WHITEHALL, March 15, 1858.

THE following Address of Congratulation to the Queen, on the occasion of the Marriage of Her Royal Highness the Princess Royal with His Royal Highness Prince Frederick William of Prussia, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for the Home Department for presentation, has accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

To The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

We, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Huntingdon, in Common Council assembled, approach the Throne with the strongest feelings of devoted attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family, offering our humble but sincere congratulations on the Marriage of the Princess Royal of England with His Royal Highness Prince Frederick William of Prussia.

Whilst participating with the deepest sympathy and unfeigned satisfaction in your Majesty's maternal feelings in the loss, as well as anxious hope for the welfare and happiness of a beloved daughter, we would feign trust that the auspicious event, bringing increased joy and happiness to our beloved Princess, will tend at the same time to cement more closely the friendly relations now existing between your Majesty's Kingdom and that of Prussia.

That our beloved Princess, trained as she has been with every fostering care, and guided by the brightest example, will fulfil the fondest hopes, and prove a crown of joy to the illustrious Prince we doubt not; and to the wish that the Almighty Disposer of events may bless the Marriage, shedding around every earthly happiness, we would humbly add a prayer that He will see fit to continue to your Majesty, and every member of your august family, the blessings of health and happiness.

Given under our Common Seal, at Huntingdon, in the county of Huntingdon, this 12th day of February 1858.

W. WARD, Mayor.

WHITEHALL, March 13, 1858.
