet not exceeding four ounces in weight; but if any such packet shall be posted in the United Kingdom or Liberia, with a postage paid thereon less in amount than the single rate of postage chargeable under the 10th clause of this Warrant, or if any packet sent, or tendered, or delivered, in order to be sent by the post under the 10th clause of this Warrant, between the United Kingdom and Liberia (any such packet posted in London, and sent from any department or office in or connected with the public service of Her Majesty, which shall keep a postage-account with the General Post-office in London, and the postage thereof being charged in such account only excepted), shall be posted in the United Kingdom or Liberia, without any postage being paid thereon, every such respective packet shall and may be detained and opened, and, at the option of the Postmaster-General, shall be dealt with and chargeable in like manner as is hereinbefore directed with respect to any packet not open at the ends or sides, or not exceeding in length, or breadth, or width, the dimensions of two feet.

14. The respective letters and packets transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant shall be subject to the several orders, directions, regulations, and rates of postage respectively contained in a certain Warrant of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury under the hands of two of the said Commissioners, bearing date the 19th day of February 1855, relating to re-directed rates of postage upon letters and packets which shall be re-directed and again forwarded by the post.

15. The rates of postage chargeable on letters printed newspapers, books, publications, or works of literature or art, and other printed papers transmitted by the post under the provisions of this Warrant, shall be in lieu of any rates of British postage now chargeable by law thereon.

16. The several terms and expressions used in this Warrant shall be construed to have the like meaning in all respects as they would have had if inserted in the said Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty.

17. The Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury may, by warrant under their hands, duly made, at any time hereafter, repeal, or revoke any of the rates of postage hereby fixed or altered, or any of the orders, directions, regulations, and conditions hereinbefore
