INDIA BOARD, March 30, 1858.

THE following Papers have been received at the East India House:—

No. 1.

GENERAL ORDERS BY THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL OF INDIA IN COUNCIL.

Fort-William, January 21, 1858.

No. 111 of 1858.

In continuation of Governor General's Order, No. 1383, of the 5th of November 1857, the Right Honourable the Governor-General of India in Council has much satisfaction in publishing the following letters* from Major-General Sir A. Wilson, K.C.B., lately in command of the Delhi Field Force, bringing to notice the services of certain officers which were not referred to in his previous despatch, and to whom his Lordship in Council offers his warm acknowledgments of their excellent service.

No. 2.

Major-General A. Wilson, Commandant of Artillery, and late Commanding Delhi Field Force, to the Assistant Adjutant-General of the Army, Head-Quarters.

Head-Quarters of Artillery,
Meerut, December 21, 1857.

Sir, No. 812.

As an addenda to my despatch of the 22d of September last, I have the honour to request you will submit to his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, for the purpose of being forwarded to Government, the name of Brevet-Colonel J. Welchman, of the 1st European Bengal Fusiliers, among the names of those officers who have done good service with the force before Delhi, but were wounded previous to the assault. Colonel Welchman commanded his regiment from the commencement of operations, and led his men with cool and steady gallantry on several occasions, particularly in the action of Budlee Serai on the 8th; again, on the 20th and on the 23d of June, when he was severely wounded, when leading on his regiment in the attack on the Zubzee Mundee.

* No. 812, dated December 21, 1857; No. 8, dated January 5, 1858; No — dated January 5, 1858.

His name was unintentionally, and through an oversight, omitted in my former despatch.

2. I beg also to forward a copy of a report from Captain Muter, Her Majesty's 60th Royal Rifles, who succeeded to the command of the 4th column of attack, bringing to notice the services of a detachment of Mooltanee Horse under the command of Lieutenant Lind on the morning of the 14th of September.

3. Major F. Gaitskell, commanding the Artillery Brigade with the Field Force, has also requested that the name of Lieutenant G. A. Renny, commanding the 5th Troop, 1st Brigade, Horse Artillery, may be inserted immediately after that of Captain Blunt in the 8th paragraph of his despatch, No. 20, of the 19th of September, the services of this officer entitling him to this recognition, which was accidentally omitted.

I have, &c.,

A. WILSON, Major-General,
Commandant of Artillery and late Commanding Delhi Field Force.

No. 3.

Captain Muter to the Assistant Adjutant-General, Delhi Field Force.

Sir, Palace, Delhi, December 11, 1857.

I HAVE the honour to enclose a report from Lieutenant Lind, detailing the operations of a force of 300 sabres of the Mooltanee Horse under his command, in conjunction with Major Reid's column of attack on Kishengunge, on the 14th of September last.

I trust it is not too late to bring to the notice of Major-General Wilson, then commanding the Field Force, and his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, the services of this officer and his party.

The position in which the column of attack was placed was very critical, and had I been aware that this cavalry was on our right flank, I should have felt much greater confidence. Lieutenant Lind's movements appear to me to have been very judicious, and I should not have failed to bring this to the notice of the General Command, had I been earlier acquainted with the circumstances.

I have, &c.,

D. D. MUTER, Captain,
Her Majesty's 1st Battalion 60th Royal Rifles.

No. 4.

Lieutenant Lind to Captain Muter.

Camp Gohana, Rohtuk District,
December 8, 1857.

SIR,

HAVING omitted at the time to send in a report after the fight at Kishengunge on the 14th of September last, I would request the favour of your forwarding this letter to the Adjutant-General of the Army, in order that, if possible, the Mooltanee Cavalry may appear in the Gazette as engaged. At 3 A.M. of the 14th of September, Brigadier-General Nicholson directed me to proceed to Hindoo Rao's with 300 sabres of the Mooltanee Cavalry, and to place myself under Major Reid's orders. Major Reid ordered me to go to the Zubzee Munde and await further orders there. In the Zubzee Munde I found 2 horse artillery guns and a regiment of Cashmeerees. These latter were soon engaged, and left my front open, when I proceeded along the road towards the Kishengunge. I found no ground for cavalry to act on, and lost a few men and horses killed and wounded. An alarm was now raised that the enemy had got into our rear, so I returned up the Zubzee Munde, and drove out some Sepoys who had got into the street and were preparing to take possession of the houses. I was then returning to my former position, when the Guide Cavalry (who had mistaken my men from their white dresses to be the enemy) were sent to charge me. By the advice of the officer commanding the Guides, and seeing that the 2 horse artillery guns before mentioned had limbered up and were returning up the Zubzee Munde, I withdrew my cavalry into the plain, between the Mound and the Zubzee Munde picquet, where I got ground to act on and could prevent the enemy's cavalry from coming down on our rear, should they have attempted it. Whilst here, Colonel Dennis, Her Majesty's 52d Light Infantry, sent me an order to retire on the Fukeer's Tukea, and to remain as a support to 4 horse artillery guns at that post, which I obeyed, and was employed on that duty till the guns were withdrawn on the 20th of September.

2. I annex a return of my loss in killed and wounded.

I have, &c.,

J. B. LIND, Lieut.,
Commanding Mooltanee Cavalry.

No. 5.

Major-General A. Wilson, Commandant of Artillery, and late commanding Delhi Field Force, to the Deputy Adjutant-General of the Army, Head-Quarters, Camp.

Head-Quarters of Artillery,
Meerut, January 5, 1858.

(No. 8.)

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to forward, for submission to his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief, copy of a letter No. 27, dated the 3d of October last, from Major F. Gaitskell, commanding the Artillery Brigade with the Delhi Field Force, transmitting a despatch of the 1st idem from Major J. Brind, bringing to notice the services performed by the Foot Artillery under his command, during the operations against the city of Delhi.

2. These letters reached me too late, I regret to say, to accompany my despatches detailing the assault and capture of that place, and have subsequently been delayed owing to my having been absent on medical certificate. They bear, however, such honourable testimony to the admirable services of Major J. Brind, and those under his command, that I trust his Excellency will be pleased to forward them to the Right Honourable the Governor-General in Council, with the expression of my hope that they may be published in continuation of my previous despatches.

I have, &c.,

A. WILSON, Major-General,
Commandant of Artillery, and late Commanding
Delhi Field Force.

No. 6.

Major Gaitskell to the Assistant Adjutant-General.

SIR,

Delhi, October 3, 1857.

I HAVE great pleasure in forwarding, for submission to the Major-General Commanding the regiment, the accompanying excellent report received by me from Major J. Brind, commanding the Foot Artillery of this force, bringing to notice the services of that branch, from the time he took command (26th June 1857), until the more active operations of the siege commenced, embracing a period of 2½ months, during which the Foot Artillery were in constant employment and undergoing the severest daily exposure.

2. The services of the officers and men under his command are so well and strongly brought to notice by Major Brind, that I can only record my entire concurrence in his report. No officers or soldiers could have conducted themselves in a more zealous or gallant manner than did those of the Foot Artillery, or in a manner more likely to add fresh lustre to the regiment.

3. But in thus doing only justice to such gallant soldiers, I should consider I was neglecting a most important and a most agreeable duty, were I to abstain from bringing prominently to the notice of the Major-General Commanding the regiment the valuable and distinguished services of Major Brind himself whilst in command of the Foot Artillery. From first to last his energy and activity have been unceasing, ever foremost where danger was greatest, encouraging both officers and men by his noble example, and whilst leading on those under him to every success in the field, he at the same time never ceased to care for their wants and necessities in camp.

The manner in which Major Brind exercised, without one hour's intermission, his command of No. 1 Siege Battery, during the last eight days of the siege, has already been brought to the notice of the Major-General commanding the force, and I trust this last distinguished period of his command (previous to the assault) will only tend the more surely to gain for Major Brind those honours which he so richly merits.

I have, &c.,

F. GAITSKELL, Major,
Commanding Artillery Brigade.

No. 7.

Major Brind, to Lieutenant Frith, Horse Artillery,
Major of Brigade, Artillery Brigade.

SIR,

Delhi, October 1, 1858.

ON the close of active operations connected with the siege of Delhi, I feel it a duty I owe to officers and men belonging to, or doing duty with the Foot Artillery, which I have commanded since the 26th June, to bring their conduct to the notice of Major-General A. Wilson, Commandant of Artillery, and holding the chief command of this victorious army.

It would be superfluous in me to attempt any detailed report of the unceasing labours, exposure to sun and wet, and dangers from the constant presence of an active and treacherous enemy, to which the Foot Artillery was unavoidably exposed during the three months I have had the privilege of commanding it. As the commanding officer is fully aware of the peculiar circumstances under which this branch of the army especially, has been placed, gathered from various stations and sent down in small detachments (with little more than the clothes on their backs) by bullock train, the Foot Artillery were called upon by the exigencies of the service to endure hardships beyond others. No soldiers could have gone through the trials and dangers their Country's cause imposed upon them in a more cheerful spirit, or with braver hearts, than did the Bengal Artillery attached to the army of Delhi during this eventful period; and without disparagement to the mounted portion of the regiment, of whose noble conduct, as passing under my observation during eight days and nights of constant danger and laborious exertion in No. 1 Breaching Battery, it has been my proud honour to report, I consider it an imperative duty to thus publicly express my admiration of officers and men who have made my post one of honour and comparative ease.

If I have performed my duty to the satisfaction of Major-General Wilson, it is mainly owing to the favourable position in which I have been placed, and the health and strength with which I have been blessed.

Major Scott and Captain Bouchier's batteries, though forming a portion of my command, have not come so directly under my observation, owing to the detached nature of their duties; but I have much gratification in attesting to the satisfactory state of discipline and efficiency of the two batteries, which justified me in feeling and placing the fullest confidence in these two officers, and merely requesting that they would promptly carry out any orders received from the authorities, referring to me only when my support or assistance was required. Major Scott and his command, by gallant services in the field of battle, had established a reputation previous to my arrival at Delhi, which though fully appreciating and rejoicing in it, it is not my province to allude to in this report. Since leaving Delhi with the moveable column, Captain Bouchier and the officers and men connected with him, have had an opportunity of proving themselves worthy members of the Bengal Artillery.

I take this opportunity of remarking that the sluggish and generally unsatisfactory way in which the Seikh Artillery, belonging more especially to the 2d and 3d Companies, performed their duties previous to the 7th of September, has been more than blotted out by the zeal and bravery evinced by this branch of our regiment during the siege. Some, and amongst them are commissioned and non-commissioned officers, are, from various defects, unfit for the service, and as Sir John Lawrence recommended the step, I would suggest that these men be returned to their homes via Lahore, and the distinguished promoted in their stead. This would leave us two effective companies.

In expressing the high satisfaction I experienced in observing the zealous performance of duty on the part of the Foot Artillery with the army of Delhi, I consider it incumbent on me to bring to the special notice of Major-General Wilson, the officers and men of Her Majesty's 9th Lancers, who were employed in the batteries as artillerymen, under my command and observation. Lieutenants Evans and Blair are deserving of honourable mention for the zealous and cheerful performance of their duties. The coolness and bravery of officers and men in situations of extreme danger, whilst engaged in a novel duty, called forth the admiration of all who witnessed, and especially of those who had the satisfaction of serving with them.

Lieutenant Boileau, of Her Majesty's 61st Foot, also distinguished himself most honourably, previously to his gallant services in No. 1, Breaching Battery, as did a most deserving and brave young officer, Lieutenant Ward, of the late 5th Regiment Native Infantry, during and previous to the assault.

The following are the artillery officers doing duty under my command, whose zeal, ability, and coolness in situations of great danger, called forth my especial approbation and thanks:—

Lieutenant A. H. Heath,
 ... J. Fulton,
 ... Sir W. Hamilton,
 ... E. L. Earle,
 ... R. T. Hare,
 ... R. de L. St George,
 ... H. Chichester,
 ... D. S. Pemberton, and

Lieutenant Simon Budd, Riding-Master, 1st Brigade Horse Artillery, whose long and faithful services are on record at Regimental Head-Quarters, and Lieutenant T. E. Dickins, who was killed in action whilst serving his gun in a most effective and gallant way.

It is now my melancholy task to notice most prominently one of our bravest and brightest ornaments, who has run his course, Captain Robert Fagan, the able and gallant officer who fell mortally wounded on the 12th ultimo, after winning the honest admiration of all. Lieutenant Hildebrand, killed in the battery I had the honour to command, as shown in my report of the services of No. 1 Breaching Battery, was a zealous and gallant officer.

I have, &c.,

JAMES BRIND, Major,
 Commanding Foot Artillery with
 Army of Delhi.

No. 8.

Major-General A. Wilson, late Commanding Delhi Field Force, to the Deputy Adjutant-General of the Army.

SIR,
 Head-Quarters, Camp,
 Meerut, January 5, 1858.

THROUGH an oversight which I much regret, the name of Surgeon J. C. Brown, in medical charge of the 3d Brigade Horse Artillery, was omitted in my despatch dated the 22d of September last, as one of those officers of the medical branch entitled to particular mention for the zeal and ability with which they discharged their important duties during the operations before Delhi.

2. In justice to this deserving officer, I trust his Excellency the Commander-in-Chief will be pleased to forward to the Right Honourable the Governor-General my request that his name may be inserted immediately after that of Superintendent-Surgeon C. McKinnon, M.D., in the despatch adverted to.

I have, &c.,

A. WILSON, Major General,
 late Commanding Delhi Field Force.
