TUESDAY, APRIL 19, 1859.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day
of April 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by Her Majesty in Council, that His Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury do prepare a Form of Prayer and Thanksgiving to Almighty God for the constant and signal Successes obtained by the Troops of Her Majesty, and by the whole of the Forces serving in India, whereby the late sanguinary Mutiny and Rebellion which had broken out in that country hath been effectually suppressed, and the blessings of tranquillity, order, and peace, are restored to Her Majesty's subjects in the East; and it is ordered that such Form of Prayer and Thanksgiving be used in all Churches and Chapels in England and Wales, and in the town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, upon Sunday the first day of May next.

And it is hereby further ordered, that Her Majesty's Printer do forthwith print a competent number of Copies of the said Form of Prayer and Thanksgiving, in order that the same may be forthwith sent round and read in the several Churches and Chapels in England and Wales, and in the town of Berwick-upon-Tweed.

WM. L. BATHURST.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day
of April 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HER Majesty in Council having deemed it right and proper that Prayers and Thanksgivings should be offered up to Almighty God for the constant and signal successes obtained by the Troops of Her Majesty, and by the whole of the Forces serving in India, whereby the late sanguinary Mutiny and Rebellion which had broken out in that country hath been effectually suppressed, and the blessings of tranquillity, order, and peace, are restored to Her Majesty's subjects in the East; all Ministers and Preachers, as well of the Established Church in that part of Great Britain called Scotland, as of the Episcopal Communion protected and allowed by an Act passed in the tenth year of the reign of Queen Anne, chapter seven, are hereby earnestly exhorted, on Sunday the first day of May next, at some time during the exercise of Divine Service, in their Churches, Congregations, or Assemblies, to offer up Solemn Prayers and Thanksgivings to Almighty God for the great mercies He has thus vouchsafed to grant.

WM. L. BATHURST.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 12th day
of April 1859,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the 398th Section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that each of the three General Lighthouse Authorities therein mentioned, that is to say, the Trinity House, the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, and the Port of Dublin Corporation, shall have power, with the consent of Her Majesty in Council, to exempt any ships, or any classes of ships, from the payment of Light Dues receivable by such authority, and to annex any terms or conditions to such exemptions;

And whereas the said three General Lighthouse Authorities did, by virtue of the said power, with the consent of Her Majesty in Council, given on the twenty-sixth day of June one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, exempt all vessels, smacks, and boats belonging to the United Kingdom, while actually employed in catching fish, within soundings, from the payment of Light Dues;

And whereas it is expedient that this exemption should be extended to all vessels, smacks, and boats supplied with the ordinary fishing gear, and engaged solely in fishing, whilst they are employed in carrying to port fresh fish from the fishing grounds;

And whereas the said three General Lighthouse Authorities have submitted, for the approval of Her Majesty in Council, the following exemption, that is to say:—

That all vessels, smacks, and boats supplied with the ordinary fishing gear, and employed solely in fishing, shall be exempt from the payment of Light Dues whilst they are employed in carrying to port fresh fish from the fishing grounds.

Now therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Her by the said recited Act, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to approve, and doth hereby approve of and signify Her consent to the said recited exemption.

WM. L. BATHURST.
