

The force bivouacked in the fort that night, and the re-embarkation, which was most satisfactorily conducted under Captain Hand, of Her Majesty's ship Sampson, and Commander Lacy, of Her Majesty's ship Adventure, with Lieutenant-Colonel Hon. H. Clifford, was effected by 10 A. M. the following morning, bringing away two large brass guns.

I owe my thanks to all concerned in this gallant little affair, officers, non-commissioned officers, and men of both services, and take this opportunity of recording the names of all prominently employed, Lieutenant-Colonel Stephenson, C.B., Assistant Adjutant-General, Lieutenant-Colonel Hon. H. Clifford, V. C., Assistant-Quartermaster-General, and Lieutenant Longley, Royal Engineers, acting temporarily as my Aide-de-Camp.

Colonel Hope Graham, C.B., 59th Regiment, who volunteered to accompany me as second in command; Captain Slight, Her Majesty's ship Sanspareil, commanding Naval Brigade; Lieutenant-Colonel Wynne, commanding Royal Engineers; Captain Porter, commanding Royal Artillery; Brevet-Major Foote, commanding Royal Marines; Brevet-Major Romer, commanding 59th Regiment; Captain Riach, commanding 12th Madras Native Infantry; and Lieutenant Honourable W. Le Poer Trench, Royal Engineers, commanding detachment of Sappers; also Ensign Danvers, 70th Bengal Native Infantry, attached to the Military Train, and whose loss I have with true regret to record, he having been killed by the accidental discharge of a musket of one of the Gun Lascars, when about to re-embark. He was a most promising young officer, and is much regretted by the force. I must also record my sense of the courtesy with which Commodore the Honourable Keith Stewart co-operated with me on every occasion; and my thanks are due to Captain Hand, Her Majesty's ship Sampson; Commander Saumarez, Her Majesty's ship Cormorant, and to all the officers commanding gun-boats employed.

A list of casualties and ordnance captured is also appended.

I have, &c.,

C. T. VAN STRAUBENZEE,
Major-General, Commanding Her Majesty's Forces
in China.

of State for War, &c., &c., &c.,
