WHITEHALL, October 28, 1858.

THE Queen has been pleased to present the Reverend Francis Goddard, M.A., to the Vicarage of Helmerton, alias Hilmerton, in the county of Wilts, and diocese of Salisbury, void by the death of the Reverend Francis Fisher.

By virtue of an Act passed in the twenty-fourth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to repeal so much of two Acts made in the tenth and thirteenth years of the reign of His present Majesty, as authorizes the Speaker of the House of Commons to issue his warrant to the Clerk of the Crown for making out writs for the election of Members to serve in Parliament, in the manner therein mentioned, and for substituting other provisions for the like purposes:"

I do hereby give notice, that the death of Sir John Potter, Knt., late a Member serving in this present Parliament for the city of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, hath been certified to me in writing, under the hands of two Members serving in this present Parliament, and that I shall issue my warrant to the Clerk of the Crown to make out a new writ for the electing of a Member to serve in this present Parliament for the said city of Manchester, at the end of fourteen days after the insertion of this notice in the London Gazette.

Given under my hand, this twenty-eighth day of October 1858.

By Authority of Parliament,

WILLIAM RUCK,

Clerk of the Grocers' Company.

Grocers' Hall, October 29, 1858.

PERTH, KINROSS, AND FIFE ROADS.

(Continuation of Term, Repeal, or Amendment of Acts.)

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, That application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing Session for leave to bring in a Bill to continue, alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act passed in the tenth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, entitled, "An Act for more effectually making, amending, widening, repairing, and maintaining the Great North Roads, leading from the North Queensferry, and from the Harbour of Burntisland, both in the county of Fife, by Kinross, to the city of Perth, and also the road from the said North Queensferry to the town of Dunfermline"; and of another Act passed in the said tenth year of the reign of his said Majesty, entitled, "An Act for repairing and keeping in repair the Turnpike Roads in the county of Fife, for rendering Turnpike certain Statute-Labour and Parish Roads, and for making and maintaining certain new roads in the said county"; and of another Act passed in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, entitled, "An Act for constructing a low-water Pier and necessary works at Burntisland, in the county of Fife, and establishing a Ferry between the same and Granton, in the county of Edinburgh, and for improving the communication between the said Pier and Kinghorn"; or to repeal the said Acts, and to grant other and more effectual powers and provisions in lieu thereof, and to extend the term, or to create a further term with reference to the roads to which the said mentioned Act relates. Also, to amend the powers and provisions of an Act passed in the first and second years of the reign of His Majesty King William IV, entitled, "An Act for amending and

"making more effectual the laws concerning Turnpike Roads in Scotland," so far as applicable to the roads authorised by the said first-mentioned Act to be made and maintained.

And it is further intended by the said Bill to authorise the Trustees to be thereby continued or appointed to maintain and repair the several roads now maintained and repaired, or authorised to be maintained and repaired, by the Trustees appointed by the said first-mentioned Act; to continue the levying on the said roads of the tolls authorised by the said first-mentioned Act to be taken, or to alter such tolls or some of them, and to levy other tolls, and to vary the mode of levying and collecting tolls on the said roads; to alter, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of tolls, and to continue and confer other exemptions; to vary or repeal certain restrictions as to levying and collecting tolls imposed by the said Acts, or some of them, and to alter, vary, or extinguish all rights and privileges which would interfere with the purposes aforesaid and the objects of the said Bill, and to confer other rights and privileges.

And it is further intended by the said Bill to authorise the Trustees to be thereby continued or appointed, and the Trustees acting in the execution of the said secondly mentioned Act to mutually enter into such arrangements or agreements as they may deem expedient with reference to any of the purposes aforesaid, or otherwise.

And NOTICE IS ALSO HEREBY GIVEN, That, on or before the twenty-third day of December next, printed copies of the said Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons.

Dated this First day of November, 1858.

J. & J. MILLER, Perth.
