DE LA WARR,
Lord Chamberlain.

WHITEHALL, June 3, 1858.

The following Addresses of Congratulation to the Queen, on the occasion of the Marriage of Her Royal Highness the Princess Royal with His Royal Highness Prince Frederick William of Prussia, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for the Home Department for presentation, have accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

May it please your Majesty,

ON this day, the anniversary of our beloved Sovereign's birth, We, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, met in General Assembly, most gladly embrace the opportunity of recording our gratitude to Almighty God, who has hitherto spread over you the buckler of His protection, so that your peace and safety have hitherto been secured not by hosts of embattled warriors, nor by the terrors of vindictive justice, but by the perfect love which casteth out fear, and the moral admiration due to a monarch whose placid dignity and calm benevolence are conspicuous not merely in the halls of her palaces, and in the presence of the great, but in all places of her dominion, so as to be irresistibly impressed on the hearts of the most obscure and lowly, as well as the highest and mightiest in the land.

While we pray for the prolongation of a life so precious in the estimation of all the inhabitants of this great Empire, we gladly embrace this opportunity of transmitting our fervent congratulations to your Majesty, and to His Royal Highness the Prince Consort, on the late auspicious occasion of the Marriage of the eldest born of the Royal Family, the Princess Royal, to a Prince whose high character and distinguished endowments have secured for him the enthusiastic admiration and affection of the inhabitants of this United Kingdom, as well as of his native land. We cordially participate in the delight which this conjugal union must have yielded to the parental hearts of your Majesty and the Prince Consort, and we cannot for a moment doubt that in this loyal feeling the hearts of our fellow-subjects universally sympathise.

We earnestly trust that the prospects of domestic felicity arising from this matrimonial union will be amply realised, and that, along with the fulfilment of a hope so pleasing, other beneficial results may be anticipated, having a direct tendency to work out and to perpetuate many great social advantages. The example of an amiable Princess, trained up in the fear of the Lord, adorned by the meekness of wisdom, and familiar with the gentle offices of humanity, and all the choice graces of the female character residing in the heart purified by faith, can scarcely fail ultimately to diffuse a salutary influence, especially when encouraged and aided by the co-operation of a kindred spirit, equally intent on forwarding every undertaking calculated to promote the improvement and happiness of the great family of mankind, along with the more limited interests of country and home, which every patriotic heart refuses to let go. It is our earnest prayer and hope that, through the mercy of the Most High, the Prince and Princess of Prussia may live long in peace and unity, as heirs together of the grace of life, and that, in their days, the Lord God may cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the Nations, so that they may not only witness, but efficiently advance the growth of civilization and sound policy, of legislative wisdom, social order, enlightened education, and religious liberty, with all the hallowed influences which nourish the growth of genuine piety, and insure the removal of long-cherished prejudices, and the disarming of inveterate jealousies, thus persevering in the hallowed endeavour to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace, with such abundant success as to heal the wounds and abolish the enmities of alienated kingdoms, until, in the fulness of the time of the triumphant reign of the Messiah, wars shall cease, and there shall be nothing to hurt or to destroy, for the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the Lord as the waters cover the sea.

Given at Edinburgh, this 24th day of May 1858.

In name of the Assembly,
M. LEISHMAN, Moderator.

To The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Free Church of Scotland in General Assembly convened, approach your Throne with the expression of our heartfelt attachment to your Majesty's person and Government, and our warm and joyful congratulations on the return of this anniversary of your Majesty's birth.

Whilst deploring the confusion, crimes, and cruelties which have taken place in India, and which have involved so many of your Majesty's subjects in sufferings and sorrow, we are grateful to your Majesty for inviting your people to humble themselves in relation to these calamities and their procuring causes, before the Most High, who has all events in His hands. We have cordially responded to your Majesty's call, and with our people have besought the Lord to turn away His judgment, and in the midst of deserved wrath, remember mercy. We rejoice in the prospect of peace and order being established in India, and we earnestly pray that God may be graciously pleased to overrule all events that take place there for the advancement of the cause of Christ, and the promotion of the substantial happiness of the millions of that great country.

We rejoice in your Majesty's family happiness, and contemplate, with admiration and thankfulness, the illustrious example which your Majesty sets in the highest place of the land of those precious domestic virtues on which the welfare of States has its only sure foundation.

We tender our heartfelt congratulations to your Majesty on the marriage of your Majesty's eldest daughter, the Princess Royal. The alliance of your Majesty's beloved child with a young Prince of illustrious descent, of high character, and the heir-presumptive to the Throne of a powerful Protestant Country, sets before your daughter the prospect of a splendid, happy, and useful life, and promises to strengthen the interests of Protestantism, which we believe to be the interests of truth.

That your Majesty may long receive from God's gracious hand the choicest earthly blessings, be spared for many years to adorn the Throne, and to promote the welfare of your Majesty's wide dominions; be richly endued with the saving grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and enjoy that peace of God which passeth all understanding, is the constant earnest prayer of

May it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Free Church of Scotland.

Signed in name and by appointment of the General Assembly of the Free Church of Scotland, at Edinburgh, the 27th day of May 1858 years, by ALEX. BEITH, D.D., Moderator.

WHITEHALL, June 4, 1858.

THE following Address of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland having been transmitted by William David, Earl of Mansfield, K.T., Her Majesty's Commissioner, to the Right Honourable Spencer Horatio Walpole, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been by him presented to the Queen; which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:—

May it please your Majesty,

THE gracious letter with which your Majesty has been pleased to honour this General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, has been received by us with profound respect.

We can never cease to remember the gratifying terms in which your Majesty has annually assured our predecessors and ourselves, of the constant and undiminished interest hitherto taken by our beloved Sovereign in our National Church, and it cannot fail to be encouraging to us to be reassured of the continuance of the cordial good will and friendly spirit still animating your Majesty with a firm determination to uphold and secure to this ecclesiastical establishment the full enjoyment of all its rights and privileges, and to watch, with pleasure and with care, over its liberties and its interests.

We rejoice to know that the Lord God Omnipotent, whose dominion ruleth over all, has placed your Majesty in the high and responsible position of guardian of our Church, and that, far from looking on the proceedings of our Assembly as a matter of indifference or of slender importance, your Majesty has been deeply impressed with the loyalty and devotion which have characterized its counsels hitherto; and thus recognizing the claims it has established on the Royal confidence and support, your Majesty contemplates with satisfaction the session now commencing, in the full conviction that our efforts will be successfully directed to promote the efficiency of our ecclesiastical discipline, and the spread of pure religion among all classes of the people.

Fully assured of the eminent qualities and tried discretion of the Right Honourable the Earl of Mansfield, and having had experience of the dignity and kindness with which he has previously exercised his high functions, to the great satisfaction of this Church, we feel it to be our duty to receive him with every token of warm regard.

We receive with deep gratitude your Majesty's Royal Warrant for two thousand pounds for the reformation of the Highlands and Islands, and we will earnestly study to apply this munificent gift to the purposes for which it has hitherto been specially destined.

That the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Supreme King and Head of the Church, may pour down on your Majesty the most precious spiritual and temporal benefits; that He may also abundantly bless His Royal Highness the Prince Consort and all the Royal offspring; and that, when this world and its works shall have passed away, you may all be raised up to the glories and felicities of the everlasting kingdom of Our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, is the fervent prayer of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful, loyal, and obedient subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Church of Scotland, met in this General Assembly.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and at our appointment, by

M. LEISHMAN, Moderator.

The Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty have been pleased to take a favourable view of the claims of the Officers who served as agents for transports during the late war, with reference to their having awarded the Crimean and Baltic Medal. Such Officers therefore as served as agents for transports in the Black Sea, between the 14th September 1854 and the 9th September 1855, or who served in the Baltic during the operations in that sea in the years 1854 and 1855, should make application to the Accountant-General of the Navy (producing a certificate of identity, and specifying the period during which they were employed in the Black Sea or in the Baltic, as the case may be), when, if their claims be satisfactorily established, the medal will be awarded to them.

WAR-OFFICE, June 2, 1858.

THE Queen has been graciously pleased to signify Her intention to confer the Decoration of the Victoria Cross on the undermentioned Officers and Non-Commissioned Officers of Her Majesty's Army, who have been recommended to Her Majesty for that Decoration, in accordance with the rules laid down in Her Majesty's Warrant of the 29th of January 1856, on account of Acts of Bravery performed by them in the Crimea during the late War, as recorded against their several names ; viz.—

Regiment or Corps.	Rank and Name.	Act of Bravery for which recommended.
2d Dragoons .....	Serjeant Henry Ramage Date of Act of Bravery, 26th October 1854	For having, at the battle of Balaklava, galloped out to the assistance of Private McPherson, of the same Regiment, on perceiving him surrounded by seven Russians, when, by his gallantry, he dispersed the enemy and saved his comrade's life. For having, on the same day, when the Heavy Brigade was rallying, and the enemy retiring, finding his horse would not leave the ranks, dismounted and brought in a prisoner from the Russian lines. Also for having dismounted on the same day, when the Heavy Brigade was covering the retreat of the Light Cavalry, and lifted from his horse Private Gardiner, who was disabled from a severe fracture of the leg by a round shot. Serjeant Ramage then carried him to the rear from under a very heavy cross fire, thereby saving his life, the spot where he must inevitably have fallen having been immediately afterwards covered by the Russian cavalry.
3d Regiment, late of the 30th Regiment	Brevet-Major Mark Walker Date of Act of Bravery, 5th November 1854	For having, at Inkerman, distinguished himself in front of his Regiment, by jumping over a wall, in the face of two battalions of Russian infantry, which were marching towards it,—for the purpose of encouraging his comrades by his example to advance against such heavy odds,—which they did, and succeeded in driving back both battalions.
57th Regiment .....	Colour - Serjeant      George Gardiner Date of Acts of Bravery, 22d March and 18th June 1855	For distinguished coolness and gallantry upon the occasion of a sortie by the enemy, and when he was acting as Orderly Serjeant to the Field Officers of the trenches,—Left Attack upon Sevastopol,—in having rallied the covering parties which had been driven in by the Russians, thus regaining and keeping possession of the Trenches. Also, for unflinching and devoted courage in the attack on the Redan, on the 18th June 1855, in having remained, and encouraged others to remain in the holes made by the explosion of shells, from whence, by making parapets of the dead bodies of their comrades, they kept up a continuous fire until their ammunition was exhausted, thus clearing the enemy from the parapet of the Redan. This was done under a fire in which nearly half the officers, and a third of the Rank and File of the Party of the Regiment were placed hors de combat.
Late of 6th Dragoons .....	Surgeon James Monat, C.B., (now De- puty Inspector-General of Hospitals) Date of Act of Bravery, 26th October 1854	For having voluntarily proceeded to the assistance of Lieutenant-Colonel Morris, C.B., 17th Lancers, who was lying dangerously wounded in an exposed situation after the retreat of the Light Cavalry at the battle of Balaklava, and having dressed that officer's wounds in presence of, and under a heavy fire from the enemy. Thus, by stopping a serious hemorrhage, he assisted in saving that officer's life.

Regiment or Corps.	Rank and Name.	Act of Bravery for which recommended.
Royal Engineers.....	Captain Howard Craufurd Elphinstone Date of Act of Bravery, 18th June 1855	For fearless conduct, in having, on the night after the unsuccessful attack on the Redan, volunteered to command a party of volunteers, who proceeded to search for and bring back the scaling ladders left behind after the repulse; and while successfully performing this task of rescuing trophies from the Russians, Captain Elphinstone conducted a persevering search, close to the enemy, for wounded men, twenty of whom he rescued and brought back to the trenches.
Royal Engineers.....	Colour - Serjeant Henry McDonald Date of Act of Bravery, 19th April 1855	For gallant conduct when engaged in effecting a lodgement in the enemy's Rifle Pits, in front of the Left advance of the Right Attack on Sevastopol; and for subsequent valour, when, by the Engineer Officers being disabled from wounds, the command devolved upon him, and he determinately persisted in carrying on the sap, notwithstanding the repeated attacks of the enemy.
Royal Engineers.....	Colour-Serjeant Peter Leitch Date of Act of Bravery, 18th June 1855	For conspicuous gallantry in the assault on the Redan, when, after approaching it with the leading ladders, he formed a caponnière across the ditch, as well as a ramp, by fearlessly tearing down gabions from the parapet, and placing and filling them, until he was disabled from wounds.

TREASURY WARRANT.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the regulation of the duties of postage," power is given to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, from time to time, by Warrant under their hands, to alter and fix any of the rates of British or inland postage payable by law on the transmission by the post of foreign or colonial letters or newspapers, or any other printed papers, and to subject the same to rates of postage according to the weight thereof, and a scale of weight to be contained in such Warrant, and from time to time, by Warrant as aforesaid, to alter or repeal any such altered rates, and to make and establish any new or other rates in lieu thereof.

And whereas it is expedient that regulations should be made for the transmission by the post of the letters hereinafter mentioned.

Now we, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the power or authority in us for such purpose vested in and by the said Act, and of all other powers enabling us in this behalf, do, by this Warrant (under the hands of two of us, the said Commissioners, by the authority of the Statute in that case made and provided), order and direct that on every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight, transmitted by the post between any place in the United Kingdom and the islands of Martinique, Guadeloupe, and Curaçoa respectively (direct or through any foreign country), there shall be charged and taken in lieu of any rates of British postage now payable by law on such letters, an uniform British rate of six pence.

And we direct that on every letter not exceeding half an ounce in weight, transmitted by the post between the said islands of Martinique, Guadeloupe, and Curaçoa, or any of them, and any of Her Majesty's colonies, or any foreign country through the United Kingdom (whether through any colony or foreign country or not), there shall be charged and taken in lieu of any rates of British postage now payable by law on such letters, the rates of British postage following (that is to say)—

For the conveyance of every such letter between the islands of Martinique, Guadeloupe, and Curaçoa, or any of them, and any part of the United Kingdom, a rate of sixpence; and for the conveyance of every such letter between the port in the United Kingdom of the departure or arrival of the packet or ship conveying the same and the colony or foreign country to or from which the same shall be forwarded, such a further or additional rate of postage as shall from time to time be charged and payable for British postage on letters posted or delivered at the port in the United Kingdom of the departure or arrival of the packet or ship conveying the same, and transmitted direct between such port and any such colony or foreign country.

And we direct that on every letter transmitted as is mentioned in this Warrant, exceeding half an ounce in weight, there shall be charged, taken, and paid, progressive and additional rates of postage as follows, that is to say:—

On every such letter exceeding half an ounce in weight and not exceeding one ounce in weight, two rates of postage.

On every such letter exceeding one ounce and not exceeding two ounces in weight, four rates of postage.

On every such letter exceeding two ounces and not exceeding three ounces in weight, six rates of postage.

And on every such letter exceeding three ounces and not exceeding four ounces in weight, eight rates of postage.

And for every ounce in weight above the weight of four ounces, there shall be charged and taken two additional rates of postage; and every fraction of an ounce above the weight of four ounces shall be charged as one additional ounce, and each progressive and additional rate, chargeable under this clause, shall be estimated and charged at the sum which any such letter would be charged with under this Warrant, if not exceeding half an ounce in weight.

And we direct that in all cases in which any letter in respect of which any rate of postage is chargeable by this Warrant shall pass through a foreign country, any foreign postage payable thereon shall be charged and paid thereon in addition to the British postage.

And we further direct that nothing in this Warrant contained shall in anywise prejudice or affect the privilege granted by the said recited Act, in favour of petitions and addresses forwarded to Her Majesty by the post, nor the privilege granted by the same Act to members of each House of Parliament to receive by the post petitions and addresses to Her Majesty, and petitions addressed to either House of Parliament, not exceeding thirty-two ounces in weight, exempt from postage; nor shall anything in this Warrant contained, in anywise prejudice or affect the privilege which seamen and soldiers employed in Her Majesty's Service, and seamen and soldiers employed in the service of the East India Company, now by law enjoy, of sending and receiving by the post letters not exceeding half an ounce in weight, subject to the regulations and restrictions in respect of the same.

And we further direct that nothing in this Warrant contained shall be deemed and construed to extend to any letters or packets posted in or addressed to France, or any foreign country through France, and transmitted between France or foreign countries through France and the islands of Martinique, Guadeloupe, and Curaçoa, or either of them, all of which last-mentioned letters and packets shall be charged and chargeable with the same rates of postage as if this Warrant had not been signed.

And we further direct that the term "by the post," used in this Warrant, shall, as to the sea conveyance, include the conveyance by any British packet-boat, and the said term shall also include the sea conveyance by any private ship.

And we further direct that this Warrant shall come into operation on the 1st day of July 1858.

Provided lastly, and we hereby declare and direct, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners for the time being of Her Majesty's Treasury, by Warrant duly made, at any time hereafter to alter or repeal any of the rates hereby altered, or the regulations hereby made, and to make and establish any new or other rates or regulations in lieu thereof, and from time to time to appoint at what time the rates that may be payable are to be paid.

Board of Trade, Whitehall,
June 2, 1858.

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Ambassador at Paris, inclosing copy of a French Imperial Decree authorising the negotiation in France of Foreign Railway Shares, and of which the following is a translation :—

Art. 1.—The negotiation at the Paris and Provincial Bourses, of Shares issued by Railway Companies on account of railways constructed beyond the French territory, is regulated by the laws and regulations applicable to the negotiation of French securities of a similar nature, subject, however, to the conditions mentioned in the following Articles :—

Art. 2.—The Companies must prove that they are constituted in conformity with the laws of the country where they are formed.

For this purpose they must remit to the Minister of Finance, and to the Syndical Chamber of Sharebrokers (Agents de Change), authentic copies of :—

1st. The authorised public Acts by which their formation has been sanctioned, and which have empowered them to construct a railway or railways.

2d. The statutes, statements of special conditions (cahiers de charges), and in general all the documents by which they have been regulated or modified.

Art. 3. The Companies are obliged to show that their shares, as also their bonds, if they have issued any, are officially recognised (estées) in the country to which the railways belong.

Art. 4. The shares must not be of less than 500 francs. All those which have been issued should be paid up to the extent of seven-tenths.

They will not be authentically placed upon the list of the French Bourses until they have given rise to operations sufficiently numerous for their course to be appreciated.

Art. 5. The bonds can be negotiated and quoted in France when the capital (capital social), or that portion of such capital which is represented by shares shall have been paid up, and the issue in France of such bonds shall have been authorised by the Ministers of Finance, of Agriculture, of Commerce, and of Public Works.

Art. 6. It is forbidden to any sharebroker to assist to negotiate the shares of Foreign Companies previous to their being admitted by the Syndical Chamber of Sharebrokers as negotiable.

It is equally prohibited before such admission has been signified, either to publish the course of these shares in France, or to announce subscriptions open in France for shares and bonds of Foreign Companies.

Art. 7. Nothing is to prejudice any authorisation granted previously to the promulgation of this decree.
