WHITEHALL, April 11, 1859.

The following Address of Congratulation to the Queen, on the occasion of the safe Delivery of Her Royal Highness the Princess Frederick-William of Prussia of a Prince, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable the Secretary of State for the Home Department for presentation, has accordingly been presented by him to Her Majesty, who has been pleased to receive the same very graciously:—

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Great Yarmouth, beg leave, with every sentiment of respect, to approach the Throne, for the purpose of presenting our most sincere congratulations on the happy event of the birth to your Majesty of a Grandson, and to Her Royal Highness the Princess Frederick-William of a Son, the Heir to the Crown of Prussia.

The example and influence of both countries are identical, and they are now united by that additional and endearing tie which, in the domestic walk of life, is sure to join families and friends more closely together.

But, in whatever way the birth of a Prince to your Majesty may be regarded, the event upon which we respectfully present our congratulations
