WHITEHALL, March 18, 1858.

THE following Address of Congratulation to the Queen, on the occasion of the Marriage of Her Royal Highness the Princess Royal with His Royal Highness Prince Frederick William of Prussia, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for the Home Department for presentation, has accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

To The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Yeovil, in the county of Somerset, humbly beg leave to approach your Majesty's Throne with our hearty congratulations on the auspicious Marriage of Her Royal Highness the Princess Royal with His Royal Highness Prince Frederick William of Prussia.

The universal joy evinced throughout the kingdom at this happy event is, we trust, a fresh proof to your Majesty of the attachment of your loving subjects to your Majesty's person and family; and the enthusiastic welcome with which Her Royal Highness has been received by the Prussian Nation, manifests how heartily this feeling is shared by our ancient ally, and must afford an additional assurance that your Majesty and your Royal Consort may, with God's blessing, confidently rely on the future and permanent happiness of your beloved daughter.

Given under our Common Seal this 8th day of March 1858.
