

Regiment or Corps.	Rank and Name.	Act of Bravery for which recommended.
Royal Engineers.....	Captain Howard Craufurd Elphinstone Date of Act of Bravery, 18th June 1855	For fearless conduct, in having, on the night after the unsuccessful attack on the Redan, volunteered to command a party of volunteers, who proceeded to search for and bring back the scaling ladders left behind after the repulse; and while successfully performing this task of rescuing trophies from the Russians, Captain Elphinstone conducted a persevering search, close to the enemy, for wounded men, twenty of whom he rescued and brought back to the trenches.
Royal Engineers.....	Colour - Serjeant Henry McDonald Date of Act of Bravery, 19th April 1855	For gallant conduct when engaged in effecting a lodgement in the enemy's Rifle Pits, in front of the Left advance of the Right Attack on Sevastopol; and for subsequent valour, when, by the Engineer Officers being disabled from wounds, the command devolved upon him, and he determinately persisted in carrying on the sap, notwithstanding the repeated attacks of the enemy.
Royal Engineers.....	Colour-Serjeant Peter Leitch Date of Act of Bravery, 18th June 1855	For conspicuous gallantry in the assault on the Redan, when, after approaching it with the leading ladders, he formed a caponnière across the ditch, as well as a ramp, by fearlessly tearing down gabions from the parapet, and placing and filling them, until he was disabled from wounds.
